

Conductors' Watches Differ

ABE—Give me my immunity contract now before I testify.
SPRECK—Wait till Langdon's elected, Abe, then we can make good.

$30,000,000
IN GOLD IS COMING

Lusitania Will Be Treasure Ship.
Banks All Over the Country Are Getting Good Relief.

NEW YORK Nov 2—Engagements of gold for importation to the United States necessitated by the recent period of financial stringency on this country are approaching the $30,000,000 mark.

An engagement was made today that the National City Bank has engaged a total of $1,000,000 in United States gold coin in Havana for import, that N. W. Harris & Company of Boston have engaged $100,000 in gold and that Geo. M. McFadden & Brother of Boston have $300,000 in gold now enroute to the United States from Europe on the steamer Lusitania. These sums bring the total engagements up to $28,150,000.

Additional engagements of gold in Europe today for importation had brought the total to $29,150,000.

Oklahoma Banks' Deposits Are Heavy

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Nov 2—The banks of the city all opened this morning on the limited payment plan. The deposits were greatly in excess of amounts withdrawn. The holiday proclaimed by Acting Governor Fliven does not end until Monday.

$75,000,000 DISTRIBUTED

In Interest
And Dividends
For November

NEW YORK, Nov. 2—Banks and trust companies distributed yesterday $75,000,000, representing stock dividends and interest on bonds. This is the largest distribution of its kind in November in the history of the country.

Of the $75,000,000 distributed $45,000,000 represented interest on bonds and $30,000,000 dividends declared by industrial steam railroad and street railway companies.

MAYOR MOTT
SAYS OAKLAND

Is in No Danger of Hard Times

Banks are Safely and Most Judiciously Managed.

Mayor Frank Mott scouts the idea that Oakland is in danger of a financial panic.

"Oakland, like all the cities on the coast, is liable to an attack of hard times. There has never been any unwaranted booming of property values here and the city is established on a solid business basis. The local banks have been carefully and practically conducted, and there has been no speculating with the money of depositors. There has been a large influx of outside capital here during recent years, which has been used for

LOCAL CRISIS IS NOW PAST

Oakland Clearing House Statement

The business of the Oakland banks is in a normal condition. The people understand this, and there appears to be no cessation in savings deposits, and at the commercial banks the depositors were quick to learn that whatever they deposited they might withdraw at their pleasure. In fact there is nothing in the

Continued on Page Two

MESSINGER
BOY WANTED

To go to San Francisco daily at 3 p. m.
J. A. Putnam, circulation department,
TRIBUNE

GRAND OPPORTUNITY
AUCTION SALE

Of the fine furniture, concert grand piano, carpets etc. of old Castro Street near the corner of 18th and San Bruno, November 4, at 10:30 a. m. Comprising in part: One concert grand piano, brass and iron beds, bedding, odd oak, mahogany and maple dressers and bureaus, tables, lacquered chairs, etc. Brussels carpets, large rugs, pedestal oak dining table, china closet, chairs, fine chinaware, silverware, parlor furniture, etc.

This house has only been furnished three months and everything is new and must be sold.

J. J. MUNRO & CO., Auctioneers,

10th and Clay streets, Telegraph street, Oakland.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT RECOGNIZES GOOD WORK OF STORK IN THIS CITY

Because of the Fact That Nine-Tenths of Families Have New Babies Gives Town a Postmaster.

NEW YORK, N. J., Nov. 2.—President Roosevelt has granted this place a post office on account of the wonderful increase in the stork's whereabouts. A delegation of citizens called at the White House and told him that there had been nine-tenths of the three hundred families since the place was established as a manufacturing center two years ago.

Before the delegation got back home, Mr. Roosevelt had abolished rural free delivery in Roebling by appointing A. L. Major, postmaster.

Forty-two births in the last week brings the town to the front as the champion stock community of New Jersey.

7 INJURED

FORD TRIAL TO GO ON MONDAY

Judge Lawlor Grants One More Continuance, Probably Last.

(Special to THE TRIBUNE)
SAN FRANCISCO Nov. 2—Judge Lawlor this morning continued the hearing in the case of Tiley L. Ford until Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock on account of the public holiday declared by the governor. The judge took occasion to say that he thought this would be the

Continued on Page Two

IN HEAD-ON COLLISION WHICH WAS THE RESULT

Disastrous Accident in Town Near Chico on Trolley Line.

CHICO, Cal., Nov. 2.—In a head-on collision at 7 o'clock this morning on the Northern electric railroad at 1½ miles from the city, seven persons were injured, two severely. A passenger coach being Marysville at 7:20 o'clock ran into a southbound freight train on a curve. The passenger coach was almost crushed to nothing and the freight motor was mangled.

The accident was caused by a discrepancy of five minutes in the watches of the conductors. The injured, O'Neill, passenger car motorman, suffered a fractured leg in several places and injured internally may die.

W. Meier, freight brakeman, left arm broken and left eye bruised.

C. Kimball, Chico, knee wrenched.

George Wilson, Oroville, back strained.

J. Kirkpatrick, Marysville, back injured.

J. A. Taylor, Oroville, cut along the head.

T. T. Dolan, 1307 O'Farrell street, San Francisco, back injured.

IDENTIFIES THE BOLD HOLD-UP

DERAILS TRAIN TO PREVENT COLLISION
Heroic Action of Tower Man Stops
Disastrous Accident on 7th Street Line.

By derailing a Seventh street local train to prevent a collision with a switch engine at Seventh and Cedar streets C. H. Harris, in charge of the switch tower at that point this morning averted what might have been a disastrous wreck in saving the loss of many lives. It was conceded by all who witnessed the accident that the quick action of the tower man prevented a disaster. The failure of the air brakes to work also added to the danger of a collision.

Engine No. 1901, in charge of Engineer H. Gibbs, was pulling out from the West Oakland station. A good headway had been attained when a switch engine, drawing two cars, rushed down cedar street and railed over the crossing.

AIR CHAMBERS EMPTY

Engineer Gibbs of the local train, seeing a collision imminent, sounded the air whistle, but the air chambers were broken. To his horror, the air chamber showed that they were empty and the train rushed towards the switch engine and came now only a few yards away.

Switch engine operator, the fireman, escapee, was seen to see a terrible crash.

It was here that the tower man showed his ready wit. Throwing open the switch he moved along the track for a few yards and came to a stop not 20 feet from the

switch engine. Only the engine of the train left the track and although the road bed was torn up for some distance no great damage is done. The switch engine, however, was mangled and the tower man credit for averting the wreck.

The train was in charge of Conductor or engineer and was well filled with passengers.

The local was derailed about 11:30 o'clock and it is stated back on the track about 1 o'clock by two switch engines

switch engine. Only the engine of the train left the track and although the road bed was torn up for some distance no great damage is done.

The switch engine, however, was mangled and the tower man credit for averting the wreck.

The train was in charge of Conductor or engineer and was well filled with passengers.

The local was derailed about 11:30 o'clock and it is stated back on the track about 1 o'clock by two switch engines

switch engine. Only the engine of the train left the track and although the road bed was torn up for some distance no great damage is done.

The switch engine, however, was mangled and the tower man credit for averting the wreck.

The train was in charge of Conductor or engineer and was well filled with passengers.

The local was derailed about 11:30 o'clock and it is stated back on the track about 1 o'clock by two switch engines

switch engine. Only the engine of the train left the track and although the road bed was torn up for some distance no great damage is done.

The switch engine, however, was mangled and the tower man credit for averting the wreck.

The train was in charge of Conductor or engineer and was well filled with passengers.

The local was derailed about 11:30 o'clock and it is stated back on the track about 1 o'clock by two switch engines

switch engine. Only the engine of the train left the track and although the road bed was torn up for some distance no great damage is done.

The switch engine, however, was mangled and the tower man credit for averting the wreck.

The train was in charge of Conductor or engineer and was well filled with passengers.

The local was derailed about 11:30 o'clock and it is stated back on the track about 1 o'clock by two switch engines

switch engine. Only the engine of the train left the track and although the road bed was torn up for some distance no great damage is done.

The switch engine, however, was mangled and the tower man credit for averting the wreck.

The train was in charge of Conductor or engineer and was well filled with passengers.

The local was derailed about 11:30 o'clock and it is stated back on the track about 1 o'clock by two switch engines

switch engine. Only the engine of the train left the track and although the road bed was torn up for some distance no great damage is done.

The switch engine, however, was mangled and the tower man credit for averting the wreck.

The train was in charge of Conductor or engineer and was well filled with passengers.

The local was derailed about 11:30 o'clock and it is stated back on the track about 1 o'clock by two switch engines

switch engine. Only the engine of the train left the track and although the road bed was torn up for some distance no great damage is done.

The switch engine, however, was mangled and the tower man credit for averting the wreck.

The train was in charge of Conductor or engineer and was well filled with passengers.

The local was derailed about 11:30 o'clock and it is stated back on the track about 1 o'clock by two switch engines

switch engine. Only the engine of the train left the track and although the road bed was torn up for some distance no great damage is done.

The switch engine, however, was mangled and the tower man credit for averting the wreck.

The train was in charge of Conductor or engineer and was well filled with passengers.

The local was derailed about 11:30 o'clock and it is stated back on the track about 1 o'clock by two switch engines

switch engine. Only the engine of the train left the track and although the road bed was torn up for some distance no great damage is done.

The switch engine, however, was mangled and the tower man credit for averting the wreck.

The train was in charge of Conductor or engineer and was well filled with passengers.

The local was derailed about 11:30 o'clock and it is stated back on the track about 1 o'clock by two switch engines

switch engine. Only the engine of the train left the track and although the road bed was torn up for some distance no great damage is done.

The switch engine, however, was mangled and the tower man credit for averting the wreck.

The train was in charge of Conductor or engineer and was well filled with passengers.

The local was derailed about 11:30 o'clock and it is stated back on the track about 1 o'clock by two switch engines

switch engine. Only the engine of the train left the track and although the road bed was torn up for some distance no great damage is done.

The switch engine, however, was mangled and the tower man credit for averting the wreck.

The train was in charge of Conductor or engineer and was well filled with passengers.

The local was derailed about 11:30 o'clock and it is stated back on the track about 1 o'clock by two switch engines

switch engine. Only the engine of the train left the track and although the road bed was torn up for some distance no great damage is done.

The switch engine, however, was mangled and the tower man credit for averting the wreck.

The train was in charge of Conductor or engineer and was well filled with passengers.

The local was derailed about 11:30 o'clock and it is stated back on the track about 1 o'clock by two switch engines

switch engine. Only the engine of the train left the track and although the road bed was torn up for some distance no great damage is done.

The switch engine, however, was mangled and the tower man credit for averting the wreck.

The train was in charge of Conductor or engineer and was well filled with passengers.

The local was derailed about 11:30 o'clock and it is stated back on the track about 1 o'clock by two switch engines

switch engine. Only the engine of the train left the track and although the road bed was torn up for some distance no great damage is done.

The switch engine, however, was mangled and the tower man credit for averting the wreck.

The train was in charge of Conductor or engineer and was well filled with passengers.

The local was derailed about 11:30 o'clock and it is stated back on the track about 1 o'clock by two switch engines

switch engine. Only the engine of the train left the track and although the road bed was torn up for some distance no great damage is done.

The switch engine, however, was mangled and the tower man credit for averting the wreck.

The train was in charge of Conductor or engineer and was well filled with passengers.

The local was derailed about 11:30 o'clock and it is stated back on the track about 1 o'clock by two switch engines

switch engine. Only the engine of the train left the track and although the road bed was torn up for some distance no great damage is done.

THRONGS AT RING AT JOHNSON-FLYNN GO

Denver Ed Martin Gets Decision Over Spike Kennedy in the Preliminaries.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—"Denver" Ed Martin (colored) and "Spike" Kennedy of Kansas City, Mo., who are scheduled to box a ten-round preliminary, entered the ring at 2:15 o'clock. The weather conditions were ideal. The attendance was the largest at the Colma arena since the Burns-Squires battle several months ago. About twenty-five women were scattered about the amphitheater. There was considerable betting at the ringside, the odds varying from 10 to 5, to 10 to 4, with Johnson the favorite. Johnson and Flynn entered the grounds shortly before 2 o'clock and went at once to their respective dressing-rooms. Johnson gave out his weight at 134 pounds, while Flynn announced his at 176.

Martin was given the decision over Kennedy in the sixth round.

The colored man completely outmatched his white antagonist and at no time during the six rounds of fighting was he in danger. Martin battered Kennedy's face into a pulp and Referee Roche, yielding to the cries of "Stop it," from the spectators, awarded the decision to the former.

Interest in the fight between Johnson and Flynn was greatly accentuated by the fact that the winner will meet Tommy Burns for the world's heavyweight championship.

During the wait for the heavyweights to appear, Jack (Twin) Sullivan issued a challenge to Al Kauffman. The latter who was at the ring side, announced his acceptance.

Johnny Frazer, a local lightweight challenged "Pucky" McFarland of Chicago for $1000 a side.

Taft Entertained By War Veterans

MANILA, Nov. 2.—Secretary Taft is being entertained by the veterans of the war. The program of social engagements will continue throughout next week but several of them will be devoted to the discussion of important insular affairs with Governor General Smith and the Philippine commissioners.

FINAL DIES FROM SELF INFILCTED WOUND

An attempt to commit suicide, made on October 8th, proved successful this morning, when John Murphy, an inmate of the county hospital, died as a result of a gash in his throat inflicted by himself more than three weeks ago.

Murphy had been ill for a long period, and in a fit of despondency on the day he died tried to end his life. The attempt was apparently a failure, and for some time the physician believed he would recover.

The dead man was a native of Ireland. The remains were taken to the morgue where an inquest will be held on Monday.

ST. LOUIS BANK USES PAPER SLIPS AS BILLS

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 2.—Little blue, yellow and green slips of paper, in denominations of $1, $5 and $10, were put in circulation on money today by the National Bank of Commerce, the Third National Bank and the Merchant's American National Bank. These differ from the cashier's checks, which have been in circulation for a week. In that they were more payable to bearer and no indorsement or identification was required to cash them.

At the same time that the new checks were put in circulation, John L. Olson and Cashier Lottman, of the St. Louis post office announced that checks will no longer be accepted by the postal department in payment of any sort of an obligation. All deposits to cover postage on second-class mail matter, must be made in cash.

ALLEGED HUSBAND FAILED TO PROVIDE

Mrs. Anna M. Jackson went to the police this morning and had a complaint sworn against her husband, F. C. Jackson, on the charge of failure to provide. Jackson works at the East Shore Lumber Company, on Seventh Avenue. The couple live at 525 Seventeenth street.

OFFER YOUNG MAYOR POSITION ON STAGE

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 2.—Mayor Becker of Milwaukee has received an offer of $100 a week for forty weeks from Klaw & Erlanger. If the young gay mayor accepts he will be required to do a fifteen minute stunt in advanced vaudeville, telling audiences what he knows about the young men in politics and his personal experience in campaigning.

As a rule it is a safe practice not to put into the stomach anything that is not nourishing and easy of digestion.

DR. PRICE'S WHEAT FLAKE CELERY FOOD is easily converted by the digestive organs and supplies the nutritive wants of all parts of the body.

10 cents a package.

For sale by all Grocers.

CLASS OF '07 PLANS RALLY

BERKELEY, Nov. 2.—"Nawl-seven" this way. Friday night, November 8, 7 P.M. The night before the day after Thanksgiving. Well, we'll have a "two-per" (less carriage). It will be worth it. Things wet, things dry, things musical. Infants in arms strictly de-creed. No milk bottles available. Brother Merritt will be there with his Carriages at Breakfast time. Spread the news among all the old grinds, dige and y. C. M. H. S. Don't forget the chronic.

Such is the startling proclamation which the permanent secretary of the University class of 1907 has sent out among the members, notifying them of their proposed gathering. Tally-tally on the eve of the big Rugby game with Stan-

This will be the first meeting of the class since graduation, and the usual good time is anticipated. Every member of "naught-seven" who is not on a sick bed, expects to be there. A program will be given during the progress of the banquet and speeches will follow by a member of old "splinters." Secretary Julius Klein and the committee are very anxious to have a good time. A spring during the course of the evening. An abundance of California spirit will be worked up so that on the morrow the defendant being represented by one of his counsel who said that Mr. Glass had understood that it would not be necessary for him to appear in court.

This will be the first meeting of the class since graduation, and the usual

PRINCETON, 16 CARLISLE, 0

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Final score: Princeton, 16; Carlisle, 0. With the exception of a slippery field owing to an early morning drizzle, everything pointed toward a brilliant football game between the Princeton University and Carlisle Indian teams at the Polo grounds yesterday. Every seat in the spacious covered stand had been sold and tickets for the open stands brought high prices.

Glen Warner brought the Indian team to this city last night. The New Jersey colonials did not leave Princeton until this morning. The defeat of Princeton by Cornell a week ago at Ithaca and the victory of the Indians over the University of Pennsylvania makes the result of today's struggle doubtful, but Princeton was a slight favorite in the betting.

CARLISLE WINS TOSS.

Rain began to fall half an hour before the game started, but when it stopped cheering Carlisle won the toss and kicked off. The slippery ground handicapped both teams and game soon resolved itself into a kicking match. One of Mount Pleasant's punters rolled behind the goal line and Princeton kicked out to midfield.

After a touch back, with the ball in the middle of the Indian line, Harlan fumbled for a gain when Extended fumbled a forward pass. Princeton's attack was then threatened for the first time. Carlisle then made little progress. On the other hand, Dillon and Compton, of Carlisle, broke through the Indian line for repeated gains, carrying the ball to Carlisle's twenty-yard line, where Princeton lost it.

PRINCETON KICKS GOAL.

Princeton got the ball on an exchange of punts with McCormick and Harlan alternately carried it through the line for a touch down.

The score: Princeton, 5; Carlisle, 0. Harlan kicked the goal. Score: Princeton, 5; Carlisle, 0.

Princeton sent McCormick through for short gains and a penalty of fifteen yards on Princeton forced Harlan to drop kick a goal from the thirty-yard line. Harlan scored again, carrying the ball to Carlisle's twenty-yard line, where Princeton lost it.

SUCCESSION OF GAINS.

On the kick of the second half, Eddie Dillon brought the ball to the middle of the field in a thirty-yard sprint, only one man tackling him from behind. Princeton had a succession of gains, playing with great snap and speed despite the slippery field.

Rain was coming down in torrents, but the big crowd was not bothered.

Princeton was given the ball for Carlisle, and made several spectacular sprints around the Princeton ends for substantial gains, increasing one of thirty yards, but part of this was lost on a penalty for holding.

Dillon retired in favor of Dawson, and the stand stood and cheered him. Whaley was sent in for MacFayden. The ball was being slowly moved to the Indian goal line where McCormick finally was dragged off the game.

Harlan kicked the goal. Score, Princeton, 16; Carlisle, 0.

FOOTBALL SCORES.

ITHACA, N. Y., Nov. 2.—Final: Cornell, 15; Western University of Pennsylvania, 5.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 2.—Final score: Minnesota, 12; Chicago, 12.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—Final score: Pennsylvania (firemen), 26; Syracuse (freshmen), 0.

CAMBRIDGE, Nov. 2.—Final score: Harvard, 5; Brown, 5.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—Final score: Pennsylvania, 15; La. Fayette, 0.

GRAND STAND FALLS AT GAME

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 2.—Successive line plays and punts by both sides failed to indicate any advantage till Minnesota got the ball on Chicago's thirty-yard line and Capron dropped another on second-class field.

Score—Minnesota, 8; Chicago, 6. The half ended with this score.

Five minutes after the second half Chicago had scored a touchdown on a forward pass, and in the ensuing excitement a section of the east bleachers collapsed. There was great excitement, but when the debris was cleared it was found that there were only two injured. One man's leg was broken and a boy sustained a sprained ankle. There was only one brief interruption, after which play was resumed and Page kicked a goal.

Score—Minnesota, 8; Chicago, 12.

FORD TRIAL TO GO ON MONDAY

(Continued from Page One.)

last holiday declared, and that the trial could be resumed on Monday without further interruption.

The defendant, with his attorney, Earl Rogers, was present in the courtroom and the prosecution was represented by Assistant District Attorney O'Gara. Attorney O'Gara took occasion to advise the court of a new authority which he had discovered which would tend to show that it was legal for William M. Abbott to testify in the present case.

The authority cited by O'Gara is an opinion handed down by a court in the State in the case of four Chinese jointly charged with murder in which it is held that the District Attorney had the right to call a co-defendant if he so desired.

The cases of Patrick Calhoun, Thornwell Mullally, William M. Abbott, Abraham Kuef and Eugene E. Schmitz were also continued until Monday at 8:30. Schmitz was the only one of the defendants present. The case of Louis Glass also went over to the same day and hour, the defendant being represented by one of his counsel who said that Mr. Glass had understood that it would not be necessary for him to appear in court.

This will be the first meeting of the class since graduation, and the usual good time is anticipated. Every member of "naught-seven" who is not on a sick bed, expects to be there. A program will be given during the progress of the banquet and speeches will follow by a member of old "splinters." Secretary Julius Klein and the committee are very anxious to have a good time. A spring during the course of the evening.

An abundance of California spirit will be worked up so that on the morrow the defendant being represented by one of his counsel who said that Mr. Glass had understood that it would not be necessary for him to appear in court.

This will be the first meeting of the class since graduation, and the usual good time is anticipated. Every member of "naught-seven" who is not on a sick bed, expects to be there. A program will be given during the progress of the banquet and speeches will follow by a member of old "splinters." Secretary Julius Klein and the committee are very anxious to have a good time. A spring during the course of the evening.

An abundance of California spirit will be worked up so that on the morrow the defendant being represented by one of his counsel who said that Mr. Glass had understood that it would not be necessary for him to appear in court.

This will be the first meeting of the class since graduation, and the usual

MAYOR MOTT

(Continued from Page One.)

building up and improving the city, and there is more coming.

The city treasury has plenty of money, and the projected city improvements are going ahead faster than ever before. If there is any tightness in the local money market at present I believe that it is due to an unwarranted timidity on the part of the public, which has been for some time past drawing out deposits from the banks.

"The money market is very sensitive, and when there is an unexpected diminution of available funds, of course, there is a slackening up of activity. But there is no danger of a crisis here. The banks are all in good condition and there is plenty of money in sight."

Million in Gold Taken From London

(Continued from Page One.)

building up and improving the city, and there is more coming.

The city treasury has plenty of money, and the projected city improvements are going ahead faster than ever before. If there is any tightness in the local money market at present I believe that it is due to an unwarranted timidity on the part of the public, which has been for some time past drawing out deposits from the banks.

"The money market is very sensitive, and when there is an unexpected diminution of available funds, of course, there is a slackening up of activity. But there is no danger of a crisis here. The banks are all in good condition and there is plenty of money in sight."

HOLIDAYS UNTIL DANGER PASSES

(Continued from Page One.)

building up and improving the city, and there is more coming.

The city treasury has plenty of money, and the projected city improvements are going ahead faster than ever before. If there is any tightness in the local money market at present I believe that it is due to an unwarranted timidity on the part of the public, which has been for some time past drawing out deposits from the banks.

"The money market is very sensitive, and when there is an unexpected diminution of available funds, of course, there is a slackening up of activity. But there is no danger of a crisis here. The banks are all in good condition and there is plenty of money in sight."

LOCAL CRISIS IS NOW PAST

(Continued from Page One.)

building up and improving the city, and there is more coming.

The city treasury has plenty of money, and the projected city improvements are going ahead faster than ever before. If there is any tightness in the local money market at present I believe that it is due to an unwarranted timidity on the part of the public, which has been for some time past drawing out deposits from the banks.

"The money market is very sensitive, and when there is an unexpected diminution of available funds, of course, there is a slackening up of activity. But there is no danger of a crisis here. The banks are all in good condition and there is plenty of money in sight."

So Said Governor Gillett This Morning.

(Continued from Page One.)

building up and improving the city, and there is more coming.

The city treasury has plenty of money, and the projected city improvements are going ahead faster than ever before. If there is any tightness in the local money market at present I believe that it is due to an unwarranted timidity on the part of the public, which has been for some time past drawing out deposits from the banks.

"The money market is very sensitive, and when there is an unexpected diminution of available funds, of course, there is a slackening up of activity. But there is no danger of a crisis here. The banks are all in good condition and there is plenty of money in sight."

Million in Gold Taken From London

(Continued from Page One.)

building up and improving the city, and there is more coming.

The city treasury has plenty of money, and the projected city improvements are going ahead faster than ever before. If there is any tightness in the local money market at present I believe that it is due to an unwarranted timidity on the part of the public, which has been for some time past drawing out deposits from the banks.

"The money market is very sensitive, and when there is an unexpected diminution of available funds, of course, there is a slackening up of activity. But there is no danger of a crisis here. The banks are all in good condition and there is plenty of money in sight."

HOLIDAYS UNTIL DANGER PASSES

(Continued from Page One.)

building up and improving the city, and there is more coming.

The city treasury has plenty of money, and the projected city improvements are going ahead faster than ever before. If there is any tightness in the local money market at present I believe that it is due to an unwarranted timidity on the part of the public, which has been for some time past drawing out deposits from the banks.

"The money market is very sensitive, and when there is an unexpected diminution of available funds, of course, there is a slackening up of activity. But there is no danger of a crisis here. The banks are all in good condition and there is plenty of money in sight."

LOCAL CRISIS IS NOW PAST

(Continued from Page One.)

building up and improving the city, and there is more coming.

The city treasury has plenty of money, and the projected city improvements are going ahead faster than ever before. If there is any tightness in the local money market at present I believe that it is due to an unwarranted timidity on the part of the public, which has been for some time past drawing out deposits from the banks.

MAKES PLEA FOR THE ELECTION OF P. H. M'Carthy, LABOR CANDIDATE

J. B. Bowen Gives Strong Reasons Why the Union Labor Men Should Cast Their Ballots for the Man Who Heads Their Ticket.

San Francisco, Nov 1, 1907
Editor TRIBUNE.—Less than a week remains of the present municipal campaign. San Francisco is just in the center of one of the most interesting and bitterest political contests in her history.

Looking back over the two past weeks of political advertising and oratory, the one thing that stands out most conspicuously is the fact admitted by the most shrewd and closest political observers that P. H. McCarthy, Frank McGowan, and the other nominees on the Union Labor ticket are making the most telling canvass. The Union Labor district meetings compared to those of former campaigns have a larger attendance and they literally bubble over with spontaneous enthusiasm. The prevailing sentiment among the vast number of working men and small business men who attend these great gatherings is that they are going to vote the Union Labor ticket straight—they are not going to take any risks. They say they will place a cross in the ring at the head of the Union Labor column, blot their ballot so it cannot possibly be defaced, fold it and give it to the judge, and they further affirm that they are going to be on hand at their election precinct on November 5th to see that their votes are honestly counted.

McCARTHY'S RECEPTION
The reception given P. H. McCarthy by the mechanics and laborers at the Union Iron Works as compared to that which greeted Dr. Taylor is another point that the San Francisco wiseacre of politics have made a note of.

The standard bearer of the Union Labor party rode up to the gate of the Union Iron Works at the noon hour in the same old buggy and with the same horse that he has been driving over the streets of the city for the last year and a half. He was given a rousing reception and listened to with marked attention. He spoke straight from the heart as one working man would speak to another and his pointed sentences were rewarded with liberal applause. At the conclusion of his address the great audience numbering over 35000 drowned the shrill whistle which called them to work by their continued cheering for P. H. McCarthy the next Mayor of San Francisco.

With Dr. Taylor it was quite different. When he arrived at the Union Iron Works a little after 12 o'clock on Saturday he came with six mounted policemen escorted by a heavy bevy of pink tea members of the Ladies Taylor Club made up of the most noted representative society ladies of San Francisco's four hundred.

Small wonder that the sturdy iron workers who have built the pride of our navy toiling long hours for small pay and struggling to better their condition were seized with a feeling of inexpressible disgust that they gave vent to in as mild a language as possible when they said "What do you think of that? Look at it. Mounted policemen and 'pink tea' ladies. Well the old feller that is what he is going to give us if he becomes Mayor."

Taylor ascended his improvised platform with his ladies escort after a number of his leaguers and clackers were distributed among the audience, and gave his address which was listened to in a sulken manner by the 2000 mechanics.

The thirty of his followers who had been distributed for that purpose cheered and as often as they cheered the men in overalls and jumpers the mechanics and laborers cheered lustily for P. H. McCarthy.

Of course the sewer dailies that are busy killing Taylor by their support, gave quite a different report of the Taylor meeting at the Union Iron Works, but then these same dailies have never been noted for telling the truth about San Francisco politics. They also failed to report that Dr. Taylor went home a very sick man Saturday night.

The close of the second week of the campaign finds the nominees of the so-called Good Government-Democratic-Citizens Alliance Fusion-Leaguers a heart-sick broken-down man. His grammar, his rhetoric, is faultless his English is of the best his learning is admired and his poetry, though not widely read, is passable, but the political burden that old Dr. Taylor has taken on his shoulders is too much. It takes a strong man to carry that load of McNab-Phelan-Spreckels, Mike J. Young and all the other Citizens' Alliances. En plovers' Association, political job chasers who are scrapping to get their hands and mouths into the municipal trough. It is as they may, the obvious hoof is too apparent. The Spreckels built the Valley Road for the poor people, and then sold it at millions of dollars profit to the Santa Fe. The Spreckels built the Independent Electric Light Company for the sole benefit of the dear public and then sold it to the gas and light trust for millions of profit.

The Phelans and Spreckels have plans, they are determined to carry out the plans. Their plans are to augment the Spreckels and Phelan fortunes by millions.

It will be remembered that the "big stick" endeavored to force a hundred and sixty-thousand-dollar steal through the Board of Supervisors for the Spring Valley Water Company. The steal was prevented by the votes of Supervisors Tveitnæs and O'Neill although the steal was warmly recommended by the so-called Federated Water Company.

It was the most outrageous attempt to loot the city treasury that was ever put into action in any community and but for the votes of the two Supervisors, Tveitnæs and O'Neill, who really represent union labor on the Board the steal would have been consummated.

Of course the greed interests of San Francisco would like to see the wages of the building mechanics and laborers reduced. This has been suggested several months ago, and the "Chronicle" has strongly advocated a reduction in the wages of the building artisans. If Taylor were elected the Citizens' Alliance, the Phelans and Spreckels the Magees would have control of the police force and they would no doubt make an attempt to force strikes in the building industry next spring for a wage reduction. Undoubtedly in such a contingency the building mechanics of San Francisco would be told to work for any old wage that Phelan and Spreckels desired to give them or be clubbed.

Phelan has not done any building to speak of since the fire. He is just getting the foundation of his Market street block started and Rudolph Spreckels has raised a couple of stories on two class C buildings. They and the other millionaires who belong to their peculiar financial clique are evidently waiting for a substantial wage reduction. But according to all indications

Charcoal Stops Gas On Your Stomach

Wonderful Absorbing Power of Charcoal When Taken in the Form of Stuarts Charcoal Lozenges.

Trial Package Sent Free
Charcoal pure simple charcoal absorbs 100 times its own volume of gas. Where does the gas go to? It is just absorbed by the charcoal—the gas disappears and there is left a pure fresh sweet atmosphere free from all impurities and germs.

That's what happens in your stomach when you take one or two of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges the most powerful purifiers science has yet discovered. You belch gas in company sometimes by accident, greatly to your own humiliation. That is because there is a great amount of gas being formed in your stomach by fermenting food. Your stomach is not digesting your food properly. Gas is inevitable. Whenever this happens just take one or two of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges right after eating and you will be surprised how quickly they will act. No more belching, no more sour risings. Eat all you want and what you want and then if there is any gas going to be formed one of these wonderful little absorbers a Stuart Charcoal Lozenge will take care of all the gas.

And it will do more than that. Every particle of impurity in your stomach and intestines is going to be carried away by the charcoal. No one seems to know why it does this but it does and does it wonderfully. You notice the difference in your appetite, general good feeling, and in the purity of your blood, right away.

You have no more bad taste in your mouth or bad breath either from drinking, eating or smoking. Other people will notice your bad breath quicker than you will yourself. Make your breath pure, fresh and sweet so when you talk to others you won't disgust them. Just one or two Stuart Charcoal Lozenges will make your breath sweet, and make you feel better all over for it. You can eat all the onions and odorous foods you want, and no one can tell the difference.

Besides charcoal is the best laxative known. You can take a whole boxful and no harm will result. It is a wonderfully easy regulator.

And then too it filters your blood—every particle of poison or impurity in your blood is destroyed and you begin to notice the difference in your face first thing—your clear complexion.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are made from pure willow charcoal, and just a little honey is put in to make them palatable, but not too sweet. They will work wonders in your stomach, and make you feel fine and fresh. Your blood and breath will be purified.

We want to prove all this to you, so just send for a free sample today. Then after you get it and use it, you will like them so well that you will go to your druggist and get a box of these Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges.

Send your name and address to-day and we will at once send you a sample package free. Address: F. A. Stuart Co., 100 Stuart St., Mar-

Dr. Lyon's PERFECT Tooth Powder

Cleanses, preserves and beautifies the teeth, and Purifies the breath
A superior dentifrice for people of refinement

Established in 1866 by
J. H. Lyon, D.D.S.

aggrandisement, job chasers, who hope to be rewarded by some soft berth or well filled crib close to the municipal treasury.

Besides this personal avarice the same men are and have been for years actuated by the rankest kind of jealousy of which small incompetent, good-for-nothings are suffering, but they cannot deceive the union working men of San Francisco. When they see Michael Casey, Frank Symmes Gavin McNab Walter MacArthur Louis Sloss and William McCabe upon the same platform they understand the situation perfectly, and they will vote accordingly at the next election—they will vote for P. H. McCarthy for Mayor and the entire Union Labor ticket—they will vote for themselves, their own, and San Francisco's best interests.

J. B. BOWEN,
Business agent Building Trades Council

SOCIETY GIRLS BECOME NUNS

Join Ursuline Sisterhood in Santa Rosa—Well Known in San Francisco.

SANTA ROSA, Nov 2—Miss Clara Tormey and Miss Nellie Ferry two young society girls of this city and also well known in San Francisco are to take the white veil of the Ursuline Sisters next Monday. The Catholic community is deeply interested in the event. The young women will take the black veil two years hence.

The ceremony will take place at the Ursuline College in this city and the fact that both young women have a large circle of friends in San Francisco as well as in Sonoma county adds much interest to their reception into the sisterhood. Miss Tormey is a graduate of the Sisters College while Miss Ferry has been a student there. Miss Tormey is a prominent young woman of Cloverbud and related to a pioneer family. It is a long time since the ceremony has been witnessed in this city and a large number of San Francisco and Santa Rosa friends have received invitations to be present. A large number of relatives and friends will be present to bid the young women godspeed in their work.

Cost of Anti-Jap Riot to Fall on Japanese

VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov 2.—The law officers of the Crown at Ottawa have decided that the white landlords are responsible for the rapes for all damage to Japanese tenement houses caused by the rioters September 7.

Style Features in Women's Regals

The windows of Women's Regal stores this season are genuine style-exhibits of the approved Fall and Winter models.

The latest style-trend is well illustrated in the model shown here. Note the dainty button top, short vamp, graceful pointed toe, well arched instep and Cuban heel. The characteristic features of the latest Paris and New York custom boots are faithfully reflected in this season's Regals for Women—thirty-six entirely new models.

One of 36
New Autumn Styles Made in All Leathers
1/4-Sizes!
Send for New Fall Style Book.

$3.50 and $4.00
Custom Specials, $6.00
Mail Orders Promptly Filled.

REGAL SHOES FOR WOMEN

OAKLAND—MEN'S STORES 21 San Pablo Ave. 1217 Broadway
WOMEN'S STORES 22 San Pablo Ave. 1217 Broadway
SAN FRANCISCO STORES 7315 Market St. 400 Van Ness Ave., corner Bush St.

Read About the Tribune $10,000 Prize Contest

BODY OF AUTHOR OF CO-ED SMOKING ARTICLE IS PLASTERED OVER WITH STICKY FLY PAPER

UNDERGRADUATES TAKE REVENGE

Appeals of Victim Are Unheeded by Captors.

DAVID L. LEVY.

BERKELEY Nov 2—The aftermath of the co-eds smoking club article which appeared in the University of California Daily last evening when Editor David L. Levy was visited in his home on Franklin was a part of indignant undergraduates who demands that the paper be purged, but that the young author will probably never forget.

Levy was seized by enraged students, gagged, bound and carried to an unfurnished room in the University. He was stripped of his coat and his body pasted on a board, 3' x 5', with fly paper, after which his garments were put back on him and three twine were given a coating of the sticky substance.

Such was the drastic remedy taken by the men of the University of California for what they consider an insult to the women of their co-educational institution.

MASS MEETING

Shortly after the appearance on the campus yesterday morning of the magazine containing the objectionable article he met with a mass meeting on North Franklin. Although he is lame and a number of his upperclassmen who are friendly to him attempted to turn the excited students from their purpose the men were resolute and insisted that Levy should leave the room.

About 4 o'clock in the evening Levy's home at 130 Franklin was visited by a crowd of 50 or more indignant undergraduates some masked in flowing white tape but

BIG STRIKE IS POSTPONED

English Public Is Against the Action of the Workmen.

LONDON Nov 2—The prospects that the president of the Board of Trade, Lloyd-George, may be able to avert the general strike by arranging a compromise were brighter today. A full meeting of the executive committee of the Amalgamated Society of Engineers' Secretaries was held this morning and it was decided to postpone all action on yesterday's resolution in favor of a strike until after the conference which is to take place with Mr. Lloyd-George November 6 to which he has invited the society to send representatives.

Richard Bell, M. P. general secretary of the society and leader of the strike movement, probably will head the delegation.

Public feeling against the strike is so strong that the men are bound to go slow so long as the country shows any disposition to arrive at a compromise arrangement.

The railroad men will hold a mass meeting at Albert Hall here on Sunday and deputation from all parts of the United Kingdom will be present.

Company to Make Winged Airships

NEW YORK November 2—The incorporation of another airship company is reported in New Jersey. Herman Lazarus, Wm. Shaefer and Julius W. Dehrauer, the last named a titled Austrian with a bent tow invention have incorporated the Veritas Verit Navigation Company. Veritas is a suburb of New York City. The company is capitalized at $100,000 and will begin turning out airships next month possibly in or near Bayonne if the inventors according to specifications set prior to incorporation already are to be propell by wings measuring two or four feet from tip to tip. Twenty-four horsepower gasoline engine will supply the power and the whole contrivance is to weigh 250 pounds. Dehrauer is the inventor of the machine.

McCurdy Furniture Yet Under Hammer

NEW YORK Nov 2—The second day's sale of furniture from the office of ex-President McCurdy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company brought in $17,000. The total amount received at the two days' sales is a total of $35,000.

The highest price realized at the second day's sale was $325 paid for a carved and gilt Louis XV parlor suite. The directors' table at which the elder McCurdy presided for many years and which cost the company $12,000, sold for $10.

FINANCIAL SITUATION DISTINCTLY IMPROVES

WASHINGTON Nov 2—Treasury officials agree that the financial situation is distinctly improving and reports from financial centers were of a reassuring character.

News of the resumption of the banks in New Mexico and Oklahoma was received with satisfaction and it is said to be abundantly evident that the fear for more serious conditions is subsiding.

Conditions are improving in the country and the treasury officials and clerks are working overtime in the effort to keep up with their vastly increased correspondence. Several large shipments of currency will be made from here at the close of business this evening.

FRIENDS FAIL IN RESCUE EFFORTS Faculty Investigation of Editor's Charges to Be Made.

and the flypaper remedy was decided upon as being more effectual than the chemist's pond.

FRIENDS TRY RESCUE. In the meantime Levy's friends headed by Sam Hume were searching wild and deep down the campus. The rescuers headed at once for the chemistry pond, where they expected to find the young editor and his assailants, but the other crowd had been too wary.

Levy when seen last evening had only this comment to make upon the attack: "If my assailants had investigated further they took it cowardly step they might have been here today. So far as they are concerned we shall take no steps at present. The matter will not rest, however. WILL INVESTIGATE. Faculty investigation will be made of the charges of Editor Levy that the co-eds in the University have formed a cigarette smoking club. Miss Sprague, who is a woman who has announced today that she would look into the matter, making inquiries among the co-eds as to the existence of the reported society of women smokers, and also asking Levy to divulge his source of information.

Miss Sprague said today that she had heard nothing of the cigarette club club. As soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

No bodily injury was done the victim, who was twice hit by thirty more under duress, apparently as soon as the students reached the lonely hill above the gate leading to the bridge across Strawberry Creek near the bridge club members, half of thirty more, had abandoned the organization and stopped the practice. She said:

"While I don't think that the University would want to form a cigarette club, I am in the position of not knowing anything about it. I will make an investigation of the supposed organization and will ask Mr. Levy to explain the matter to me."

A SCATHING INDICTMENT OF LANGDON AND SPRECKELS

A Labor Organ's Eloquent Protest Against Prostitution of the Machinery of Justice for Private Ends---Striking Contrast Between Folk and Langdon.

(From the San Francisco Leader of November 2, 1907)

A word to you, the people of San Francisco. What is going on in this town of yours, under your very eyes?

A wonderful thing is going on—a thing that nobody could have believed possible in an American city and under a republican form of government.

A Boss has taken possession of your city. He holds it in the hollow of his hands. He pulls down Mayors, he sets up Mayors, he pulls them down again. He appoints your law makers, and tells them what laws to pass, what laws to repeal. He decides on the budget, and taxes you according to his own will and pleasure. He gives away franchises or refuses them. He owns your courts, he brow-beats your judges, he terrifies your juries. He orders them to indict, to condemn, to acquit as it seems good to his wisdom. He maintains a private force of spies. He keeps a private jail. He supports a corps of private jailers. He appoints one of his super-annuated clerks as Mayor of the city, he appoints his washerwoman as Chief of Police. There is no function of government which he has not invaded. He decides who shall vote and who shall not vote. If a citizen refuses to do his bidding he is tracked by spies, his domestic privacy is invaded, his character is torn to pieces in the reptile press, he is overwhelmed with law suits, and he faces the loss of liberty, property, reputation, even life itself. If a newspaper dare differ with him, it is haled into court, the details of its business are published to the world, its owners' time and money are wasted in the vexatious processes and details of the law. In a word, he has seized a power that no tyrant of ancient or modern times has dared to claim. He is like the golden statue which Nabuchodonosor set up. All peoples, nations and languages must fall down and adore it. Whoso falleth not down and adoreth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning, fiery furnace.

A question for you, people of San Francisco.

How did this boss get his power? Some kind of a boss is inseparable from every kind of government. Even in monarchies there is the power behind the throne. We always had bosses in San Francisco, and we always will. But there has been this difference in times past the boss has always been created directly or indirectly by the will of the people. The minute the people wanted to get rid of him, he had to go.

The new charter tried to legalize the boss. It said Let us force the boss into the open. The danger is with the concealed boss. Let us make the Mayor of the city the boss. Then we know what we are getting, and if he does not behave we can throw him out.

The plan did not work. It only made it easier for the boss. In the old times the boss had to elect half a dozen men, now he has to elect one, or at most two. But still even now the boss is indirectly answerable to the people. But what about the new boss? Is he answerable to the people? See how he got his power, and let that answer you, ye people of San Francisco.

The new boss does not have to thank the people of San Francisco, directly or indirectly, for his power. He built it himself from the ground up, he built it by money.

All the things that have been done and are being done under the reign of Caesar Spreckels are possible because he is a millionaire and in the open to buy men.

Suppose tomorrow you should elect a new set of officials displeasing to Caesar Spreckels, would that hamper his activities as boss? The term or office is short, the details of courts are long. Innocent men can be and have been indicted, false witnesses, packed juries and prejudiced judges are at Spreckels' command. What man, what official is safe? The powers of the financial world can be put in motion, business men can be forced to the wall. Poor men can be swallowed up in the maw of the law. It would be as easy to remove your new Mayor and your new Board of Supervisors as it was to remove the old ones, and easier, for practice, they say makes perfect.

All this is true, but true only on one condition, that the boss owns the District Attorney. It is not necessary to own him at first, it is only necessary that he should be caved down the bank.

In the Folk campaign, he went before the people, made his plea to them, and was elected by them. By his methods, republican government received no wound. Whether he was right or wrong, the people authorized him to do as he did.

But the San Francisco case is different. Caesar Spreckels did not take the trouble of going before the people he does not condone even to address the people. He does not want your votes. He has money. The woods are full of talented lawyers. He can hire them. His motto therefore is, "THE PUBLIC BE—DISSEVELLED."

But this man Langdon is before you begging your votes.

A question for you, ye people of San Francisco.

Who and what is Langdon?

Langdon is a country school master who came to San Francisco, got elected Superintendent of Schools, turned over the onerous duties of that office to deputies and devoted his time to the study of law, was made by the grace of Schmitz and Ruet District Attorney, bolted the Democratic ticket and ran as Hearst's representative for Governor against Bell, turned over his office to Spreckels, and gave himself up to meditation, while Spreckels and deputies hired by Spreckels ran the office and used the power committed by the people to Langdon to get control of the government of the city.

In a late speech Mr. Francis J. Heney declared, with that elegance of phrase for which he is famed, that Langdon's opponent was not fit to try a Chinaman. It may be that Mr. Francis J. Heney believes that Langdon is fit to try a Chinaman, but we have proofs of it. The great difference between Langdon and Folk is that Folk did his own work. Langdon turned his office over to Mr. Spreckels, and then retired carefully under the bed.

These are facts of universal knowledge. Langdon was compelled by Joe Dwyer, acting for the Examiner, to turn his office over to Spreckels. Langdon did not want to do it. He resisted. He was caved down the bank.

Langdon, having surrendered his office, was not consulted as to the plans of the prosecution, he drew up no papers, he made no motions, he did nothing but play the good dog, while the hired lawyers of Caesar Spreckels usurped all the powers of a public office.

Langdon was nominally owned by the Examiner, but Caesar Spreckels will permit no rival. He is a jealous god. Langdon, true to his propensity for ratting, deserted Hearst and went over body and soul to Spreckels.

This is one of the extraordinary things about Langdon, he never stays put. There is in Ireland a fairy known as the Leprechaun. He appears as a diminutive cobbler busily engaged in repairing a tiny pair of brogues. If you can steal upon him and catch him you can force him to tell you where his pot of gold is hidden. But beware, if you once turn your eyes away from him your power is lost, and he is gone, and his gold with him. He has a hundred tricks to make you turn your head, and so he usually succeeds in escaping.

Now, Langdon is very like the Leprechaun. One minute you have him in your hand, and you think you are sure of him. You turn away your eyes for a moment, and he is gone with his gold. It would not be a bit surprising, if he happens to be elected, that the next sight we should get of Leprechaun Langdon and his pot of gold would be in Pat Calhoun's big fist.

A question for you, ye people of San Francisco.

IF IT BE RIGHT, AND IT IS RIGHT, THAT THE PEOPLE OF SAN FRANCISCO SHOULD PASS JUDGMENT ON THE PROCEEDINGS IN OUR COURTS DURING THE PAST TWELVE MONTHS, WHY DO NOT THE PEOPLE REALLY RESPONSIBLE RUN FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY? WHY DOES NOT RUDOLPH SPRECKELS RUN, OR FRANCIS J. HENRY, OR HIRAM JOHNSON? WHY SHOULD A THING THAT IS NOTHING BUT AN ACHING VOID RUN FOR THE OFFICE? WITH LANGDON ELECTED, THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE IS AS FREE AS A PUBLIC CONVENIENCE AND PUT TO AS BASE USES.

THAT IS THE FIRST QUESTION YOU PEOPLE OF SAN FRANCISCO MUST ANSWER. DO YOU WANT THAT KIND OF A DISTRICT ATTORNEY? ADMIT THAT RUDOLPH SPRECKELS IS INDISTINGUISHABLE FROM AN ANGEL, THAT FRANCIS J. HENRY IS LORD CHESTERFIELD AND CHIEF JUSTICE MARSHALL COMBINED, THAT MR. HIRAM JOHNSON IS AS PUBLIC SPIRITED AND AS DISINTERESTED AS HIS DISTINGUISHED FATHER—ADMIT THIS, AND ASK YOURSELVES IF IT IS TO THE PUBLIC GOOD THAT THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE SHOULD BE A VACANT CHAIR TO BE OCCUPIED BY THE FIRST COMER? REMEMBER WHAT TREMENDOUS POWER THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE CAN WIELD, REMEMBER WHAT TREMENDOUS INTERESTS ARE AT STAKE IN SAN FRANCISCO, AND THEN SAY, IF YOU CAN, THAT THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY OF THIS CITY SHOULD BE A RED RUBBER STAMP.

TONIGHT ENDS BIG CAMPAIGN

Great Fight Centers on District Attorneyship and Mayoralty Contest.

SAN FRANCISCO Nov. 2.—Tonight will see the close of the municipal campaign so far as public meetings are concerned. As a finishing flourish the supporters of the Union Labor ticket have arranged a street parade and demonstration for Monday night when it is promised 50,000 standard bearers and their allies will march in line.

All of the parties have planned for overflow meetings in various parts of the city tonight with street corner bonfires and red light to set them off.

Five tickets are in the field and thirty two offices are to be filled or those of Major District Attorney, eighteen Supervisors Auditor Treasurer Assessor

Fire Collector Recorder City Attorney

Public Administrator County Clerk

Sheriff Coroner and two Police Judges.

But the great public interest is centered in the District Attorneyship and the Mayoralty in the order named.

THREE TIMES

District Attorney William H. Langdon's name appears three times on the official ballot, he having been nominated for re-election by the Republicans, Democrats and Good Government League. His only rival is the Union Labor party's nominee, Hank McGowan. He beat him and Langdon has the bitter fight of the campaign.

For District Attorney the Socialists have placed in nomination Ernest E. Kirk.

MAJORITY FIGHT

Three rivals are in the race for the office of Mayor. Dr. Edward R. Taylor, who succeeded Schmitz, heads the Democratic and Good Government League column.

Mr. Daniel A. Ryan, a regular Republican forces and Patrick H. McCarthy, standard bearer of the Union Labor party contest.

Mr. Ernest L. Rogen.

For signs indicate an exceptionally close vote on Tuesday, with the result hardly in doubt.

THE IRON WAY

Three rivals are in the race for the office of Sheriff.

Mr. Gavin McNamee, the Democrat, has been nominated by the Socialists.

Mr. Francis J. Heney, the Republican, has been nominated by the Good Government League.

Mr. John D. Tamm, the

Independent, has

been nominated by the Socialists.

Mr. John D. Tamm, the

Independent, has

been nominated by the Socialists.

Mr. John D. Tamm, the

Independent, has

been nominated by the Socialists.

Mr. John D. Tamm, the

Independent, has

been nominated by the Socialists.

Mr. John D. Tamm, the

Independent, has

been nominated by the Socialists.

Mr. John D. Tamm, the

Independent, has

been nominated by the Socialists.

Mr. John D. Tamm, the

Independent, has

been nominated by the Socialists.

Mr. John D. Tamm, the

Independent, has

been nominated by the Socialists.

Mr. John D. Tamm, the

Independent, has

been nominated by the Socialists.

Mr. John D. Tamm, the

Independent, has

been nominated by the Socialists.

Mr. John D. Tamm, the

Independent, has

been nominated by the Socialists.

Mr. John D. Tamm, the

Independent, has

been nominated by the Socialists.

Mr. John D. Tamm, the

Independent, has

been nominated by the Socialists.

Mr. John D. Tamm, the

Independent, has

been nominated by the Socialists.

Mr. John D. Tamm, the

Independent, has

been nominated by the Socialists.

Mr. John D. Tamm, the

Independent, has

been nominated by the Socialists.

Mr. John D. Tamm, the

Independent, has

been nominated by the Socialists.

Mr. John D. Tamm, the

Independent, has

been nominated by the Socialists.

Mr. John D. Tamm, the

Independent, has

been nominated by the Socialists.

Mr. John D. Tamm, the

Independent, has

been nominated by the Socialists.

Mr. John D. Tamm, the

Independent, has

been nominated by the Socialists.

Mr. John D. Tamm, the

Independent, has

been nominated by the Socialists.

Mr. John D. Tamm, the

Independent, has

HEART : TRIBUNE'S PAGE FOR WOMEN : HOME

Judge Decides Husband Should Do His Share of Dish Washing

Man Gives Wife $34 Weekly Out of $35 Salary and Thinks this Should honor, but it was under intense provocation," pleaded Luckoch; "she kept the dishes used at breakfast, dinner and supper one day, and told me to wash them. When I refused, she upset the table and started to throw the dishes at me. I had to defend myself."

"My salary from the C. H. Taylor Cut-glass Company is $35 a week," Luckoch continued; "I have always given $34 a week to my wife, keeping $1 for my laundry and tobacco. Yet my wife is very jealous of a woman, although I don't know how she figures that I can lavish

NEW YORK.—Every married couple must be interested in two decisions rendered by the learned Judge Howell at the First Criminal Court, Newark.

First: It is every husband's simple duty to wash the dishes in his household if need be. But that duty is not cumulative; if his wife carefully collects the dishes used at their three daily meals and demands that he wash them, he is perfectly right to refuse to do so.

Second: If a husband earns $35 a week and gives $34 to his wife each week, he should be free from her suspicion that he is leading a double life.

The opportunity for Judge Howell to drop these pearls of wisdom came when Mrs. Henry R. Luckoch charged her husband with having struck her. She displayed her face, with a black and blue spot on it, to substantiate her charge.

"I confess that I lost my temper your

Memory Of the Heart

If stores of dry and learned lore we gain, We keep them in the memory of the brain:

Names, things and facts—whatever we knowledge call—

There is the common ledger for them all, And images on this cold surface traced Make slight impression, and are soon effaced.

But we're a page more glowing and more bright

On which our friendship and our love to write.

That these may never from the soul depart.

We trust them to the memory of the heart.

There is no dimming, no effacement there, Each new publication keeps the record clear:

Warm, golden letters fill the tablet full, Nor lose their luster till the heart stands still.

—Daniel Webster.

GIRL WITH BARE ARMS

Not Modest Enough to Be His Wife

Prefers Jail to Marrying Girl He Jilted

WILMINGTON.—Angelo Baslon was arrested recently charged with embezzling $100 from Mary Gentry of New York City, and his arrest developed a case of unrequited love.

The Gentry woman, it appears, imported Baslon from Russia for the purpose of making him her husband. After his arrival in New York she bought him clothes and gave him $100.

Baslon, however, had a sweetheart in this city, and when he was given the $100 he gave her. The Gentry woman, after causing his arrest, offered to withdraw all charges if he would marry her, but Baslon said he would go to jail first.

He moved my shoe and started to remove my stocking. I protested. He assured me that he always attended to the details. He remarked that I had a pretty face. I curtly informed him that the corn was on the other end. Imagine my surprise when he began to remove my other shoe and stocking. He tried to make me laugh by tickling the sole of my foot, but he couldn't do it. I paid him his 50 cents and got out as quickly as I could."

"Stand up, Friedman!" sternly demanded the Judge.

"I am standing," said the doctor, whose style of architecture is admirably adapted to calling in which most men are compelled to stoop. Dr. Friedman was willing to apologize, but Mrs. Kittle and her husband demanded more drastic punishment.

"Your Honor," said Mrs. Kittle, "I had a corn on a toe of my left foot. No, it wasn't from tight shoes. I think I caught it from somebody. I went to this person's corn exchange and he led me into a corner curtained off from the rest of the room.

"I told him it was my left foot. He remarked that he always attended to the details.

He remarked that I had a pretty face.

I curtly informed him that the corn was on the other end. Imagine my surprise when he began to remove my other shoe and stocking.

He tried to make me laugh by tickling the sole of my foot, but he couldn't do it. I paid him his 50 cents and got out as quickly as I could."

"Stand up, Friedman!" sternly demanded the Judge.

"I am standing," said the doctor, whose style of architecture is admirably adapted to calling in which most men are compelled to stoop. Dr. Friedman was willing to apologize, but Mrs. Kittle and her husband demanded more drastic punishment.

"Your Honor," said Mrs. Kittle, "I had a corn on a toe of my left foot. No, it wasn't from tight shoes. I think I caught it from somebody. I went to this person's corn exchange and he led me into a corner curtained off from the rest of the room.

"I told him it was my left foot. He remarked that he always attended to the details.

He remarked that I had a pretty face.

I curtly informed him that the corn was on the other end. Imagine my surprise when he began to remove my other shoe and stocking.

He tried to make me laugh by tickling the sole of my foot, but he couldn't do it. I paid him his 50 cents and got out as quickly as I could."

"Stand up, Friedman!" sternly demanded the Judge.

"I am standing," said the doctor, whose style of architecture is admirably adapted to calling in which most men are compelled to stoop. Dr. Friedman was willing to apologize, but Mrs. Kittle and her husband demanded more drastic punishment.

"Your Honor," said Mrs. Kittle, "I had a corn on a toe of my left foot. No, it wasn't from tight shoes. I think I caught it from somebody. I went to this person's corn exchange and he led me into a corner curtained off from the rest of the room.

"I told him it was my left foot. He remarked that he always attended to the details.

He remarked that I had a pretty face.

I curtly informed him that the corn was on the other end. Imagine my surprise when he began to remove my other shoe and stocking.

He tried to make me laugh by tickling the sole of my foot, but he couldn't do it. I paid him his 50 cents and got out as quickly as I could."

"Stand up, Friedman!" sternly demanded the Judge.

"I am standing," said the doctor, whose style of architecture is admirably adapted to calling in which most men are compelled to stoop. Dr. Friedman was willing to apologize, but Mrs. Kittle and her husband demanded more drastic punishment.

"Your Honor," said Mrs. Kittle, "I had a corn on a toe of my left foot. No, it wasn't from tight shoes. I think I caught it from somebody. I went to this person's corn exchange and he led me into a corner curtained off from the rest of the room.

"I told him it was my left foot. He remarked that he always attended to the details.

He remarked that I had a pretty face.

I curtly informed him that the corn was on the other end. Imagine my surprise when he began to remove my other shoe and stocking.

He tried to make me laugh by tickling the sole of my foot, but he couldn't do it. I paid him his 50 cents and got out as quickly as I could."

"Stand up, Friedman!" sternly demanded the Judge.

"I am standing," said the doctor, whose style of architecture is admirably adapted to calling in which most men are compelled to stoop. Dr. Friedman was willing to apologize, but Mrs. Kittle and her husband demanded more drastic punishment.

"Your Honor," said Mrs. Kittle, "I had a corn on a toe of my left foot. No, it wasn't from tight shoes. I think I caught it from somebody. I went to this person's corn exchange and he led me into a corner curtained off from the rest of the room.

"I told him it was my left foot. He remarked that he always attended to the details.

He remarked that I had a pretty face.

I curtly informed him that the corn was on the other end. Imagine my surprise when he began to remove my other shoe and stocking.

He tried to make me laugh by tickling the sole of my foot, but he couldn't do it. I paid him his 50 cents and got out as quickly as I could."

"Stand up, Friedman!" sternly demanded the Judge.

"I am standing," said the doctor, whose style of architecture is admirably adapted to calling in which most men are compelled to stoop. Dr. Friedman was willing to apologize, but Mrs. Kittle and her husband demanded more drastic punishment.

"Your Honor," said Mrs. Kittle, "I had a corn on a toe of my left foot. No, it wasn't from tight shoes. I think I caught it from somebody. I went to this person's corn exchange and he led me into a corner curtained off from the rest of the room.

"I told him it was my left foot. He remarked that he always attended to the details.

He remarked that I had a pretty face.

I curtly informed him that the corn was on the other end. Imagine my surprise when he began to remove my other shoe and stocking.

He tried to make me laugh by tickling the sole of my foot, but he couldn't do it. I paid him his 50 cents and got out as quickly as I could."

"Stand up, Friedman!" sternly demanded the Judge.

"I am standing," said the doctor, whose style of architecture is admirably adapted to calling in which most men are compelled to stoop. Dr. Friedman was willing to apologize, but Mrs. Kittle and her husband demanded more drastic punishment.

"Your Honor," said Mrs. Kittle, "I had a corn on a toe of my left foot. No, it wasn't from tight shoes. I think I caught it from somebody. I went to this person's corn exchange and he led me into a corner curtained off from the rest of the room.

"I told him it was my left foot. He remarked that he always attended to the details.

He remarked that I had a pretty face.

I curtly informed him that the corn was on the other end. Imagine my surprise when he began to remove my other shoe and stocking.

He tried to make me laugh by tickling the sole of my foot, but he couldn't do it. I paid him his 50 cents and got out as quickly as I could."

"Stand up, Friedman!" sternly demanded the Judge.

"I am standing," said the doctor, whose style of architecture is admirably adapted to calling in which most men are compelled to stoop. Dr. Friedman was willing to apologize, but Mrs. Kittle and her husband demanded more drastic punishment.

"Your Honor," said Mrs. Kittle, "I had a corn on a toe of my left foot. No, it wasn't from tight shoes. I think I caught it from somebody. I went to this person's corn exchange and he led me into a corner curtained off from the rest of the room.

"I told him it was my left foot. He remarked that he always attended to the details.

He remarked that I had a pretty face.

I curtly informed him that the corn was on the other end. Imagine my surprise when he began to remove my other shoe and stocking.

He tried to make me laugh by tickling the sole of my foot, but he couldn't do it. I paid him his 50 cents and got out as quickly as I could."

"Stand up, Friedman!" sternly demanded the Judge.

"I am standing," said the doctor, whose style of architecture is admirably adapted to calling in which most men are compelled to stoop. Dr. Friedman was willing to apologize, but Mrs. Kittle and her husband demanded more drastic punishment.

"Your Honor," said Mrs. Kittle, "I had a corn on a toe of my left foot. No, it wasn't from tight shoes. I think I caught it from somebody. I went to this person's corn exchange and he led me into a corner curtained off from the rest of the room.

"I told him it was my left foot. He remarked that he always attended to the details.

He remarked that I had a pretty face.

I curtly informed him that the corn was on the other end. Imagine my surprise when he began to remove my other shoe and stocking.

He tried to make me laugh by tickling the sole of my foot, but he couldn't do it. I paid him his 50 cents and got out as quickly as I could."

"Stand up, Friedman!" sternly demanded the Judge.

"I am standing," said the doctor, whose style of architecture is admirably adapted to calling in which most men are compelled to stoop. Dr. Friedman was willing to apologize, but Mrs. Kittle and her husband demanded more drastic punishment.

"Your Honor," said Mrs. Kittle, "I had a corn on a toe of my left foot. No, it wasn't from tight shoes. I think I caught it from somebody. I went to this person's corn exchange and he led me into a corner curtained off from the rest of the room.

"I told him it was my left foot. He remarked that he always attended to the details.

He remarked that I had a pretty face.

I curtly informed him that the corn was on the other end. Imagine my surprise when he began to remove my other shoe and stocking.

He tried to make me laugh by tickling the sole of my foot, but he couldn't do it. I paid him his 50 cents and got out as quickly as I could."

"Stand up, Friedman!" sternly demanded the Judge.

"I am standing," said the doctor, whose style of architecture is admirably adapted to calling in which most men are compelled to stoop. Dr. Friedman was willing to apologize, but Mrs. Kittle and her husband demanded more drastic punishment.

"Your Honor," said Mrs. Kittle, "I had a corn on a toe of my left foot. No, it wasn't from tight shoes. I think I caught it from somebody. I went to this person's corn exchange and he led me into a corner curtained off from the rest of the room.

"I told him it was my left foot. He remarked that he always attended to the details.

He remarked that I had a pretty face.

I curtly informed him that the corn was on the other end. Imagine my surprise when he began to remove my other shoe and stocking.

He tried to make me laugh by tickling the sole of my foot, but he couldn't do it. I paid him his 50 cents and got out as quickly as I could."

"Stand up, Friedman!" sternly demanded the Judge.

"I am standing," said the doctor, whose style of architecture is admirably adapted to calling in which most men are compelled to stoop. Dr. Friedman was willing to apologize, but Mrs. Kittle and her husband demanded more drastic punishment.

"Your Honor," said Mrs. Kittle, "I had a corn on a toe of my left foot. No, it wasn't from tight shoes. I think I caught it from somebody. I went to this person's corn exchange and he led me into a corner curtained off from the rest of the room.

"I told him it was my left foot. He remarked that he always attended to the details.

He remarked that I had a pretty face.

I curtly informed him that the corn was on the other end. Imagine my surprise when he began to remove my other shoe and stocking.

He tried to make me laugh by tickling the sole of my foot, but he couldn't do it. I paid him his 50 cents and got out as quickly as I could."

"Stand up, Friedman!" sternly demanded the Judge.

"I am standing," said the doctor, whose style of architecture is admirably adapted to calling in which most men are compelled

THE MEDDLER

AFTERNOON FROCKS.

The plenitude of teas this week has called for a display of afternoon frocks, many of them of surpassing daintiness, and a number of the young matrons have worn a great variety. There is always the question in every woman's mind whether to have half a dozen really good things each season or to have a dozen more ordinary confections manufactured by the home dressmaker. Tastes differ. Some women wish to wear a different dress each time they appear before the same people and with dresses at two hundred or two hundred and fifty dollars apiece this season any great variety means the income of a millionaire. Many of the smartest women in San Francisco dress on eighteen hundred dollars a year or have done so in seasons past, but with hats and gowns and wraps at this year's prices any sort of an appearance on such an income presupposes the financial ability of a Rockefeller.

Some women make their own frocks, but these are not difficult to detect. A good dressmaker is as rare as a poet. The huge hats this year have met with their protest, but they are the vogue, just the same, and are worn far back of the pompadour. The hats require many soft puffs and curls and very few women torture their own locks into these combinations or, indeed, have enough locks so to torture. So it is a good year for the hair dresser as well. At Gadski's concert the other evening one young blonde matron with a beautiful fluffy pompadour all her own were at least twenty puffs and ten or twelve fetching little blonde curl also her own, but by right of purchase rather than by right divine.

Recently returned travelers from Paris say that the false hair worn here is as nothing to the amount worn in Paris, where every woman's head is as elaborate as is Marie Antoinette's in the miniature. Indeed the style of hairdressing is not unlike that of the unfortunate queen, nor are the hats so unlike the gorgeous and extravagant ones she wore.

ALMOST MISSED HER STEAMER.
Mrs. Laure Adams (Hazel Curtiss) and her little son have reached London, and are with Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Curtiss. Mrs. Adams' train was to leave in New York that she almost missed her steamer and reservations. She had an hour to transport herself, baby and baggage to the dock, and she made the steamer with little more than ten minutes to spare.

THE HOME CLUB PLAY.
The event of next week next of course to the Henshaw-Chickering wedding, will be the delightful performance of "The Tyranny of Tears," which the Home Club is to give on Wednesday evening. The play is a one-act, and was given here by John Drew, Isobel Irving, Arthur Byron and Ida Conquest some years ago. The Home Club cast includes Mrs. Elvyn Stebbins of Berkeley who has much talent as an amateur actress, and who will play the part of Mrs. Farbury; Miss Pearl Knox, who has the attractive part of Hyacinth Woodward, the stenographer Royston Williamson and Willard Barton.

HALLOWEEN FESTIVITIES.
Besides the Butlers' fancy dress party Hallowe'en saw many delightful festivities on both sides of the bay. Among others the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. A. Miller entertained a party of her young friends at a dinner at the Miller's charming home on Washington and Laurel streets across the bay. There were such fascinating decorations and dinner favors for this year that few people could resist giving some sort of affair in order to use them.

DINNER FOR THE SPERRYS.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deering entertained at dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George Sperry on Wednesday evening of this week. Mr. and Mrs. Deering's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Sperry, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mendell, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. A. Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas. After dinner bridge was played.

MEETING OF THE COSMOS CLUB.
The second meeting of the Cosmos Club was held at the residence of Mrs. A. A. Moore on Monday afternoon.

All of the other card clubs have now resumed and the members are looking forward to a gay winter.

ENTERTAINING FOR MISS OLIVER.
Much entertaining is going on in honor of Miss Carolyn Oliver who is to be one of the autumn brides. Mrs. Henry Rosenfeld will entertain for Miss Oliver shortly at a large bridge party and Mrs. Willard Williamson gives a tea for Miss Oliver today. Mr. and Mrs. Williamson, by the way, narrowly missed being injured in an automobile accident a few days ago but their injuries were not serious though they were badly frightened.

MAKING THEIR OWN HATS.

The San Francisco papers have been making merry over the fact that a few Oakland maids and young matrons, rebelling against the head extravaganzas for the season are refusing to wear the confections offered and are going to trim their own headgear. It is an exceedingly sensible plan. Worse even than the extravagant shapes themselves are the extravagant prices which are attached. Really handsome hats run from $75 to $100 this season, though anyone with a well filled attic ought to be able to extract enough plumes therefrom to supply them for this feathered winter at least.

• • •

HALLOWEEN A TEA FOR MRS. ZEILE.

One of the rather recent brides who has just returned from a year's honeymoon abroad is Mrs. Frederick Zeile. Mr. and Mrs. Zeile, with Mr. Zeile's two grown daughters, are living at the Fairmont, where Miss Marion Zeile recently gave a luncheon in honor of Miss Hyde-Smith, whose engagement was recently announced. Mrs. Zeile's hostess was Mrs. Harry Nathaniel Gray, whose pretty home at Scott and Green street, was attractively decorated and filled with friends for the occasion.

Mrs. Gray entertains charmingly and informally and was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Ames, and her pretty young daughter.

• • •

MISS KATHLEEN DE YOUNG.

Another debutante who will make her bow at a November tea is Miss Kathleen de Young, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. de Young. Miss Kathleen attended the Greenway dances last year, but was not formally out, and this year will be presented at one of the Saturdays in November. Big teas in the de Young ballroom and art gallery are always delightful, and this one will be no exception. Every November Saturday offers one or two large functions and people will go about from one to the other which always makes one feel gay.

ENTERTAINING FOR MRS. ATHERTON.

Mrs. Rudolph Spreckels gave a luncheon of fourteen covers in honor of Mrs. Gertrude Atherton last week, and today the Spinners' Club is giving a large reception at the Fairmont in honor of Mrs. Atherton, who is always a much feted guest whenever she returns to California. Mrs. Mark Gerstle is the president of the Spinners' Club and has attended to every detail in her usual competent way, so that everything will go perfectly.

Several hundred invitations to both men and women have been issued, and the affair will be the first afternoon event in the Red Room of the Fairmont.

FETE AT IDORA PARK.

The fete given by the Prynne Society of the University of California assisted by the Collegiate Alumnae, was held at Idora Park last Saturday, and because of the wretched drizzle of the day was not as successful financially as it otherwise would have been. The attractive fair, candy, fancy work and other booths were moved from the grounds to the veranda of the theater and the alleys of the skating rink, and were crowded with people interested in the University dormitory fund and the University Dispensary for the benefit of which the affair was given. Several hundred dollars was netted as against a thousand dollars for last year. The college girls looked most attractive, many of them being in fancy dress, and waited on tables and counters quite as if to the manner born.

PICTURES IN THE MEDDLER.

Miss Rose Hohfeld is to be married in January to Sidney Haslett of Alameda. The wedding will be an interesting one, as the young people are very well known and very popular. Miss Hohfeld is a sister of Mrs. William R. Hughes.

Miss Madge Culver is one of the season's brides-elect. Her engagement to Robert C. Cross was announced this week.

Mrs. Harry Coburn is a recent bride. At her wedding supper the engagement of her sister, Miss Lily Bennett, and Gordon Glidden, was announced.

Mrs. Harry Lane frequently visits her friends in Oakland. She has just returned to her home in Los Angeles having spent several days here on the occasion of the marriage of her brother, Clarence Reed, to Miss Estelle Peters.

MISS ALLA HENSHAW.

—Webster Photo

• • •

ENTHUSIASTIC OVER MERRY WIDOW.

People returning from abroad are enthusiastic over "The Merry Widow," the Viennese operetta which has taken hold of all Europe, the most notable musical success of modern times. All London was wild about it, and the music halls were packed nightly, and everybody sang, and many people whistled the strains of "The Merry Widow" waltz. Our own orchestra are playing it, but as "The Merry Widow" craze has not yet reached us, we do not recognize the music.

"The Merry Widow" was first produced in Vienna two years ago, and since then the fame of this special widow has spread all over Europe, as the most fascinating "widow" that has ever floated through the world of comic opera.

And now she has come to New York, and she has not lost any of her gaiety in crossing the ocean.

Every provincial capital in Europe has seen this operetta, which has just been introduced to New York in the English version produced in London at Daly's Theater last summer.

The English version is a translation of the original libretto, with a few of the situations accepted in Munich or Vienna eliminated.

It is the story of a Marsoyan widow and a Marsoyan prince, the opening scenes in the Marsoyan embassy, and the later scenes in Paris.

But it is on its music that "The Merry Widow" depends for its chief success. There is the charming waltz, which everybody has talked about, and which everybody will whistle and sing for the next few months. And it will be played in all restaurants and at all balls at it in Europe. It is all very jolly and amusing, and charming, and the greatest kind of a relief from the American musical comedy.

"The Merry Widow" is the great personage of the hour in comic opera, and she deserves the honor paid her. How much many of us wish that she might come to Idora Park!

• • •

MRS. WILLARD WILLIAMSON TO GIVE A TEA.

On Saturday afternoon many familiar faces at the matines will be missing, for many prominent people have been invited to the tea which Mrs. Williamson is planning in honor of popular Carolyn Oliver, who is soon to marry Mr. Madison Ralph Jones.

One hears that the Williamson's home is very picturesque, one of the many artistic homes that line lovely Hildebrandt avenue. And the home is sure to be very beautiful in honor of Miss Oliver, for this is the season of the year when Nature sends us gorgeous decorations. One may have shy violets, sending out fragrant chrysanthemums, and there are stunning chrysanthemums, striking superb and gorgeous color tones.

Mrs. Williamson knows so many

MISS ALLA HENSHAW.

—Webster Photo

• • •

MRS. MARY COBURN.

—Sharz Photo

words are unnecessary, for the story is told by dances. Miss Fuller had the initial performance in Paris this week.

• • •

MRS. CLIFF BACK FROM EUROPE.

Mrs. Cliff, Miss Jean Cliff, and Mrs. Lee Cole Burnham have had a warm welcome home again from many relatives and friends. They are all looking the picture of health after the many months of travel abroad. Miss Cliff and her daughters traveled in an ideal way, staying in any place that specially attracted them.

Mrs. Cliff and Miss Jean Cliff are at the family home on San Pablo avenue, and the Lee Cole Burnhams are at the Hotel Athens. They sold their home on Alice street, before Mrs. Burnham went abroad, and they are planning to build a new residence in the very near future.

• • •

PERFECT TIDE OF HALLOWEEN DATES.

Never before has there been such a perfect tide of Halloween dates as this year, and all the old-time traditions seem to have been interwoven in their observance. Even the Haloween dinners in private houses have shown a wealth of picturesque decoration never before attempted here. Dinner cards have on them Jack o'Lanterns, black witch cats, red devils, all suggestive of supernatural effects.

The big Jack o'Lantern, the famous old historic pumpkin, has been the center of many a table, at the Haloween gatherings of the week, and one centerpiece was made up of a small pumpkin on which was seated a witch, driving four black cats. In fact, black cats have been great favorites for Haloween, and they have been in boxes this year for dinner favors.

In fact for favors this week there have been witches, devils, and ghosts, all in box interiors. At one of the Haloween dinners was a little thermometer, which goes up to show "He loves much, little, or not at all."

But the Jack o'Lantern has been the favorite, and he has come in all sorts of picturesque and sometimes grotesque designs. One Jack had a red glass nose, which, when lighted, was most effective. And other heads for lanterns showed witches, devils, and black cats.

So that this year the wise little hostess has had much done for her to make her Haloween celebration the jolliest kind of an affair.

• • •

MRS. ATHERTON'S NEW BOOK.

Mrs. Atherton's new book, "Ancestors," is out, and is receiving no end of Eastern reviews, and most of them favorable—for Mrs. Atherton is one of the strongest writers who has come out of the West.

Loie Fuller IN PARIS.

Messages from abroad bring news

Arbor Villa. A friend writes concerning her:

"From time to time we have been surprised and interested by the ingenuity of La Fuller, but as her dances became well known, many persons concluded that she had reached the limit of her inventiveness and talent. She is at present rehearsing a wonderful version of 'Salome,' which will set everyone talking. Miss Fuller has originated novel effects in costumes, lights, and dances, which will be duplicated in America. Her 'Salome' is a play without words, but quake days—and as Oakland people are much like those of San Francisco the description is of special interest to us.

Mrs. Atherton arouses much thought in her reader. Her descriptive powers are strong and individual. She gives us pictures of San Francisco and of the death throes of that city vivid as paintings, starting as a vitilope. "She is not so happy in conveying the effect of the cataclysm on the people. They remain too self-conscious. They see themselves experiencing the experience. Death, terror, love—Mrs. Atherton meets them all with a keen, incisive mind rather than with a tender and comprehending heart.

"It is a playful, heartless, dissipated, fascinating city that Mrs. Atherton puts before us—she shows us its glory and its shame. Odd cosmopolitan, created to express a phase of human nature, a beetle, captivating, short-lived genius, knowing neither youth nor age, there was never another city like it, and perhaps never again will be."

Any story with San Francisco as the scene of action the San Francisco of the great earthquake is sure to be interesting—all the more so that the writer is Gertrude Atherton, one of the greatest of present day novelists.

• • •

MRS. BROMWELL ENTERTAINS.

One of the most truly picturesque afternoons of the season was the Haloween tea planned by Mrs. L. L. Mathews for Miss Mathews who is her guest.

Miss Mathews charmed everyone with her sweet manners, and the real cordiality with which she met all the new friends presented to her. She has most winning ways and won all Mrs. Bromwell's many friends for her own as well.

The Bromwell residence is admirably adapted for entertaining, and has been the scene of much hospitality in the past, but probably there has never been a more unique entertainment there than the Haloween planned for Miss Mathews.

The house showed simply a stunning scheme of decoration, all along Haloween lines. In one corner was the most picturesque weird old witch. She was just the witch of one's dreams—the Mother Goose of historic lore, or the old woman who rode a broomstick wildly through the midnight heavens.

This special witch was dressed in sombre black, a black robe and a big pointed hat forming the costume and she presided over a cauldron, in which Fate had written the destinies of many maidens. It was quite like the stuff of old—for the little messages were all on pieces of paper with charred edges, as though they were evolved from regions best known to the spooky still herself.

The messages were in rhyme, one of them read:

"Your lover comes across the water To get your father's sweet, young daughter."

In another corner was a Gypsy fortune teller, who looked at your palm, and read your future. She was a weird old Gypsy, and she had a scar on her head after the most approved fashion of a gypsy of the real Romany Rye.

There were apples suspended in Haloween fashion and you bit them if you could, and one object of great interest was a basket, in which lay little gifts emblematic of the future.

To each girl was assigned a string which she unwound, fate giving her some gift at the end—a lucky penny, a lucky key, a heart, a chequer, a thimble—and the unwinding proved to be great fun for the merry young maidens gathered at the tea.

The big billiard room was dimly lighted, and was beautifully spooked for everywhere Jack o'Lanterns, picturesquely arranged, what it used to be, it has evolved into wide proportions in every way, especially in the matter of cost, for it costs a lot of money. And its beauties are all in prettily decorated and her picture-like dining room, with the dainty refreshments provided for persons hundreds of guests.

And that really is too bad, for a hostess goes to a lot of trouble, there are all her pretty decorations and her picture-like dining room, with the dainty refreshments provided for persons hundreds of guests.

It is most disheartening, and I think she always afterwards has the most friendly feeling for the woman who braves the storm and comes to tea.

Really one should make a special effort on a rainy day to go to a friend's "at home." And one should not be afraid to wear good sensible clothes, either, and just go in the street car.

We cannot have carriages and automobiles for everything, and all of us know that in these hard times, in these days of strenuous financial difficulty, many people with carriages and automobiles ought not to have

MRS. MARY COBURN.

—Sharz Photo

• • •

SOCIAL NEWS of the WEEK

them. At night it is different—one must drive for the most part, but the street car is quite good enough for most people for an afternoon date. So it would be very nice indeed for a guest to put herself out specially to go to a tea at a friend's home on a rainy afternoon. It is a special compliment—that the hostess would bid fair to long remember.

While the skies were so dark and lowering outside everything was bright and attractive in Mrs. Starr's home. And for one thing the recently party was a notable one, since the Moores and Hussey have such large family connections.

In the family groups were Mrs. Starr senior, Mrs. A. A. Moore, Miss Ethel Moore, Mrs. John Valentine, Mrs. A. A. Moore junior, Mrs. Valentine Hush, Mrs. Frank Wells, Miss Florence Hush, Mrs. Will Magee, Mrs. Tom Magee.

It is a long time since many of her old friends have met with Mrs. Starr senior. The Starrs formerly lived here, and Mrs. Starr used to be one of the patronesses of the "Thursday Club." But since the Starrs have taken up their residence in San Francisco, Mrs. Starr has been very little on this side of the bay.

Mrs. Wells was a charming study—she is so frank, so sincere, so full of deep affection for her friends that there is always much enthusiasm wherever she is. She has beautiful clothes, most of them from New York, and there are many stunning hats for most of costumes.

Mrs. Wickham Havens was, as usual, most beautifully gowned, and one of the handsomest and most elaborate calling costumes of the season was worn by Miss Emma Mahoney.

Mrs. William H. Morrison was also most attractively gowned, and among others who looked especially well was Miss Clarisse Lohse.

The tea called together many of the most interesting young matrons of the city, and was a very delightful affair.

WILL NOT COME TO CALIFORNIA.

Mr. and Mrs. Shafter Howard have decided not to come to California this winter, but will spend the holidays at Newport, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. Howard's mother. Shafter Howard is doing very good work in the East along musical lines.

MISS THOMSON GUEST OF MRS. DE LAVEAGA.

Miss Ruth Woodbury and Miss Thomson are guests for the week end of Mrs. Edward de Laveaga, at "Blenheim," the country home of the de Laveagas at Orinda Park.

The de Laveagas have spent the entire summer at their country home. They are planning to close it next week for the season, and are going to their home in San Francisco, where they will spend the winter.

TELEPHONE INVITATIONS.

Telephone invitations are quite the order of the hour now, even for rather formal affairs. They have much to recommend them, for one thing that the hostess receives her answer immediately, instead of waiting for the sometimes slow delivery of the mails.

And in regard to a tea, it is always so satisfactory to know for how many one must prepare. And that can never be determined when one sends out the usual shower of cards for the ordinary tea. So it is no wonder that telephone invitations are much in favor with those hostesses who entertain a great deal.

MISS JOHNSON AS HOSTESS.

Miss Arline Johnson was the hostess at one of the most original and most delightful luncheons of the year, given at the Country Club on Thursday, in honor of her friend, Miss Alla Henshaw.

The Johnsons do almost more than any other family in town in the way of entertainment, and are exceedingly hospitable, their friends sharing many good times with them.

Miss Johnson is specially nice to the young friends of her daughters, and enters with much enthusiasm into the many good times planned now for the younger set.

AN INTERESTING WEDDING.

One of the most interesting of the weddings at Fresno this season will be that of Miss Mary Meux and Mr. Harry Barbour, which takes place this week.

Miss Meux is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Meux of Fresno, and she has many friends here, having been educated at the Head school in Berkeley. She is a relative of the Clays at Fruitvale, and has often been a guest at Level Lea. She is a most attractive girl, and has many friends not only in her home town of Fresno, but here also.

Mr. Harry Barbour is a rising young attorney of Fresno, and he is no sooner now that there is promise for the most brilliant future social career. He and Miss Philip Clay and Mrs.

Margaret Sinclair have gone to Fresno to be present at the wedding.

MRS. HUSSEY IS HOME.

Mrs. Horace Hussey and Miss Evelyn Hussey returned to town last week, having spent some months in the East and Europe.

INFORMAL SOCIAL EVENT.

One of the informal social events of the week was the Hallowe'en dance, given at Alta Vista, the home of the Butters' at Piedmont, in honor of the Misses Butters.

The Mascot, the big black cat, was so greatly admired, that the guests cut cards for it, and the trophy was proudly borne home by Anita Thomson.

The guests were received at the Jack representing the historic pumpkin, making the most pictur-esque name cards one could find anywhere. It was all most original, and the many picturesque details called out much spontaneous enthusiasm and much merriment during the hours of the luncheon.

The Mascot, the big black cat, was so greatly admired, that the guests cut cards for it, and the trophy was proudly borne home by Anita Thomson.

One could scarcely find anywhere so beautiful a picture as was represented by the luncheon table, about which so many pretty young girls were gathered.

Arline Johnson, the hostess, was a most attractive study, for she was very happy in the happiness she was bringing her friends. She was beautifully gowned in pale pink chiffon, the gown set off with a wide black picture hat.

Miss Katherine Brown wore a gown of white broadcloth, with which she wore orchids, to match the orchids on her picture hat.

Miss Challen Parker was in lavender, and a wide white hat added to the effective costume.

Miss Hershaw, the guest of honor, wore a yellow gown of messaline, with a lace overdress, and an artistic hat to match the gown.

Miss Anita Thomson was in blue, with a picture hat, and Mrs. John Valentine was also in blue, and looked exceedingly well.

Miss Josephine Johnson wore a gown of blue chiffon, with a most becoming big white hat, and Miss Nadine Belden was an attractive study in a Dresden gown, with a hat to match it in tones of pink.

Miss Ruth Kales was in brown, and Miss Ruth Houghton wore a lace dress with a pretty blue hat.

Miss Fred Dieckmann was one of the prettiest of the young matrons, and seated around the attractive table were: Miss Alla Henshaw, Mrs. John Valentine junior, Mrs. Fred Dieckmann, Mrs. Challen Parker, Mrs. Roger Chickering, Miss Josephine Johnson, Miss Katherine Brown, Miss Anita Thomson, Miss Clarisse Lohse, Miss Winifred Braden, Miss Gladys Meek, Miss Harriet Meek, Miss Ruth Houghton, Miss Nadine Belden, Miss Johanna Volkman, Miss Rosa Kales, Miss Patty Chickering, and the hostess, Miss Arline Johnson.

The William Pierce Johnsons have taken the Lukens residence on Jackson street, the Lukens having planned to spend some months abroad.

The house is a large one, and the popular young girls of the family will have a large home in which to hospitably entertain their friends.

MISS MADGE CULVER.

—Hodson Photo.

door by girls dressed exactly alike in paper costumes, and as the masques were not removed till supper was announced, no one knew who anyone else was.

At supper there was a jolly time in the unmasking, and several of the costumes were most original.

Miss Marie Butters was a Japanese girl in the conventional Japanese costume, and Miss Marguerite Butters was an Armenian dancing girl, in an immensely picturesque attire.

Miss Natalie Foy represented a champagne bottle, in a dark skirt, with a silver bodice, and high hat.

Miss Katherine Kutz was Dolly Varden, and a very pretty fancy costume was worn by Miss Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. George McNear junior were studies in black and white. They had powdered hair, and the costumes were specially well planned.

Mrs. Edward Brayton and Mrs. Alpheus Clement were also studies in black and white.

One whole side of the costume—glove, gown, shoe, hat, was in white, and the other entire side in black. They wore high white hats, and presented very striking figures, keeping together in the early part of the evening.

Miss Houghton was a Chinese girl and Miss Florence Henshaw was a most fascinating Carmen, and there were some exceedingly good studies as pumpkins and Chinese costumes.

Paul Miller was a fascinating sailor, and three men in black dominos occasioned much merriment.

Supper was served at midnight, and it was long after one o'clock when the guests said goodbye, having greatly enjoyed the Hallowe'en hospitality at Alta Vista.

MRS. DIECKMANN GIVES A LUNCHEON.

Mrs. John Henry Dieckmann was the hostess on Thursday at one of the very bright luncheons of the week.

Mrs. Dieckmann seems to grow more attractive each day, and she is now one of the most charming of the younger matrons of the smart set. It is characteristic of all the Chabots that they are very true friends.

Mr. Chabot had always the right life measures, the true values that count.

She has loved her friends not for the material gifts that fate might have bestowed upon them, but for themselves personally, and she has brought up her daughters to do very much the same thing.

So one usually meets many old friends and people worth while at the homes of Mrs. Chabot and her daughter.

The Dieckmanns are now established in their own artistic home in the Vernon Heights district and Mrs.

Chabot and Miss Claire Chabot are soon to be married.

The luncheon on Thursday was most enjoyable. A delicious menu was served, and after the luncheon a game of bridge ended the afternoon in a delightful way.

NOTABLE ENGAGEMENT.

One of the most notable engagements of the season was announced yesterday at the home of the bride-elect—the engagement of Miss Marie

Cheesebrough and Mr. Arthur H.

Markwart. Miss Cheesebrough is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C.

Cheesebrough, the family being one of the most prominent about the bay.

Mr. Cheesebrough is one of the leading men of San Francisco; well known in business and financial circles, and the family home on Vernon

Heights represents much in the way of true culture, and a genuine hospitality that is in many ways most delightful.

Miss Marie Cheesebrough is a very cultured girl, and one of the most truly charming brides-elect of the time. She has the well bred, winning ways which make friends always for a young girl, and she is a very popular member of social circles in Oakland, Berkeley, and across the bay.

She is one of the unaffected, unspoiled young girls who are charming so the announcement of her engagement is of much interest to a wide circle of her own immediate friends, as well as to the friends generally of the family. Mr. Arthur H. Markwart is the groom-elect, a splendid young man whom one confidently expects to win out in the world's work—for already he has achieved a place for himself well worth while.

He is a graduate of the University of California, and is now a leading member of the firm of Howard &

Galloway, the well known San Francisco firm of architects and civil engineers.

Mr. Markwart belongs to the American Society of Civil Engineers and his work on this coast is becoming widely known. He is now in Seattle, attending the Yukon and Pacific Exposition there.

The engagement is in every way such a happy one that it brings with it much more than the ordinary degree of interest,—and the bride-elect

Miss Cheesebrough will be showered with good wishes, and for the groom,

Mr. Markwart, there will be many sincere congratulations on his good fortune.

No date has been announced for the wedding, but it will probably

Truth and Quality

appeal to the well-informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing. Accordingly, it is not claimed that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is the only remedy of known value, but one of many reasons why it is the best of personal and family medicines is the fact that it cleanses, sweetens and relieves the internal organs on which it acts without any debilitating after effects and without having to increase the quantity from time to time.

It acts pleasantly and naturally and truly as a laxative, and its component parts are known to and approved by physicians, as it is free from all objectionable substances. To get its beneficial effects always purchase the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists.

Vapo-Resolene

(Established 1879.)

"Cures While You Sleep."

Whooping-Cough, Croup, Bronchitis, Coughs, Diphtheria, Catarrh.

Confidence can be placed in a remedy, which for a quarter of a century has earned unqualified praise. Restful nights are assured at once.

Resolene is a Boon to Asthmatics
All Druggists

Some special for descriptive booklet.

Cresolene Antiseptic Throat Tablets for the Irritated Throat, of your druggist from us. 10c. stamp.

The Vapo-Resolene Co., 180 Fulton St., N.Y.

CONSTIPATION

For over three years I suffered with chronic constipation. I did not take a glass of warm water once every day and could have no action on my bowels. Happily I was cured in three weeks. Before I am well again during the winter, I used Cresolene, which relieved constipation with internal piles. Thanks you very much for your product. "You can use this in behalf of a suffering man."

B. F. Fisher, Roanoke, Ill.

Best for The Bowels
Cascarets
CANDY CATHARTIC
THEY WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

Pleasant, Pa. stable, Potent, Taste Good Do Good, Never Sicken, Weakness or Grippe, 10c. 25c. 50c. 75c. 100c. 125c. 150c. 175c. 200c. 225c. 250c. 275c. 300c. 325c. 350c. 375c. 400c. 425c. 450c. 475c. 500c. 525c. 550c. 575c. 600c. 625c. 650c. 675c. 700c. 725c. 750c. 775c. 800c. 825c. 850c. 875c. 900c. 925c. 950c. 975c. 1000c. 1025c. 1050c. 1075c. 1100c. 1125c. 1150c. 1175c. 1200c. 1225c. 1250c. 1275c. 1300c. 1325c. 1350c. 1375c. 1400c. 1425c. 1450c. 1475c. 1500c. 1525c. 1550c. 1575c. 1600c. 1625c. 1650c. 1675c. 1700c. 1725c. 1750c. 1775c. 1800c. 1825c. 1850c. 1875c. 1900c. 1925c. 1950c. 1975c. 2000c. 2025c. 2050c. 2075c. 2100c. 2125c. 2150c. 2175c. 2200c. 2225c. 2250c. 2275c. 2300c. 2325c. 2350c. 2375c. 2400c. 2425c. 2450c. 2475c. 2500c. 2525c. 2550c. 2575c. 2600c. 2625c. 2650c. 2675c. 2700c. 2725c. 2750c. 2775c. 2800c. 2825c. 2850c. 2875c. 2900c. 2925c. 2950c. 2975c. 3000c. 3025c. 3050c. 3075c. 3100c. 3125c. 3150c. 3175c. 3200c. 3225c. 3250c. 3275c. 3300c. 3325c. 3350c. 3375c. 3400c. 3425c. 3450c. 3475c. 3500c. 3525c. 3550c. 3575c. 3600c. 3625c. 3650c. 3675c. 3700c. 3725c. 3750c. 3775c. 3800c. 3825c. 3850c. 3875c. 3900c. 3925c. 3950c. 3975c. 4000c. 4025c. 4050c. 4075c. 4100c. 4125c. 4150c. 4175c. 4200c. 4225c. 4250c. 4275c. 4300c. 4325c. 4350c. 4375c. 4400c. 4425c. 4450c. 4475c. 4500c. 4525c. 4550c. 4575c. 4600c. 4625c. 4650c. 4675c. 4700c. 4725c. 4750c. 4775c. 4800c. 4825c. 4850c. 4875c. 4900c. 4925c. 4950c. 4975c. 5000c. 5025c. 5050c. 5075c. 5100c. 5125c. 5150c. 5175c. 5200c. 5225c. 5250c. 5275c. 5300c. 5325c. 5350c. 5375c. 5400c. 5425c. 5450c. 5475c. 5500c. 5525c. 5550c. 5575c. 5600c. 5625c. 5650c. 5675c. 5700c. 5725c. 5750c. 5775c. 5800c. 5825c. 5850c. 5875c. 5900c. 5925c. 5950c. 5975c. 6000c. 6025c. 6050c. 6075c. 6100c. 6125c. 6150c. 6175c. 6200c. 6225c. 6250c. 6275c. 6300c. 6325c. 6350c. 6375c. 6400c. 6425c. 6450c. 6475c. 6500c. 6525c. 6550c. 6575c. 6600c. 6625c. 6650c. 6675c. 6700c. 6725c. 6750c. 6775c. 6800c. 6825c. 6850c. 6875c. 6900c. 6925c. 6950c. 6975c. 7000c. 7025c. 7050c. 7075c. 7100c. 7125c. 7150c. 7175c. 7200c. 7225c. 7250c. 7275c. 7300c. 7325c. 7350c. 7375c. 7400c. 7425c. 7450c. 7475c. 7500c. 7525c. 7550c. 7575c. 7600c. 7625c. 7650c. 7675c. 7700c. 7725c. 7750c. 7775c. 7800c. 7825c. 7850c. 7875c. 7900c. 7925c. 7950c. 7975c. 8000c. 8025c. 8050c. 8075c. 8100c. 8125c. 8150c. 8175c. 8200c. 8225c. 8250c. 8275c. 8300c. 8325c. 8350c. 8375c. 8400c. 8425c. 8450c. 8475c. 8500c. 8525c. 8550c. 8575c. 8600c. 8625c. 8650c. 8675c. 8700c. 8725c. 8750c. 8775c. 8800c. 8825c. 8850c. 8875c. 8900c. 8925c. 8950c. 8975c. 9000c. 9025c. 9050c. 9075c. 9100c. 9125c. 9150c. 9175c. 9200c. 9225c. 9250c. 9275c. 9300c. 9325c. 9350c. 9375c. 9400c. 9425c. 9450c. 9475c. 9500c. 9525c. 9550c. 9575c. 9600c. 9625c. 9650c. 9675c. 9700c. 9725c. 9750c. 9775c. 9800c. 9825c. 9850c. 9875c. 9900c. 9925c. 9950c. 9975c. 10000c. 10025c. 10050c. 10075c. 10100c. 10125c. 10150c. 10175c. 10200c. 10225c. 10250c. 10275c. 10300c. 10325c. 10350c. 10375c. 10400c. 10425c. 10450c. 10475c. 10500c. 10525c. 10550c. 10575c. 10600c. 10625c. 10650c. 10675c. 10700c. 10725c. 10750c. 10775c. 10800c. 10825c. 10850c. 10875c. 10900c. 10925c. 10950c. 10975c. 11000c. 11025c. 11050c. 11075c. 11100c. 11125c. 11150c. 11175c. 11200c. 11225c. 11250c. 11275c. 11300c. 11325c. 11350c. 11375c. 11400c. 11425c. 11450c. 11475c. 11500c. 11525c. 11550c. 11575c. 11600c. 11625c. 11650c. 11675c. 11700c. 11725c. 11750c. 11775c. 11800c. 11825c. 11850c. 11875c. 11900c. 11925c. 11950c. 11975c. 12000c. 12025c. 12050c. 12075c. 12100c. 12125c. 12150c. 12175c. 12200c. 12225c. 12250c. 12275c. 12300c. 12325c. 12350c. 12375c. 12400c. 12425c. 12450c. 12475c. 12500c. 12525c. 12550c. 12575c. 12600c. 12625c. 12650c. 12675c. 12700c. 12725c. 12750c. 12775c. 12800c. 12825c. 12850c. 12875c. 12900c. 12925c. 12950c. 12975c. 13000c. 13025c. 13050c. 13075c. 13100c. 13125c. 13150c. 13175c. 13200c. 13225c. 13250c. 13275c. 13300c. 13325c. 13350c. 13375c. 13400c. 13425c. 13450c. 13475c. 13500c. 13525c. 13550c. 13575c. 13600c. 13625c. 13650c. 13675c. 13700c. 13725c. 13750c. 13775c. 13800c. 13825c. 13850c. 13875c. 13900c. 13925c. 13950c. 13975c. 14000c. 14025c. 14050c. 14075c. 14100c. 14125c. 14150c. 14175c. 14200c. 14225c. 14250c. 14275c. 14300c. 14325c. 14350c. 14375c. 14400c. 14425c. 14450c. 14475c. 14500c. 14525c. 14550c. 14575c. 14600c. 14625c. 14650c. 14675c. 14700c. 14725c. 14750c. 14775c. 14800c. 14825c. 14850c. 14875c. 14900c. 14925c. 14950c. 14975c. 15000c. 15025c. 15050c. 15075c. 15100c. 15125c. 15150c. 15175c. 15200c. 15225c. 15250c. 15275c. 15300c. 15325c. 15350c. 15375c. 15400c. 15425c. 15450c. 15475c. 15500c. 15525c. 15550c. 15575c. 15600c. 15625c. 15650c. 15675c. 15700c. 15725c. 15750c. 15775c. 15800c. 15825c. 15850c. 15875c. 15900c. 15925c. 15950c. 15975c. 16000c. 16025c. 16050c. 16075c. 16100c. 16125c. 16150c. 16175c. 16200c. 16225c. 16250c. 16275c. 16300c. 16325c. 16350c. 16375c. 16400c. 16425c. 16450c. 16475c. 16500c. 16525c. 16550c. 16575c. 16600c. 16625c. 16650c. 16675c. 16700c. 16725c. 16750c. 16775c. 16800c. 16825c. 16850c. 16875c. 16900c. 16925c. 16950c. 16975c. 17000c. 17025c. 17050c. 17075c. 17100c. 17125c. 17150c. 17175c. 17200c. 17225c. 17250c. 17275c. 17300c. 17325c. 17350c. 17375c. 17400c. 17425c. 17450c. 17475c. 17500c. 17525c. 17550c. 17575c. 17600c. 17625c. 17650c. 17675c. 17700c. 17725c. 17750c. 17775c. 17800c. 17825c. 17850c. 17875c. 17900c. 17925c. 17950c. 17975c. 18000c. 18025c. 18050c. 18075c. 18100c. 18125c. 18150c. 18175c. 18200c. 18225c. 18250c. 18275c. 18300c. 18325c. 18350c. 18375c. 18400c. 18425c. 18450c. 18475c. 18500c. 18525c. 18550c. 18575c. 18600c. 18625c. 18650c. 18675c. 18700c. 18725c. 18750c. 18775c. 18800c. 18825c. 18850c. 18875c. 18900c. 18925c. 18950c. 18975c. 19000c. 19025c. 19050c. 19075c. 19100c. 19125c. 19150c. 19175c. 19200c. 19225c. 19250c. 19275c. 19300c. 19325c. 19350c. 19375c. 19400c. 19425c. 19450c. 19475c. 19500c. 19525c. 19550c. 19575c. 19600c. 19625c. 19650c. 19675c. 19700c. 19725c. 19750c. 19775c. 19800c. 19825c. 19850c. 19875c. 19900c. 19925c. 19950c. 19975c. 20000c. 20025c. 20050c. 20075c. 20100c. 20125c. 20150c. 20175c. 20200c. 20225c. 20250c. 20275c. 20300c. 20325c. 20350c. 20375c. 20400c. 20425c. 20450c. 20475c. 20500c. 20525c. 20550c. 20575c. 20600c. 20625c. 20650c. 20675c. 20700c. 20725c. 20750c. 20775c. 20800c. 20825c. 20850c. 20875c. 20900c. 20925c. 20950c. 20975c. 21000c. 21025c. 21050c. 21075c. 21100c. 21125c. 21150c. 21175c. 21200c. 21225c. 21250c. 21275c. 21300c. 21325c. 21350c. 21375c. 21400c. 21425c. 21450c. 21475c. 21500c. 21525c. 21550c. 21575c. 21600c. 21625c. 21650c. 21675c. 21700c. 21725c. 21750c. 21775c. 21800c. 21825c. 21850c. 21875c

GIRL WATCHES FROM WINDOW A TRIO BURGLARS LOOT HOUSE

Telephoned Police, but They Reach Scene Too Late.

Apparently indifferent to observation, a trio of burglars forced in the rear door of the residence of Percy L. Bliss, 3904 Ruby street, in broad daylight yesterday afternoon, while Miss Bernice Davis, who knew that the members of the Bliss family were away, watched them from the window of her home near by.

The girl hastened to telephone to police headquarters, but before the officers who were sent out arrived on the scene the thieves had looted the house and departed, taking with them a quantity of valuable jewelry.

BRIDE TRIES TO END LIFE

Pretty Spanish Girl Found Unconscious After Drinking Poison of Hair Dye.

Tired of living because of alleged ill treatment inflicted upon her by her husband, Tony Maderas, Mrs. Mary Maderas, a 16-year-old Spanish girl and a bride of but five months, attempted to commit suicide at an early hour this night by drinking half a bottle of hair dye. The despondent girl crawled the dead at her home, 106 Broadway, and for some time was prostrated on the floor, unconscious, until found by other dwellers in the house.

Mrs. Maderas was removed to the receiving hospital, where Steward Borchard and his assistant, W. J. Travers, waited over her for an hour, finally restoring her to consciousness. As she recovered she begged the hospital attendants to let her die and when she left the hospital she declared she would make another attempt at self-destruction, and that the next time she would be successful.

Maderas is the head washer in the Yon-semita laundry.

Mrs. Maderas is a pretty woman, with coal black hair and large dark eyes. When she was found on the floor after taking the poison with the bottle by her side, her hair had become entangled in a chair and some of her tresses had to be cut to release her.

HASTENING WORK OF

LAYING SEWER PIPE

NEWARK, Nov. 2.—The work of laying the sewer pipe is going merrily on, but it is anything but merry for those who wish to cross from the road to the sidewalk; but the work is being done as rapidly as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Terrill were complimented by receiving a Hallowe'en surprise party at their number of friends, hastily arranging an evening visit to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bell removed to their new cottage on Bain avenue on Tuesday of this week.

Miss Lovelace of San Jose visited friends for a few days and attended the quadrangle in the pavilion Saturday night.

Station Agent Wyatt will, it is said, soon move his family to Newark.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, now of Centerville, will occupy their new cottage here as soon as it is vacated by Charles Cook, fair. Cook has secured the new home just completed by Cookter, who Mrs. Schaefer is visiting friends in Oakland.

The late rains have freshened the flowers and shrubbery and made the grounds of the church in the Catholic cemetery on All Saint's Day were extremely elaborate and beautiful.

Mrs. Bonney, who has been visiting her mother in Livermore, has returned.

Ice Cream

"The Better Kind"

Sunday Special

(Brick Form)

Pineapple English Walnut Center Strawberry
Only pure, sweet cream, fruits and flavors used in Maplewood Products.

Maplewood
Phone Oakland 8044.
Home Phone 4044.

You Can Have My Home

For a few hundred down, cash for my equity preferred, but my husband is very ill in another state which forces me to leave. I have a fine tenant. Am at the hotel ready to leave. Title perfect. See my agent's.

Holcomb Realty Co.
305 SAN PABLO AVE.

STATESMEN TO BE BANQUETED

Senator Perkins, Congressman Knowland and Others Are Guests of Honor.

Manuel Matthews Held in Jail on Suspicion of Robbing Women.

Chief County Jailer Peter White this morning arrested Manuel Matthews, a young living in San Leandro, as a highway robbery suspect. He is thought to be the perpetrator of several recent holdups which have occurred at San Leandro and vicinity. The victims have been women and two of them visited the county jail this afternoon to identify Matthews. He denies his guilt, but it is claimed that a strong case will be made out against him.

HAMMERSTEIN USES WOMEN AS USHERS

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—There are to be women ushers in the Manhattan Opera House this season. Last winter there was considerable trouble with some of the men who were employed in this capacity, and many changes had to be made in the corps of seat pilots before the season was over.

Hammerstein and his son Arthur have studied out the cause and effect of last year's petty trouble, and they have decided that if women ushers were employed in many of the large opera houses in Europe are a success, the plan should work in the Manhattan and will be tried.

Twelve young women, some of whom have been teachers in the public schools, have been engaged, and beginning Monday night will take charge of the seating arrangements of the Manhattan Opera House. The women will be in uniform and easily recognizable even in a crowded aisle.

STEAL WHOLE WAGON LOAD OF FRONT GATES

Some unusually zealous celebrants of Hallowe'en gathered a whole wagon load of gates during the nocturnal festivities of Thursday and deposited them in a vacant lot at the foot of A street. There Policeman Kimmel found them yesterday, and all sufferers from the mad midnight pranks of the revelers would do well to inquire for their missing property at police headquarters.

In addition to the cargo of gates Policeman Kimmel found a covered sandwich wagon and an empty coal wagon on B street near Hollis.

At least one complaint has been received by the police. P. Montague of 1677 Allee street reports that a wagon was stolen from the alley in the rear of his home on the night of October 31.

BROTHER SEEKS AID OF POLICE IN SEARCH

Charles Epstein of 138 Twenty-seventh street, San Francisco, has been missing from his home since October 21st. His brother, W. P. Epstein, after making a fruitless search for the lost man in San Francisco, has appealed to the Oakland police to assist him in the search. Epstein is 28 years of age, and weighs 185 pounds. He is 5 feet 8 inches in height, with dark hair and eyes. When last seen he wore dark coat and vest and striped trousers.

BOY SHOOTS HIMSELF.

Percy Cline, an 8-year-old schoolboy, who lives with his parents at 652 Linden street, started out with his air rifle this morning to go rabbit hunting. He had gone but a short distance from his home when he started target practice and in shooting at telegraph wires he managed to discharge the contents of the gun into his forehead. He was treated at the Receiving Hospital by Steward Borchard, who found that the boy's injuries were not serious.

HELD ON TWO CHARGES.

Jack Martell, 20, of 152½ Seventh street, and D. McGregor, were arrested at the corner of Fourteenth street and Broadway just before midnight last night by Deputy Sheriff Green and Policeman Collett. Martell was accused of two charges, breaking and entering the home of Eugene Williams and robbing him of his bicycle. McGregor was accused of robbing Eugene Williams and destroying the bicycle. Both were released on bail.

GERMAN WOMEN PLAN BALL AND BANQUET FOR CHARITY

MRS. C. BAUMANN.

MRS. A. SCHLUETER.

Relief Organizations to Aid Worthy Cause

One of the many social gatherings of this season which is being looked forward to with much pleasure is the grand annual charity ball and banquet to be given by the German Ladies' Relief Society of Oakland, at Ebell Hall, Wednesday evening, November 6th.

The committees in charge are planning to make this the most successful affair in the history of the society, which has been organized for the past twenty-five years, during which time it has done much good toward helping and supporting many of the poor Germans of this city with regular monthly supplies, such as food and clothing.

At the time of the great San Francisco disaster many hundreds of people came for assistance, which was gladly given by the society. Among the members are many prominent German women who, with the aid of the merchants and business men of Oakland, will make this ball a successful affair.

The committee of arrangements is composed of Mrs. A. Schlueter, Mrs. Theo. Gier, Mrs. G. H. Ludwig, Mrs. H. C. Kattenhorn, Mrs. A. Meese, Mrs. C. Hesse, Mrs. G. Rau, Mrs. H. Hennings.

Floor manager, A. Schlueter; floor committee, Theo. Gier, C. Seulberger, H. C. Kattenhorn, H. Helm, W. Hesse, J. Many, H. Hennings, K. Schmidt.

Ladies' reception committee, Mrs. A. Meese, Mrs. Marie Uhl, Mrs. A. Schlueter, Mrs. G. F. Hesse, Mrs. Theo. Gier, Mrs. J. Seulberger, Mrs. H. Hennings, Mrs. Pauline Ench, Mrs. C. F. Hesse, Mrs. C. Jurgens, Mrs. W. Ludwig, Mrs. U. C. Christon, Mrs. H. C. Kattenhorn, Theo. Gier, C. F. Hesse, A. Meese, W. Ludwig, H. C. Kattenhorn, H. Hennings, J. Many, J. C. Neppach, A. M. Norum and G. Smith.

The officers of the society are: Mrs. A. M. Werum, president; Mrs. C. Baumann, vice-president; Mrs. J. C. Neppach, treasurer.

James Howard, bartender, who lives at 223 San Pablo avenue, while waiting at Sixteenth street station for his father at a late hour last night, got in the way of a freight train which was switching in the neighborhood of the depot, and his right foot badly injured. He was removed to the Receiving Hospital, where he refused to be treated and asked to be taken home, and given surgical care. This request was complied with. Howard will not lose his foot.

TAKES POISON BY MISTAKE

Swallows Antiseptic Tablets and Tells Druggist They Don't Agree With Him.

Eugene Martell, a cook, residing at 473 Seventh street, is living in a critical condition at the Receiving Hospital after taking three large tablets of bicarbonate of mercury this morning after purchasing the deadly poison at a local drug store. He was removed to the Receiving Hospital, where the stomach pump was applied by Steward Borchard and George Page, but it is feared that some of the corrosive poison may have eaten into the tissues, and in that case Martell may die.

NO DIRECTIONS NOT NEEDED.

After Martell had partially recovered he said that he went to a local drug store this morning and asked for a cold remedy for a cold. He says that he was given the bicarbonate of mercury and when he thought that they were what he wanted he immediately took three of them not according to directions.

The poison was sold to Martell by D. Wilson. He says that he understood the man to say that he wanted antiseptic tablets for a wash. Clerk E. C. Hader registered the sale. He says that he was given the name of Jim Battavia and paid him 15 cents. The man had been given a few minutes after he returned and said that he had swallowed some of the tablets. He said he was washed tablets for a cold and that these were not right for him.

Clerk Hader then removed the sufferer to the hospital. Martell is a Frenchman, 65 years of age.

(Spec.)
SAN FRANCISCO Jars who made cigar store of C.
Mission, street fight by Policemen C.
Quinn at the Mission from the scene.

The two men, who had names as W. Irwin and James made an attempt to enter the store by prying open the window a Jimmy. Falling in this they around to the front and had almost succeeded in gaining entrance when alarm was given by a passing citizen, at the three patrolmen, who were in the vicinity, responded. Seeing that they were in danger, the two men fled down the street, and thinking to dodge the officers, they ran into the Mission saloon, where they were captured.

The cigar store had a stock valued at $7000 and there was considerable money in the cash register.

ASK FOR ELECTROLIERS ON LOWER BROADWAY

The following petition has been sent to the members of the City Council:

"We, the undersigned property owners and merchants, respectfully petition your honorable body to maintain thirty-six electroliers on Broadway between First and Seventh streets, in the City of Oakland, under the same arrangement as those on Broadway and Washington street, between Seventh and Fourteenth streets. We, the undersigned, to furnish and erect the said electroliers."

"Very respectfully submitted,

"Harbor Bank, by H. B. Belden, vice-president; Security Bank and Trust Company, trustee, per H. R. Berry; John Mitchell, chairman Board of Supervisors, Alameda County; Southern Pacific Co., by W. R. Scott, general superintendent; J.

T. Baumgarten, Stocker & Holland Abstract Co., Ed Friend, Mrs. Ella Vieth,

Louis Warnecke, Estate of Achibald

Boorland, per Dr. Edward C. Adelung,

Mrs. S. Walters, George Robins, A. Al-

den, agent; M. Glueck, W. P. Brooks,

Viguerie & Vibert, Standard Realty &

Depot Co., per J. B. Evans, general agent; Wallace, Everson, A. Shlyveston,

Thomas Culvan M. D., S. Areca, P. A.

Cox, Mrs. S. H. Michler, Janet E. Ware,

Wallace E. Hyde, L. N. Cobbeditch, Glass

Co., per Charles J. Shuler, secretary; Estate of Antonia Bocqueraz, per C. Camp, executrix; California Ice Co., per Joseph

Martin, manager."

Only Two Days More

ONLY TWO DAYS MORE will DWIGHT WAY TERRACE lots be offered at a REDUCTION of $100 each. ONLY TWO DAYS MORE will HOME BUILDERS and INVESTORS be able to secure high-class Berkeley property at prices far below the market and on RIDICULOUSLY EASY TERMS. On Monday, November 4, every unsold lot will be advanced $100. Remember—you have ONLY TWO DAYS MORE to MAKE or SAVE $100.

DWIGHT WAY TERRACE

Lots in black sold since this plate was made. The following lots have been sold: Lots 14, 21, 31 Block 37; lots 17 and 21 to 23 Block 4.

Lots $550 to $850 Each

Terms—10% Down, 1% Per Month—No Interest or Taxes Till 1910

ALL LOTS RAISED $100 EACH NOVEMBER 4th

Automobiles will take you from main office at Key Route Terminus to tract. Office open Sunday from 10 to 4.

MASON-MCDUFFIE CO.
or any BERKELEY Agent

FENTON, THE STAR OF THE STANFORD TEAM, AND ONE OF THE BEST RUGBY PLAYERS IN AMERICA.

BREEZY TURF GOSSIP

By LEE DEMIER.

Trainer Dave Henry, glad to get back and breath the salt air, arrived from Latonia yesterday with the horses of Barney Schreiber, who were campaigned at that place. About the most notable one in the bunch was Deutschland, after being rested up at Latonia the first part of the summer, this horse regained his old time form and beat the best handi-cap horses around the middle of Bannock Bob and Grandeur. Dan came in the second, which included Pleasant, Henry, picked up at the Woodland ranch in Missouri. The following will make up the rest of Schreiber's big stable, which as brought down from Woodland by C. J. Plunkett: Emily M., Expectant, Orleans, Banford and nine yearlings.

Arman's Optician reeled off seven-eights in 1:28.4. Nice work.

Trainer C. J. Casey who has been sick at his home in New York, writes that he is much better, and that he hopes to be on hand at Williams Park before the game is a week old.

Trainer Jackie Jones says he has a corner in Jockey Whitman.

Montgomery galloped a mile in 1:55, easily.

Bookmaker Bob Flemming was at the track this morning.

Owner Martinus has got Sam Barber his meal ticket, looking fit.

Big Ed Corrigan has forty-one horses in training at Churchill Downs.

Bob Smith and his following cleaned up $10,000 on the win of Green Seal at Jamaica recently.

Judge James Quinn, one of the best liked men in all Emeryville, had a hand-shaking match yesterday with incoming horsemen, who avert by the judge.

Owner Tommy Griffin is on his way from New York to Oakland.

While Fred Burley expects to race the big stable of Bubley & O'Neill at New Orleans this winter, he has made nominations to stakes to be run at both of the Coast Leaguers.

Win Big Fight

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—The Pacific Coast League won its fight in New York to remain in the Class A division of the minor leagues, and the news has greatly pleased all fair minded lovers of the sport.

There was a movement on foot at the National Association meeting to relegate the Coast League to Class B, but it fell through.

B. B. Johnson, president of the American League, said he was glad, for the sake of organized baseball, that the meeting placed the Coast League in the A class.

The Los Angeles sportsmen, who are of the opinion that the critics are communists of their own making, and that in reality they had no kick coming against its treatment as a class A league.

President Cal Ewing of the Pacific Coast league and Danny Long, secretary of the same organization, passed through the city on their way to the Pacific coast. Speaking for his league, Ewing stated most emphatically that if the American Association and Eastern League had put through their motion to reduce the California League to Class B the Coast magnates would have withdrawn from organized baseball immediately and become independent of "outlaws."

Kansas City Race Track May Be Sold

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 2.—Upon petition of Edward Corrigan of Chicago and George Witt of Memphis, principal stockholders, the Federal Court yesterday appointed James F. Halpin of Kansas City receiver for the Kansas City Jockey Club and Fair Association. The court ordered the sale of the track, valued at $400,000 and considered one of the finest in the country, and a division of the proceeds among the stockholders. Practically no racing has been held at the track since the enactment of the Missouri and Kansas laws.

Both boys are clever and have a punch. The winner will be matched with Johnnie Frayne or Johnnie Murphy for next month.

•

•

Seniors Win Game of Basket ball

BERKELEY, Nov. 2.—The Senior girls defeated the Sophomore girls at basketball on the Hearst Hall court by a score of 14 to 2.

The fifth game of the championship pool tournament now going on at the St. Louis basketball hall, was won by Carney, who beat his opponent Stanley. Carney won the game 135 to 50.

Carney Wins From Stanley

The fifth game of the championship pool tournament now going on at the St. Louis basketball hall, was won by Carney, who beat his opponent Stanley. Carney won the game 135 to 50.

BASEBALL SEASON CLOSES TOMORROW

San Francisco and Oakland will line up at Freeman's Park tomorrow morning for the final game of the league season. This will be a last chance for the Oakland fan to see his favorites in action, as many of the players are booked to leave for their homes Sunday night or early Monday.

The Oakland management anticipates a large crowd and has made arrangements to handle, comfortably, all those who will attend.

The "rooters" will have a chance to see their old favorites for the last time of the season and cheer them up before they start for their homes.

McCredie's Men Lose Close One

LOS ANGELES, November 2.—Portland lost one of the snappiest games of the season here yesterday. McCredie's men deserved to win. The Portland manager made a new lineup, which was about as strong as anything his team has presented. The appearance of stop John F. McCreddie, who had not been so well as for a boy ever to start at a most critical time there doubtless would have been some extra feelings. It was an exhibition of clean-cut, excellent baseball, with fast playing throughout and numerous close decisions. One of the best Portland players was Billie, and only two Los Angeles players got as far as third. Billie scored the only run. With him out, the doubled center, and on a hit, he was the first player to score, then Billie. Mott let a hot grounder get away from him and Billie scored the score.

LOS ANGELES.

AB.	R.	BB.	SH.	PO.	A.	E.
Bernard, 2d	4	0	2	1	0	0
Carlisle, lf	4	0	2	1	0	0
Dillon, 3b	3	0	0	1	0	0
Brasher, 3b	4	0	1	1	0	0
Ellis, cf	3	1	1	0	2	0
Deimas, as	3	0	1	0	0	0
Easterly, c	2	0	1	1	0	0
Nugle, p	2	0	1	0	0	0
Totals	30	1	6	27	13	0

PORTLAND.

AB.	R.	BB.	SH.	PO.	A.	E.
Casey, 2b	4	0	1	0	0	0
Donahue, ss	4	0	0	1	0	0
Burffy, cf	4	0	1	0	0	0
Kennedy, 1b	4	0	0	1	0	0
Bassey, lf	3	0	0	1	2	1
Mart, 3b	2	0	1	2	2	1
Groom, rt	2	0	0	1	0	0
Totals	30	1	6	27	13	0

RUNS AND HITS BY INNINGS.

AB.	R.	BB.	SH.	PO.	A.	E.
Casey, 2b	1	0	0	0	0	0
Donahue, ss	1	0	0	1	0	0
Burffy, cf	1	0	1	0	0	0
Kennedy, 1b	1	0	0	1	0	0
Bassey, lf	1	0	0	1	2	1
Mart, 3b	1	0	1	2	2	1
Groom, rt	1	0	0	1	0	0
Totals	30	1	6	27	13	0

RUNS AND HITS BY INNINGS.

AB.	R.	BB.	SH.	PO.	A.	E.
Casey, 2b	1	0	0	0	0	0
Donahue, ss	1	0	0	1	0	0
Burffy, cf	1	0	1	0	0	0
Kennedy, 1b	1	0	0	1	0	0
Bassey, lf	1	0	0	1	2	1
Mart, 3b	1	0	1	2	2	1
Groom, rt	1	0	0	1	0	0
Totals	30	1	6	27	13	0

SUMMARY.

Two-base hits—Ellis, Carlisle. Left on bases—Los Angeles, 6. Portland, 5. Bases on balls—Dugout, 10. Portland, 11. Hit by pitcher—By Nagle, 6. Portland, 3. First base on errors—Los Angeles, 1. Hit by pitcher—Nagle. Time of game—1 hr. 20 min. Umpire—Tomas.

Bambbaugh Takes Three Sprint Events

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—An interesting inter-class track and field meet was held by the Wilmersdorf students Thursday afternoon and resulted in a record for the juniors, who scored a grand total of 107 points. The freshman class was second with 20 points, the credit and the seniors were last with only 11 points to show. Bambbaugh took the relay race, and also three sprint events and also three relay races. Bambbaugh took the 50-yard dash—Bambbaugh (09), won; Grinnell (09), second; Blair (09), third. 100-yard dash—Bambbaugh (09), won; Bassey (09), second; Hare (11), third. 100-yard dash—Bambrough (09), won; Blair (09), second; Hare (11), third. Time, 11.95 seconds.

440-yard dash—Burke (09), won; Ashby (09), second; Tracy (08) and Pulfizer (10), third for third place. Time, 84 seconds.

880-yard dash—Metropole (08), won; Ashby (09), second; French (08), third. Time, 2:21.5 seconds.

One-mile run—Willson (08), won; Hare (11), second; Zecker (09), third. Time, 5:27.

High jump—Bambrough (09), won; Dykman (09), second; Rudolph (11), third. Hit the bar, but fell out.

Pole vault—Bambrough (09), won; Dykman (09), second; Waviney (11), third. Height, 10 feet 6 inches.

Broad jump—Bambrough (09), won; Waviney (11), second; Dykman (09), third. Height, 20 feet 5 inches.

Shotput—Demerritt (09), won; Bambrough (09), second; Vit (08), third. Cliff (08), fourth. Time, 35 feet.

Discus throw—Baum (09), won; Cliff (08), second; Demerritt (09), third. Distance, 75 feet.

Relay race won by 1911 class.

Fleet Mare Sugar-Maid Sold for $6500

Former Jockey Buxton purchased Sugarmaid, a very shifty performer, from Mr. Schartes, her former owner, this morning. The deal was consummated at Williams Park. Buxton paid $6500 for the mare.

Sugarmaid is a well-known performer on the local track, and when at her best there are very few in the sprinting division which can take her measure.

Buxton, who is a partner in the Fleur de Lis stable, can be congratulated on having added a very valuable broadwinner to his string.

Garden City Team Wins Roller Race

At the Bay City's roller bicycle races, held last night, the best time was made by the Garden City team, which won the race in 3:16 seconds from the Bay City team.

The times made in the various races were: First heat, A. Daigle, B. C. W., 3:15.5; Second heat, F. Carroll, F. F. W., 3:24.5; D. Diver, New Century, 3:24.5; Third heat, E. McTighe, Oaklawn, 3:20.5; G. Tungate, Standard, 3:15.5; Fourth heat, H. Waltz, Garden City, 3:15; Fifth heat, W. Chaboya, Garden City, 3:19; John Coughlin, Golden City, 3:23.5; Sixth heat, Al. Husted, Bay City, 3:22; F. Curran, Golden City, 3:21.5.

The club totals were: Garden City, 6:34; Bay City, 6:37.1; New Century, 6:42; Oaklawn, 6:46.5; Standard, 6:49.5; Garden City, 6:49.5.

The club totals were: Garden City, 6:34; Bay City, 6:37.1; New Century, 6:42; Oaklawn, 6:46.5; Standard, 6:49.5; Garden City, 6:49.5.

The members of the University of California Rugby squad went down to Stanford and Billard Parlor produced another thrilling contest last night in a game between Slater and Bunker. Bunker's defense was a surprise to many who had expected him to be the victor.

The times made in the various races were: First heat, A. Daigle, B. C. W., 3:15.5; Second heat, F. Carroll, F. F. W., 3:24.5; D. Diver, New Century, 3:24.5; Third heat, E. McTighe, Oaklawn, 3:20.5; G. Tungate, Standard, 3:15.5; Fourth heat, H. Waltz, Garden City, 3:15; Fifth heat, W. Chaboya, Garden City, 3:19; John Coughlin, Golden City, 3:23.5; Sixth heat, Al. Husted, Bay City, 3:22; F. Curran, Golden City, 3:21.5.

The club totals were: Garden City, 6:34; Bay City, 6:37.1; New Century, 6:42; Oaklawn, 6:46.5; Standard, 6:49.5; Garden City, 6:49.5.

The club totals were: Garden City, 6:34; Bay City, 6:37.1; New Century, 6:42; Oaklawn, 6:46.5; Standard, 6:49.5; Garden City, 6:49.5.

The club totals were: Garden City, 6:34; Bay City, 6:37.1; New Century, 6:42; Oaklawn, 6:46.5; Standard, 6:49.5; Garden City, 6:49.5.

The club totals were: Garden City, 6:34; Bay City, 6:37.1; New Century, 6:42; Oaklawn, 6:46.5; Standard, 6:49.5; Garden City, 6:49.5.

The club totals were: Garden City, 6:34; Bay City, 6:37.1; New Century, 6:42; Oaklawn, 6:46.5; Standard, 6:49.5; Garden City, 6:49.5.

The club totals were: Garden City, 6:34; Bay City, 6:37.1; New Century, 6:42; Oaklawn, 6:46.5; Standard, 6:49.5; Garden City, 6:49.5.

The club totals were: Garden City, 6:34; Bay City, 6:37.1; New Century, 6:42; Oaklawn, 6:46.5; Standard, 6:49.5; Garden City, 6:49.5.

The club totals were: Garden City, 6:34; Bay City, 6:37.1; New Century, 6:42; Oaklawn, 6:46.5; Standard, 6:49.5; Garden City, 6:49.5.

The club totals were: Garden City, 6:34; Bay City, 6:37.1; New Century, 6:42; Oaklawn, 6:46.5; Standard, 6:49.5; Garden City, 6:49.5.

GOSSIP FROM THE SAN FRANCISCO WEEKLIES

AN EXHILARATING CAMPAIGN.

This is one of the most spirited political campaigns the city has ever had. The amenities of polite controversy have been entirely discarded, and the swaggering bully to whom the intrinsic merits of rational dialectics are unknown, has quite exhausted his little stock of furious epithets. It cannot be truthfully charged against this campaign that it is drab and jejune. The vituperation and vilification may be commonplace, but the unscrupulousness with which candidates and their opponents and proponents are berated is almost thrilling. For the refreshing animosities of this campaign we are entirely indebted to the graft prosecutors who feel that they are on trial and who are most eager for vindication. Unfortunately their misgivings have excited them beyond measure. They have lost control of themselves and have put even their parochial newspaper touts in a state of panic. With respect to these agents I am inspired by the most tender and sympathetic sentiments. I can readily appreciate their tendency to imprecision and odious comparison, for not many months have passed since these grand young men were looking forward to the time when a misguided populace would be clamoring for statuary in their honor. And lo! and behold! here they are today drooping in the shadow—the terrible shadow that has been cast by the illuminating suspicion that after all the people are not with them. Is it not indeed a pitiable plight to which these gallant reformers have come, these men of high ideals and extraordinary sensitiveness in the matter of the higher and impossible moralities. Exposed to so ignominious a repudiation as they conceive to be coming to them, should they not be compassionated as they fare and fret and scold and call names? It is bad enough to be in their state of mind. How much worse is it to be impelled to such ludicrous behavior? The thought of it is distressing and touching. It has wrought powerfully and deeply on my sensibilities.

ALARMED AT LANGDON'S PROSPECTS.

That the graft prosecutors divine that the people are not with them I infer from the manifest uneasiness of the most querulous of the proponents of Spreckelized reform. They appear to be conscious of the approach of the indignation and scorn which are the inevitable scourges of wrongdoing and meanness and which are essential to the wholesome restraining power of public opinion. Their uneasiness is expressed in their great concern for the fate of District Attorney Langdon. So acute is this concern that they have become quite irrational in their discussions of his candidacy. In one breath they assume that so thoroughly are his benefactors appreciated that his election is a foregone conclusion, and in the next they shriek alarm at the efforts that are being made to defeat him. Why the Hon. William Langdon's case should afflict them with misgivings it would be hard to understand if they believed all that they assert. His opponent being the nominee of a single and discredited party is so greatly disadvantaged as to be almost an impossibility. Yet Langdon's backers are obviously disheartened. The dictionary fails them when it comes to finding words to describe their emotions. The feeble railing of Bill's backers is eloquent of the pitiable plight of the men behind the gum-shoe inquisition. They realize that persistent premonition of misrepresentation in his behalf has not had the desired effect. They know that the temperature of public opinion is falling. They have read the handwriting on the wall. They are aware of the fact that conspiracy to indict is a crime, and Langdon has earned our gratitude when they contemplate the prospect of an independent District Attorney and an independent grand jury, their spinal columns vibrate uncomfortably. But in my opinion they are prematurely alarmed. Bill's advantages are too many to be overcome. Though no longer has he the esteem of enlightened men, of those who have a right conception of the principle for which he stands, he still, I fear, has the support of the mob, which regards him as an instrument for the gratification of its vindictiveness and which is too stupid to perceive the evil consequences of the perversions at which he has connived to appreciate the futility of a course that is being pursued in violation of law and justice.

LANGDON'S ACHIEVEMENTS.

All that may be and that is truthfully urged in behalf of Mr. Langdon may be summed up in these words: He made possible the removal of Schmitz from office. An elysian consummation, perhaps, but the exact measure of its beneficence is yet to be determined. We may yet find that our debt of gratitude is no greater than that of the beggar who was given a loaf of bread that appeased his hunger, but as it unfortunately contained some poison the nutritive element was rendered entirely negligible. Mr. Langdon was instrumental in putting Schmitz where his potentialities for harm were considerably reduced. But the benefits incident to the abatement of a great evil are yet to accrue. At any rate they are not yet apparent. The great desideratum was the vindication of our ability for self-government. Our reputation abroad had been greatly impaired, and we appreciated the importance of meriting the confidence of Eastern capital. But what progress have we made toward the precious goal? Absolutely none. Indeed we are worse off than before. For the glorification of the men who have conducted the great work of purgation the sensational story of our iniquities was used to give impetus to the circulation of scores of yellow magazines, and the eyes of the world were focused on San Francisco. At first we were highly praised for our efforts at moral regeneration, but now the situation in this city is awakening fresh interest, for we are believed to be suffering from a worse form of degeneracy than that with which our sacrosanct reformers have been preoccupied.

SCHWAB'S HINT.

Through the practices against which this paper has been protesting for some months we have kindled an entirely new reputation abroad. Instead of winning confidence we have excited aversion, Charles Schwab gave us a mild hint at the truth respecting opinion in the East when he said that while the suspicion prevailed that our courts were being ruled by a protestation as he runs and drops it would be impossible to establish our credit on a substantial basis. Even in Europe there is discussion of the situation in this city, and it is being pointed to as an illustration of the great danger that besets a people whose judiciary is not removed from political strife. The facts being as I have stated, should we not before acknowledging our obligations to the impassioned gentlemen who have been so generous with their immunity bath checks, the modern flagellants who make a ritual of lashing—not themselves but their neighbors—should we not, I say, consider whether the obligations, to which these benevolent patriots have constrained us, are quite so numerous as they and their thrifty parasites would have us believe? But should we not especially consider the extent to which Mr. Langdon has earned our gratitude and if not our gratitude our reprobation. He is unquestionably entitled to one or the other, since it was by his authority that all that has been done was done.

HIS INDEPENDENCE LEG DIVERSION.

First let us give him due credit for the removal of Schmitz, but let us not forget that he was less concerned for the removal of Schmitz from office than for the election of himself to the job he was chasing at the time the prosecution of the grafters was begun. He was a candidate for Governor at the time though he knew that the people of San Francisco who had made him District Attorney were being despised by Ruet and his predatory band. Will any one deny that if Langdon had been elected Governor the prosecution would have come to an end and Schmitz would have fallen heir to the District Attorneyship? In the midst of a thousand lies pointing with fantastic fingers in all directions perhaps one could not be sure of there being any truth in the presence of which falsehood will be silent, but Langdon's indifference to duty in an hour when infidelity to trust was one of the blackest of crimes, is a truth that cannot be violated. However, he was persuaded to turn over his office to a syndicate of the virtue of whose designs, it will be admitted, there is today considerable question.

WHAT WOULD JEROME SAY.

And this observation reminds me of a question asked by Mr. Schwab while he was in town. It was this: "What would happen if John Pierpont Morgan should propose to District Attorney Jerome of New York that he be permitted, through his attorney, to finance the prosecution of his enemies, John D. Rockefeller and E. H. Harriman?" That seems to me a most pertinent question and one that might profitably be meditated by the citizens of this city. Perhaps of the men in San Francisco who are familiar with the character of District Attorney Jerome there is not one with any doubt as to the nature of the reply that he would make to Mr. Morgan. And yet without consulting Mr. Jerome I should not be quite sure whether he would be inclined to employ his tongue or his foot in the expression of his sentiment. The preposition suggested for speculation by Mr. Schwab and the one submitted by Mr. Spreckels to Mr. Langdon are analogous, and today we are preparing to re-elect Mr. Langdon to office.

A LUDICROUS SPECTACLE.

Moreover those of us who do not enthuse over his candidacy are being scolded and berated with tremendous fury. Fortunately there is so much matter for screaming laughter in it all that we do not seriously object. Mr. Langdon frothing with the promise of heaven to make full restitution and whispering reservations into his beard expecting to cheat Omiscience with an "aside." Without a gleam of humor or discomfort this man goes before the people telling them what he proposes doing, though the whole city knows that he does and can do nothing. Why he didn't even make the contract of immunity with Gallagher. It was Spreckels who attended to that ceremony in the Presidio. It was Spreckels who dictated most everything. The impotent Langdon wasn't even consulted when it was decided to square the case of the fight trust or when it was determined to let up on the Home Telephone Company, which is related by marriage to the Supreme Court, or when it was agreed to acquiesce in the smothering of the milk graft by which babies were poisoned. It isn't even dead certain that he dictated the Kennan article. That he had nothing to say when Ruef was granted immunity we know because Gallagher has so testified. The simple fact is that Langdon is hopelessly incompetent, and that through him we are putting into the hands of a syndicate the most dangerous weapon that the people have at their disposal.

WHEN JUSTICE IS AROUSED.

How impressive the spectacle of the heavy hand of outraged justice from its sanctuary reaching out across the housetops and plucking from the rafters of an unfinished spire a miserable spokesman of the mob who had dared to address a passing jury on its way to grub! "Send him up," shouted this mouthpiece of mob sentiment, this humble, ignorant mechanic. Honest perhaps in his convictions and as upright perhaps as the average citizen, and doubtless entirely unmindful of the fact that none of us is perfect in his morals, this house-topper impulsively gave utterance to a passion that has been most persistently stimulated in this community during many months. This impulsive mechanic is a symbol of a spirit that pervades all classes in this city, a spirit aggressive and unashamed, a spirit of tyranny and vindictiveness the prototype of which is to be found in the Caligulas and Neros of history, subverters of all laws, enemies to common justice and humanity. For whether the tyrant be a single individual or the people the spirit is the same: its manifestation is in the substitution of will and lust for reason and justice. And hence I say it was an impressive spectacle that of outraged justice asserting its resentment of the spirit of cruelty and depravity which had shouted its vindictive command at a passing jury that was engaged in the trial of a man charged with a felony.

A PLEA IN PALLIATION.

To Judge Lawlor I extend my felicitations on his alacrity in disciplining the vindictive mechanic, but at the same time I am constrained to sympathize with the culprit who had the misfortune to be selected for the beneficial purpose of serving as a signal and illustrious example. This is a case that calls for sympathy inasmuch as the mechanic had abundant reason for supposing that he was rendering a great public service in urging the conviction of the defendant. Repeatedly he had been told in the public prints that the defendant was guilty. And undoubtedly familiar with the attitude of certain judges and prosecuting officers, it must have seemed to him that the defendant's guilt was no longer a matter of speculation. Then why should he, an American citizen, a king of the commonwealth, guaranteed by the constitution the right of free speech, hold his tongue when every impulse of his being urged it to utterance? He was not in a courtroom. Neither was the jury. To be sure ignorance of the law does not justify transgression, but had not this humble mechanic many reasons for supposing that our courts have come to tolerate subversion of the law in the interest of the great and glorious enterprise being conducted by Rudolph Spreckels?

He must know that the press has served notice on the whole community that it is extremely hazardous to vote for acquittal of any man whom Mr. Spreckels has not given an immunity bath. He might naturally have argued that liberty of the press is not greater than liberty of the tongue. Furthermore, if he knew that on the first Ford trial the gallery expressed its approval of a gallery sentiment uttered by that darling of the mob, Mr. Heney, and that the gallery was not rebuked by his Honor, he had all the more reason for supposing that his sun-light exhortation was a mere trifle, light as the ambient air on which it floated to the ears of the jury.

THE MOB AND THE JURY.

So we see there are aspects of this case of the humble mechanic who was humiliated and disciplined by a somewhat crotchety and morbidly dignified judge, that move the man of sensitive and sympathetic nature to compassion. Meditating thereon I was almost persuading myself to the conviction that it was a grievous mistake to make an example of this lowly citizen, since it served mainly to emphasize the complaisance of our courts in respect of mob sentiment ever since the opening of the sweet-scented inquisition. Our courts have created the impression that they had consecrated themselves to the holy task of purifying the community in strict accordance with certain entirely new principles of public policy, by which, into the category of venial offenses, has been placed the betrayal of a public trust, a crime which, since the institution of social order, has been universally recognized as the most de-testable of iniquities. To these revolutionary principles the courts have won the assent of the mob by yielding to the demagogic demand for discrimination in favor of the corrupt public official and against the rich man to whom the servants of the people have given the alternative of putting up or quitting business. And the mob overflowing the temple of justice has murmured its approval into the ears of the jury with never a protest from the man on the bench, taking from publicity much of the virtue that was claimed for it in the days when the people of England protested against the trial of prisoners behind closed doors. When the mob is with you publicity is a good thing, but when the mob has had its passions inflamed, and the judge thirsts for the limelight in a vast theater and gives to a trial the atmosphere of a theatrical performance, justice is dispensed in inverse ratio to the size of the hall. And when the course of public justice is marked by all these curious features, does it not appear to be somewhat farcical to reprove a simple mechanic for shouting a message to a passing jury? And perhaps it may not be amiss to suggest also that as we are after higher-ups it is a drop pregnant with inconsistency to put the heavy hand of the law on a poor hard working mechanic.

MAYOR TAYLOR AND LANGDON'S BACKERS.

There are some singular anomalies in this campaign that are not apprehended even by some of the most perspicacious of our citizens. It has not occurred to them, for instance, that if, as they believe, and as most sincere advocates of clean government believe, the election of Mayor Taylor is of paramount importance, Mr. Langdon and his backers should be doing all in their power to educate the people up to a comprehension of their duty. This the backers of Mr. Langdon are not doing. Indeed it is pretty well understood that the backers of Mr. Langdon are taking less than a lukewarm interest in the candidacy of Mr. Taylor. It is even asserted by Mayor Taylor's most intimate friends that he has lost the support of the graft prosecutors, and to this assertion color has been given by the special Langdon meetings held under their auspices and to which Mr. Taylor was not invited. Mr. Langdon himself has been quoted to the effect that he is for Mr. Ryan, and though I do not usually attach much credibility to Mr. Langdon's statements, I believe that he does prefer Ryan to Taylor. At any rate he does not dare espouse the Taylor cause, for he fears the Examiner, and that paper would swat him hard if he said a word in favor of the Mayor. Surely there is much of salient significance for the man of ordinary intelligence in this situation so pregnant with inconsistencies, shams and hypocrisies.

The Examiner is lambasting Taylor for being a Spreckels puppet, whereas the whole town knows that there is but one Spreckels puppet and that its name is Langdon. On the other hand we have Spreckels and Phelan and Heney, the Examiners, who has shown himself incompetent as a lawyer, a man who has no convictions and no dependable principles, whose propensities make him always the servant of one scheming boss or another. A man who has so little regard for the proprieties, so little respect for his solemn oath as to abandon his official powers to be employed by a private citizen for his own purposes and to his own ends, should not be given a new mandate. A man who has permitted the official powers in his hand to be used in support of criminality, in support of social violence, as a club of private vengeance—such a man most certainly deserves neither "support" nor "endorsement."

AS TO THE PROSECUTING ATTORNEYSHIP.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—Editor Argonaut: While in the main I think your criticism of Mr. Langdon is largely shared by others, yet I would question the wisdom of speaking so plainly at this particular time. Had we the alternative to vote for any candidate better fitted to fill the office in question, the situation would be somewhat different.

The future of San Francisco, of course, depends to a large degree upon the men elected to office for the next two years, and while our present nominee for this office does not possess all the virtues of "boy-cotts and strikes," of "graft and bribery," of "class and partisan politics," the record fails to disentangle us to use our efforts to influence votes against him in favor of some unknown?

Mr. Langdon has abandoned to others have tended to the promotion of dissensions, enough boycotts and strikes, enough graft and bribery, enough class and partisan politics, and if not of graft and bribery, of something wearing very much the look of coercion, intimidation and subornation of perjury—not to mention other things. We agree with Mr. Saunders that we should be less selfish with each other."

E. V. SAUNDERS. Here we have a rather curious betrayal of moral anxiety and mental confusion. Mr. Saunders shares in doubt with respect to the character, the qualifications and the record of Mr. Langdon, but he "questions the wisdom" of declaring these doubts or of acting with respect to them. Now it is not so much doubt as certainty that impresses the Argonaut in the matter of Mr. Langdon's candidacy. It knows he is an unworthy man and an unworthy official because he has done a lot of unworthy things. It was unworthy to be the candidate and the official creature and servant of Abraham Ruef. It was unworthy to become the servant of William R. Hearst. It was again unworthy to turn over the powers of the prosecuting attorneyship to Rudolph Spreckels to be used in pursuit of his private purposes and revenges. It was unworthy to permit the powers of his office to be exercised in support of the street car strike. Again, it was with the prosecuting attorneyship unworthy to permit the powers of his office to be used as it was not a special class of criminals used in the Geary street matter, but all criminals. He It is unworthy that powers depending on the prosecuting attorneyship should be employed at once to cajole, to threaten and to suborn as in the case of Abraham Ruef and the hoodlum Super-visors. This sounds better than anything we have heard from Mr. McGowan.

The Argonaut has no personal and first-hand knowledge of Mr. McGowan. Very frankly let us confess that we don't like the campaign company in which we find him. But this, be it remembered, is a campaign in which we must consider the candidates themselves rather than the tickets upon which they stand. Mr. McGowan is said by persons of judgment who know him well to be a straight man in both his public and private relations. And it must be said for him that he is commended by a series of utterances which show that he at least understands the situation and the official creature and servant of Abraham Ruef. It was unworthy to become the servant of William R. Hearst. It was again unworthy to turn over the powers of the prosecuting attorneyship to Rudolph Spreckels to be used in pursuit of his private purposes and revenges. It was unworthy to permit the powers of his office to be exercised in support of the street car strike. Again, it was with the prosecuting attorneyship unworthy to permit the powers of his office to be used as it was not a special class of criminals used in the Geary street matter, but all criminals. He It is unworthy that powers depending on the prosecuting attorneyship should be employed at once to cajole, to threaten and to suborn as in the case of Abraham Ruef and the hoodlum Super-visors. This sounds better than anything we have heard from Mr. McGowan.

Oakland Tribune

W. E. DARGIE, President.
JOHN F. CONNERS, Managing Editor.
J. CLEM ARNOLD, Business Manager.

Every evening and Sunday morning. Delivered by carriers. 6¢ per month, including SUNDAY TRIBUNE. One year, $7.50; single copy, 5¢.

Entered at Oakland Post Office as second-class matter.

Sample copy free on application. Publication Office, TRIBUNE Building, corner of Eighth and Franklin streets. Telephone Oakland 528.

Branch Office, 1058 Broadway, Phone Oakland 707.

San Francisco office, 13 Geary st., near Kearny.

Berkeley office, 2133 Center street. Telephone Berkeley 180.

Alameda office, Schneider's Sta. Honey Stars, corner Park street and Santa Clara avenue. Telephone Alameda 559.

San Jose Agency, 58 East Santa Clara ave.; phone Red 5211.

Manager, Foreign Advertising, Williams & Lawrence, New York.

Bronxville Bldg., 5th ave. and 24th st., Chicago 1824 Marquette Building; Will T. Cremer, Representative.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

SUBSCRIBERS FAILING TO RECEIVE THEIR PAPER WITHIN A REASONABLE HOUR AFTER PUBLICATION WILL PLEASE REPORT THE SAME TO THE TRIBUNE OFFICE BY TELEPHONE AND A SPECIAL MESSENGER WILL BE DISPATCHED WITH A COPY OF THE TRIBUNE AT ONCE.

MESSAGES.

ADVERTISEMENTS intended or continuing to run in the TRIBUNE, "DO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION" 15¢ a line daily.

ADVERTISEMENTS ordered by telephone for a definite number of insertions will be charged for the time specified subject to no rebates on discontinuance order before expiration date.

All advertisers should retain counter checks given or no rebates on discontinuance order before expiration date.

No orders recognized for advertisements for insertion "TILL FOR- bid."

No charges made for box rental to patrons answering advertisements requesting answers to certain box numbers.

Special Notice

Patrons of THE TRIBUNE are particularly cautioned against paying in advance for insertion in THE TRIBUNE unless solicitors can produce written authorization from the Business Manager.

TRIBUNE PUBLISHING CO.

You Can

TELEPHONE

a "WANT" to

The Tribune

Call Classified Department

OAKLAND 528

AT advertisements intended or continuing to run in the TRIBUNE, "DO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION" 15¢ a line daily.

ADVERTISEMENTS ordered by telephone for a definite number of insertions will be charged for the time specified subject to no rebates on discontinuance order before expiration date.

All advertisers should retain counter checks given or no rebates on discontinuance order before expiration date.

No orders recognized for advertisements for insertion "TILL FOR- bid."

No charges made for box rental to patrons answering advertisements requesting answers to certain box numbers.

Business Cards

If yours is a reasonable "want" have the courage to advertise it more than once if necessary.

JAPANESE HOUSECLEANING CO. Also Cleaning and Gardening 1101 Telegraph Ave., Oakland.

LADIES, for your hair and scalp, face and fingers, attended to by Mrs. E. Conland 129 Broadway, room 7.

Market Laundry Co., Inc.

800-804 Myrtle st., bet 7th and 8th sts. Phone Oakland 519.

We have most modern machinery for your plain laundry and specialties, cheap and clean. All laundry done by hand and elegantly.

W. R. MCGARTY—House moved and raised, 931 20th st., just east of San Pablo (R. R.) station. Phone Piedmont 262.

MEETING NOTICES.

A MEETING of the stockholders of the Bay Cities Automobile Co. will be held at 8:30 p. m. at 572 Telegraph Avenue, Oakland.

PERSONALS

A merchant would not think a woman very wise if she purchased a woman's silk for a pawn when she needed—when it were very fine silk. Nor is the merchant wise to purchase a column less advertising space than the needs, even if it is very fine advertising space—and costly.

CHARACTER of self or friends correctly delineated from writing; 50c. Beaumont Wilson, 256 Post st., S. F.

GAS Consumers' Assn. reduces your bill to 10 per cent. 166 Broadway.

GOODWEAR SHOE REPAIRING CO. Repair of shoes while you wait. Best material latest improved machinery. 25 San Jose ave.

18 you want it, and it's not advertised here, advise the FOR IT here.

MIGHTEST price paid for men's cast on clothing. 53 Broadway Phone Oakland 519.

If you are a borden, there are some interesting things in the want ads for you.

L. S. CLARK, Atty-at-Law, 831 Jackson st., construction free. Once a month.

MRS. A. D. A. wonderful, gifted healer, cures all diseases without knife, drug. 1013 Washington, parlors 8 and 9.

MADAME STANLEY, reader daily and instructions in palmistry, now at 48 16th st.

KLAIN WINDOW CLEANING CO. Services on windows, day or month. Prices for cleaning windows, doors, glass, shower or scrubbing. Doors next door to guaranteed. Office 472 16th st., near Broadway. Phone Oakland 519.

Miss (W. M.) MAVERICK, electrolytic skin treatment, 1000 ft. bet 1st and 2nd, 16th and 17th st., phone Oakland 1907.

Mrs. O. M. SHARPE—Specially for beautifying—sculp and facial treatment. Suite 207, 2nd Telegraph ave., Phone Oakland 577. All work done by appointment.

SUPERIOR 'O'S hair and moles removed. Extraordinary, skin and scalp treatment. Hair dressing, profession. 16th st., 2nd Telegraph ave.

SHERMAN, CLAIRVOYANT, TRANCE MEDIUM. Extraordinary clairvoyant powers. Extraordinary, skin and scalp treatment. 16th st., 2nd Telegraph ave.

MISS F. M. DAWSON, hair and moles removed. Extraordinary, skin and scalp treatment. Hair dressing, profession. 16th st., 2nd Telegraph ave.

MISS CLIFFORD—Alcohol massage. 419 5th st., suite 11.

WANTED—A girl to do housework and assist with children. 351 5th.

WANTED—A woman to go to the country to do housework. Call 164 Magnolia st., at 164 Magnolia st.

WOMAN for cooking for small restaurant. 232 13th st., corner 13th ave.

WANTED—Woman understanding sewing for art, making over; good pay. Box 707, Tribune.

WANTED—Girl for general housework in small family. Apply 1 Watson ave.

WANTED—Girl for light housekeeping and care of 2 children. 900 5th st.

YOUNG girl to assist in light housework and care of children. 361 20th st., Oakland.

PERSONALS

UNCALLED for suits, trousers and overcoats at less than cost at Chas. Lyons, the London Tailor, 58 Broadway, bet 9th and 10th st., San Francisco. EMPLOYMENT OFFICES.

CLAIRVOYANTS.

CLAIRVOYANT, ALMIRA DE LEON.

Oakland's celebrated, reliable trance reader, a woman, medium and clairvoyant, a form of medium under the only York medium the world has ever known. Prof. Leo Aulus of India. She possesses the only new, renowned occult method of reading the future, the secret of world ideas, pure thoughts, clear visions. Consult her in her own home on all affairs, love, marriage, divorces, business, etc.; located mines and valuable ores. Clairvoyant method of reading the past and future developed. Office hours, after 1 p. m. daily, 115 17th st., next postoffice. No signs; just the number.

MRS. BEEK, palmist, gifted clairvoyant reader, names, dates, marriage, business. 551 1st st., near Grove. Ladies, 2nd st.

MISS E. MARTIN—Card reading and clairvoyant. 1746 Geary st., suite 7, San Francisco.

Spiritualist

Meeting, every one welcome. Tell your full name, spirit names, predictions, music, lecture, vocal selections. The Alcott-Dickinson Mediums, Sunday night, 10 p. m., 11th and corner Clay.

CONSULTATIONS daily. 22 13th st.

HELP WANTED—MALE.

A BRIGHT boy wanted. Apply 548 20th, 7:30 a. m.

AN experienced salesman for a staple line of shoes for California. Address box 718, Tribune.

EASY work afternoons or evenings for boys over 13. 551 13th near Clay.

FIRST-CLASS solicitor; salary $20 to $40 per week according to ability. Oakland Art and Frame Co., 528 San Pablo ave.

FIREMEN and brakemen on railroads in California vicinity, to fill vacancies caused by strikes, etc.; permanent necessary; state age, height, weight. Firemen $100 monthly, become engineer and earn $200; brakemen $75, become engineer and earn $150; name position preferred. Railway Association of California, Oakland Tribune.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

SUBSCRIBERS FAILING TO RECEIVE THEIR PAPER WITHIN A REASONABLE HOUR AFTER PUBLICATION WILL PLEASE REPORT THE SAME TO THE TRIBUNE OFFICE BY TELEPHONE AND A SPECIAL MESSENGER WILL BE DISPATCHED WITH A COPY OF THE TRIBUNE AT ONCE.

MESSAGES.

ADVERTISEMENTS intended or continuing to run in the TRIBUNE, "DO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION" 15¢ a line daily.

ADVERTISEMENTS ordered by telephone for a definite number of insertions will be charged for the time specified subject to no rebates on discontinuance order before expiration date.

All advertisers should retain counter checks given or no rebates on discontinuance order before expiration date.

No orders recognized for advertisements for insertion "TILL FOR- bid."

No charges made for box rental to patrons answering advertisements requesting answers to certain box numbers.

Business Cards

If yours is a reasonable "want" have the courage to advertise it more than once if necessary.

JAPANESE HOUSECLEANING CO. Also Cleaning and Gardening 1101 Telegraph Ave., Oakland.

LADIES, for your hair and scalp, face and fingers, attended to by Mrs. E. Conland 129 Broadway, room 7.

Market Laundry Co., Inc.

800-804 Myrtle st., bet 7th and 8th sts. Phone Oakland 519.

We have most modern machinery for your plain laundry and specialties, cheap and clean. All laundry done by hand and elegantly.

W. R. MCGARTY—House moved and raised, 931 20th st., just east of San Pablo (R. R.) station. Phone Piedmont 262.

MEETING NOTICES.

A MEETING of the stockholders of the Bay Cities Automobile Co. will be held at 8:30 p. m. at 572 Telegraph Avenue, Oakland.

PERSONALS

A merchant would not think a woman very wise if she purchased a woman's silk for a pawn when she needed—when it were very fine silk. Nor is the merchant wise to purchase a column less advertising space than the needs, even if it is very fine advertising space—and costly.

CHARACTER of self or friends correctly delineated from writing; 50c. Beaumont Wilson, 256 Post st., S. F.

GAS Consumers' Assn. reduces your bill to 10 per cent. 166 Broadway.

GOODWEAR SHOE REPAIRING CO. Repair of shoes while you wait. Best material latest improved machinery. 25 San Jose ave.

18 you want it, and it's not advertised here, advise the FOR IT here.

MIGHTEST price paid for men's cast on clothing. 53 Broadway Phone Oakland 519.

If you are a borden, there are some interesting things in the want ads for you.

L. S. CLARK, Atty-at-Law, 831 Jackson st., construction free. Once a month.

MRS. A. D. A. wonderful, gifted healer, cures all diseases without knife, drug. 1013 Washington, parlors 8 and 9.

MADAME STANLEY, reader daily and instructions in palmistry, now at 48 16th st.

KLAIN WINDOW CLEANING CO. Services on windows, day or month. Prices for cleaning windows, doors, glass, shower or scrubbing. Doors next door to guaranteed. Office 472 16th st., near Broadway. Phone Oakland 519.

Miss (W. M.) MAVERICK, electrolytic skin treatment, 1000 ft. bet 1st and 2nd, 16th and 17th st., phone Oakland 1907.

Mrs. O. M. SHARPE—Specially for beautifying—sculp and facial treatment. Suite 207, 2nd Telegraph ave.

SUPERIOR 'O'S hair and moles removed. Extraordinary, skin and scalp treatment. Hair dressing, profession. 16th st., 2nd Telegraph ave.

SHERMAN, CLAIRVOYANT, TRANCE MEDIUM. Extraordinary clairvoyant powers. Extraordinary, skin and scalp treatment. Hair dressing, profession. 16th st., 2nd Telegraph ave.

MISS CLIFFORD—Alcohol massage. 419 5th st., suite 11.

WANTED—A girl to do housework and assist with children. 351 5th.

WANTED—A woman to go to the country to do housework. Call 164 Magnolia st., at 164 Magnolia st.

WOMAN for cooking for small restaurant. 232 13th st., corner 13th ave.

WANTED—Competent girl for general housework and cooking; no washing. 16th st., 2nd Telegraph ave.

WANTED—Girl for general housework required; two (2) in apartment. Call 101 Harrison, from 1 to 2 p. m.

WANTED—Reliable woman to do light housework and to assist with two children, one boy, one girl, 10 months old. Residence near 5th st. and Telegraph ave.; state references and wages. Exp. to 755 Tribune.

WANTED—Competent girl for general housework in malling preferred. Phone Berkeley 1233 or 2040 Haste st., Berkeley.

WANTED—Competent girl for general housework; no washing. 16th st., 2nd Telegraph ave.

WANTED—Good girl for general housework; references required; two (2) in apartment. Call 101 Harrison, from 1 to 2 p. m.

WANTED—Competent girl for general housework; no washing. 16th st., 2nd Telegraph ave

SATURDAY EVENING.

FURNISHED HOUSES FOR RENT.

FURNISHED room house, modern; all conveniences; good neighborhood. Call at 541 11th st.

COTTAGE 3 room, furnished, $65. 54th.

FURNISHED house, 12 rooms, basement; with furnace, close in, first-class location. Address box 1122, Tribune.

FOR RENT—Furnished house; Piedmont, by the Lake; $150. 4th Crescent st. of Park. C. Honey.

FOR RENT—Furnished five-room cottage. Apply 25th st.

HOUSE 4 rooms, with pantry, gas electricity, all conveniences. 15th, 16th st.

NEAT cabin, 3 rooms, at beach; boat-adults. 110 Central ave., near 10th st. station. Alameda.

NICELY furnished 11-room house. 1000
17th. Mrs. A. L. Vista.

6-ROOMED house, in Walworth, tastefully furnished; manager and big-grade oak piano. 360 Tel. Oakland 334.

4-ROOMED house, well furnished, newly located near Shattuck station, 13th
East st. end of Shattuck. Berkeley.

UNFURNISHED HOUSES

A. HOUSE 5 rooms, central; electric lights. 14th, 15th st. $25.

A 2-ROOMED cottage, in rear of 5812 Tel.
ave. rent $10. Apply 10th st.

HOUSE 4 rooms, with bath, with stable. $40 per month. 10th st. at play owner. 221 Webster.

MODERN 3-room, house, 18th st., near
Key Route. 200. 19th West st.

NEW 4-room, with high basement, near Baker st. rent $25.

NEW house of 8 rooms, 16th st. ave.

NEW 3 and 4-room houses, near Key Route, school $30 and $35 per month.

123 Pearl, near 9th.

VISIT on, renting department—the largest in Oak, and service free, convenient, no obligation, no complaints, takes care of time and trouble.

J. BRUNNER, 10th st., the big furniture store, 11th and Franklin st., Oakland.

500-6 ROOMED cottage, sun in every room, large grounds. S. W. Cor. 11th ave. and East 11th st.

311. A. HOUSE 5 rooms, with bath, 5
11th East 22d st.

6-ROOMED furnished, and Key Route.

4-ROOMED FLATS to Let.

AA—BEAUTIFUL furnished flats, and suites. 46 11th st. near Clay.

FURNISHED flat, 3 rooms, pantry and bath.

FURNISHED flat, for sale, cheap, flat to rent, 16th st. 10th st.

FURNISHED flat, for rent of 3 large rooms, gas, electric, bath, 11th st.

FURNISHED flat, for rent, 16th st.

HOUSES FOR SALE.

WIFE SLAYER SURRENDERS

After Year's Freedom F. D. Cook Gives Himself Up to Texas Police.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 2.—Fred D. Cook, who in August, 1906, shot and killed his wife, surrendered to the officials at Fort Worth, Texas, yesterday. At the time of the murder, which occurred on a Santa Monica street car, Cook jumped from the car and made his escape.

KEYSTONE REALTY CO. Phone Oakland 6196. 46th st.

FOR SALE—3-room house, lot 50x100, at bargain. Apply 198 8th ave.

FOR SALE—Two 5-room cottages on car line. One, Oakland, new, modern. B. & W. 10th st.

FOR SALE—By owner, new modern 5-room house, near Telegraph, on 14th st. $2500. a ba gain, must sell. Inquire 681 5th st.

FOR SALE—Modern five-room cottage, 3 minutes from Key Route; has electricity, and a 1st street improvements; large lot and high basement. $75 500 st. Oakland.

FOR SALE—New houses, 4 to 6 rooms; price $2000 up, small cash payment; balance same as rest; near transportation. Apply 5887 Tribune.

FOR SALE—A house of 14 rooms; clear $1000 reasonable. Apply 216 San Pablo ave.

NEW cottage and out houses, chickens, variety of berries, lot 8x100, price $1250, also new cottage, 4 rooms and bath, modern plumbing, pine finish; near new home, 10th and 11th, easy terms. See owner, 212 11th st.

RICKLEY & THROUGHTON, 35 and 37 Telegraph ave. We make a specialty of selling homes on easy terms. Call and see us before buying.

The books are all right. So is the rest.

15% For Your Money

2500 bays up to 10 board new houses, which will rent $10 monthly. Seller first payment on a large amount. A delightful home. LAMPING 98 Tenth.

$600 CASH will buy new 5-room cottages, northeast corner 15th and E. 20th st., one block from car, balance $2 per month. 216 10th. Half, owner, 501 Broadway.

500 FLEE FROM BURNING HOTEL

(Continued from Page One.)

From the second door landings, several houses were set afire. Several were severely bruised. Mrs. N. E. Stanger, the housekeeper, was overcome with smoke while warning the guests and had to be carried to safety.

COVER CHILD.

Attorney William Wise, who with his wife and 5-year-old daughter occupied rooms on the fourth floor, became separated from them in the confusion. Mrs. Wise was overcome with smoke while looking for them. The child was suffering from smoke and was found nearly exhausted on the third floor and was carried to safety by Mrs. Wise.

More than 150 rescues were made by the policemen and firemen. There were several minor injuries but no fatalities.

The fire was soon extinguished. The property loss amounted to only about $600.

U. S. PAPERS IN HER ROOM

(Continued from Page One.)

and Oil, the Chicago & Alton Railway and the school book combine.

LIVES IN IDLENESS.

Miss McLean's position as stenographer in District Attorney Sims' office, which she had since April, gave her ample opportunity to obtain copies of the most valuable papers in the cases. The fact that Gorde, her sweetheart, was able to live in idleness, dining at expensive restaurants for the past six months, has made it apparent he had some secret source of income.

MAGNITUDE UNKNOWN.

While the officials feel confident they have unearthed a far-reaching conspiracy, they have yet to learn its magnitude or to what extent its operations have injured government proscriptions. In the prosecution of the Standard Oil, the Alton and the book combine it was apparent at every turn that the defendant knew in advance the government's moves, no matter how secretly planned.

The arrest of the couple, it is believed, has solved this enigma.

SMASHES SAFE WITH AX AND GETS $550

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—A carefully planned burglary was successfully carried out yesterday when someone, evidently familiar with the premises, entered the home of Domenico Zannetti, while the family were away, and, going directly to the strong box, broke it open with an ax and made away with $550 in his safe. Several people saw the burglar enter the house shortly after 10 o'clock yesterday, but thinking he was a member of the family, and not particularly suspicious, he left. Then they observed him running his "get-away" over the back yard. Then they made an effort to capture him without success.

The burglar, after entering the house, went straight to the room where the money was kept, and, opening the door with a key, smashed the box with an ax and without disturbing anything else in the house left with his plunder.

The police were informed immediately of the burglary, but have not yet succeeded in landing the man.

TRANSLATES ENGLISH INTO AFRICAN TONGUE

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The Rev. F. Robert Bunker, who, with his wife and five children, has been in Zambesi, East Africa, for seventeen years, returned to his home in Minnesota.

Rev. Bunker, with other missionaries, has been translating the native African tongue of Zambesi and made dictionaries and many translations of African work. He declared that there is a general desire among the natives to learn English, but they were largely pre-occupied with their work.

All of the missionary's children were born in Africa and this is the first time they have seen America.

ROOMING HOUSES for Sale.

A. D. ATHERTON 466 8th st.

A FEW GOOD HOMES IN APARTMENT HOUSES. Bunker, 111 1/2 Broadway, near 18th.

FOR SALE—A 10-room house, fully furnished and fitted for housekeeping, $1000, or $600, a bargain. Bunker, 111 1/2 Broadway.

FURNITURE—A 12-room house for sale, furnished throughout for a boarding and rooming house; doing a good business. Rent $175 per month.

FOR SALE—A transient in town, 43 1/2 st.

IF you are looking for rooming houses give us a call, very large list and best locations. Star Realty Co., 1019½ Washington st.

NOTICE—Ladies, we can show you best rooming rooms; we can give you bargains. In our business we have no agents or mortgages; plenty of money to loan. Oakland Business Brokers, 553½ Washington st.

ROOMING—Homes of 7 rooms; transient. Inquire for 7th st.

RUDY & SPILKER

Business to H. C. Parker, 917½ Washington st., or 111½ 12th st.; phone 1754.

Rooming-houses, apartment houses, hotels, flats, and business chances bought, sold and exchanged.

14 rms., trans., good furniture, $3000

15 rms., trans., good furniture, $3000

15 rms., apartment house, nice place, $2500

16 rms., furniture, new price, $1000

18 rms., housekeeping, price, $1000

20 rms., long list, prices, $1000

Fruit and veg. we stand, fine location, a money-maker, price, $1000

Livery stable; will sell the whole or one.

Cook wood and grain bus.; price $3000

To buy, sell or exchange any kind of business see.

A. D. ATHERTON 466 8th st.

A FEW GOOD HOMES IN APARTMENT HOUSES. Bunker, 111 1/2 Broadway, near 18th.

FOR SALE—A 10-room house, fully furnished and fitted for housekeeping, $1000, or $600, a bargain. Bunker, 111 1/2 Broadway.

FURNITURE—A 12-room house for sale, furnished throughout for a boarding and rooming house; doing a good business. Rent $175 per month.

FOR SALE—A transient in town, 43 1/2 st.

IF you are looking for rooming houses give us a call, very large list and best locations. Star Realty Co., 1019½ Washington st.

NOTICE—Ladies, we can show you best rooming rooms; we can give you bargains. In our business we have no agents or mortgages; plenty of money to loan. Oakland Business Brokers, 553½ Washington st.

ROOMING—Homes of 7 rooms; transient. Inquire for 7th st.

COUNTRY REAL ESTATE

WESTERN CALIFORNIA has WEALTH and ELBOW ROOM for ALL.

Land $1500 to $500 per acre, easy terms. Home of the Winter, Wheat, Fruits, vines, trees, flowers, in operation. Fine soil to cultivate in the world. Write for free illustrated literature.

FERRIL & BROCK CO.

116 GEORGE ST. S. F. General Agents, Indian Pacific Land Co.

CLEANING AND DYEING.

NEW CALIFORNIA Dyeing & Cleaning works.

1000 13th St. So. is pressed, So. Agents' suits steam clean. $150 Skirts steam cleaned. Phone 2207.

TOEJOE Cleaners and Dye Works, 1835 Broadway, F. J. Davis, proprietor, operating a specialty; an improved machine, expert help on plowed, work called for and delivered promptly, lowest prices. Telephones—On 2nd 566, Home 4183.

BICYCLES.

WANTED—Buyer's idea to know that Chick & Rose, 230 San Pablo ave. are selling big class, motor cycles, etc. and sundries a lot. See them before buying elsewhere.

TOWEL SUPPLIES.

The Oakland Towel Co. at 53 1/2 st. st. furnished office, salons and all kinds of towels, etc. First-class work. All kinds given prompt attention by phone: Fremont 966.

PATENTS.

CHARLES P. GRIFFIN—Patents, trademarks and copyrights; late examiner U. S. Pat. Off. Office, 812 (Call 7442).

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

MINES AND MINING.

MINING gold and silver in The West. Cu. 18 Telegraph. 10th and Clay st. Phone Oakland 8711.

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

AUSTIN 1015 BROADWAY.

W. B. COOK, Clerk.

HARRIS & REED, Attorneys for Petitioners, 11th and Claus, Spreckels Bldg., San Francisco, Cal.

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

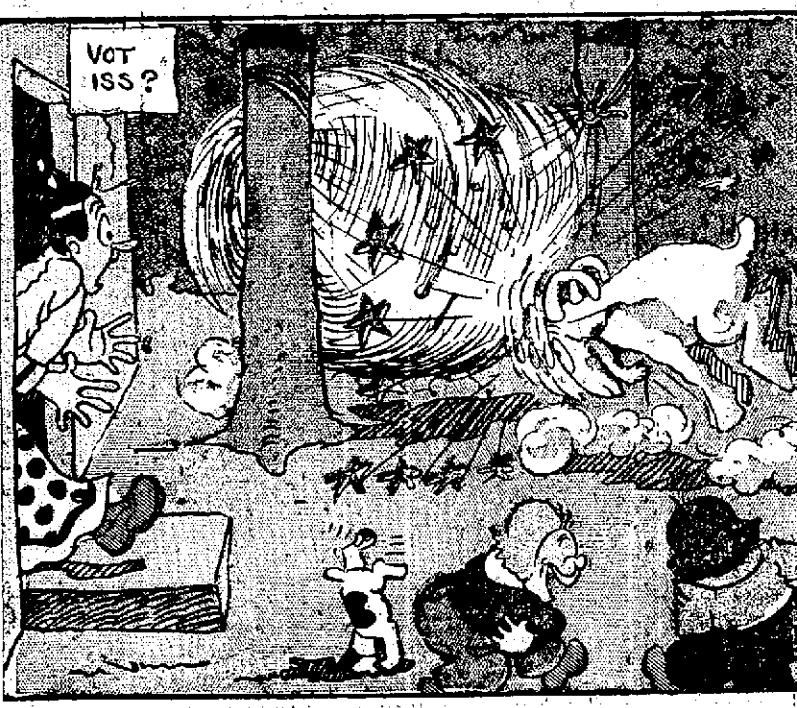

LOCKSMITHING.

largest and best equipped key shop Oakland; work and prices to suit.

LOCKSMITHING.

<p

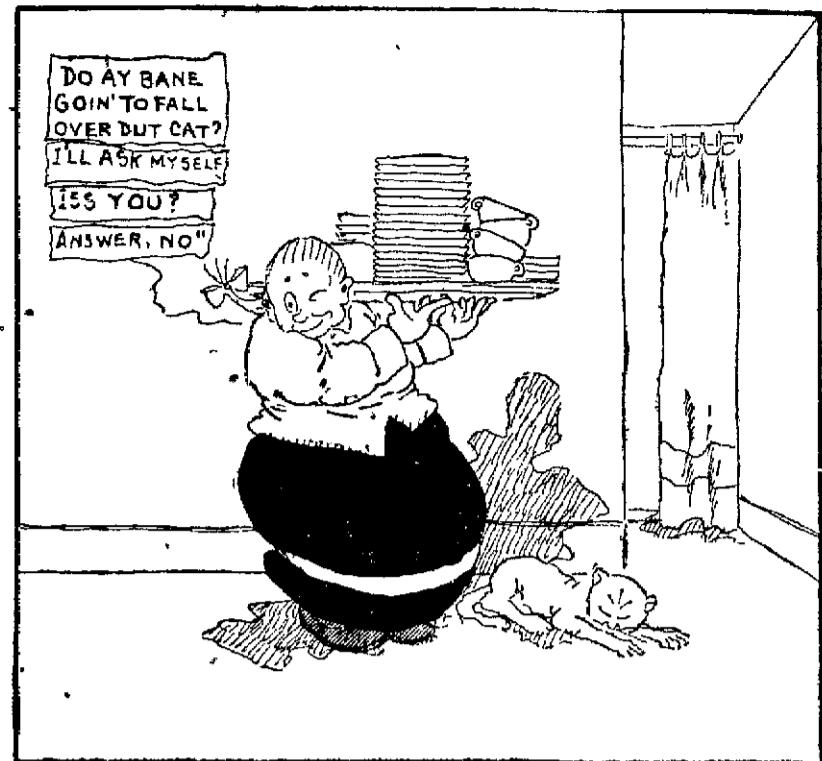

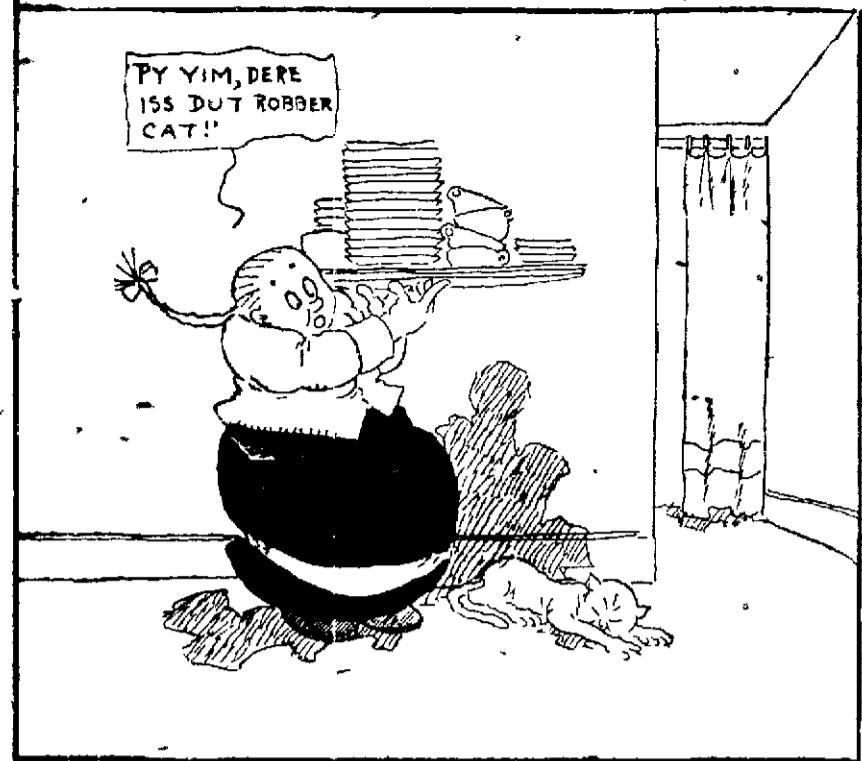

MORE WORK FOR DER VILLUM!..

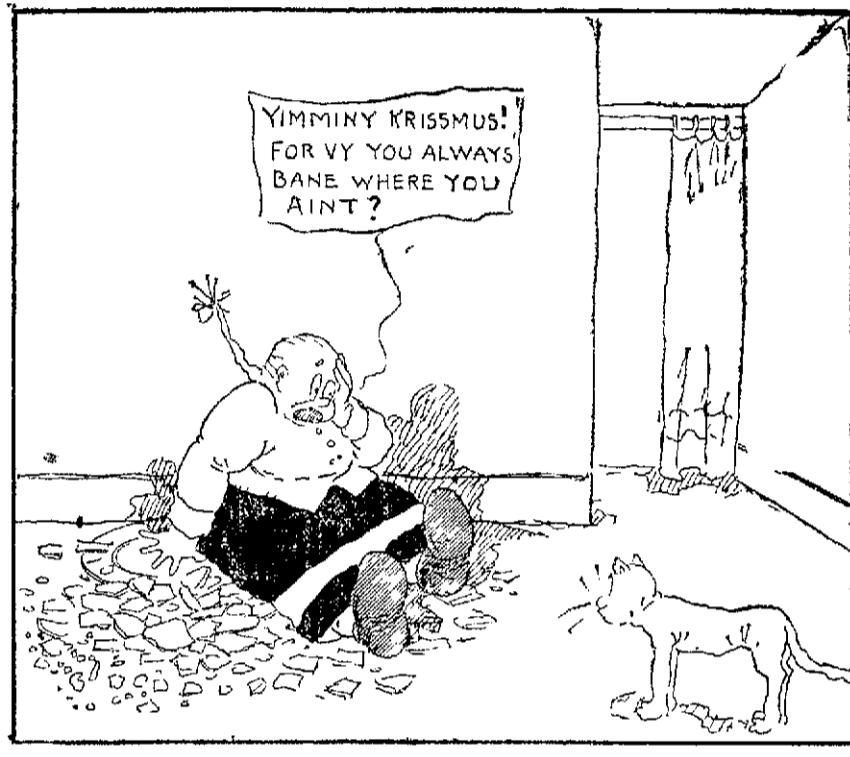

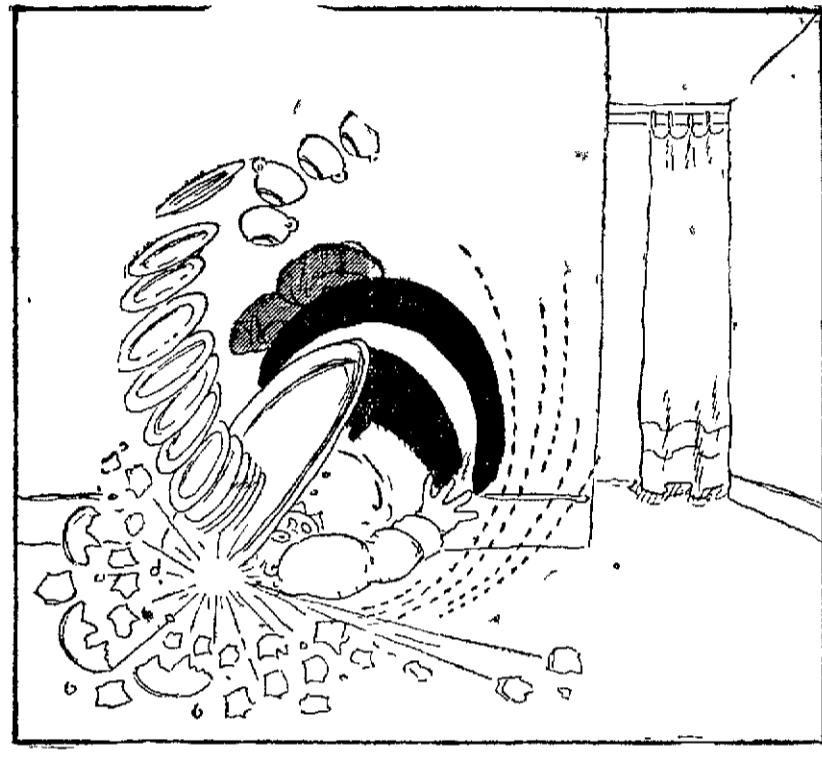

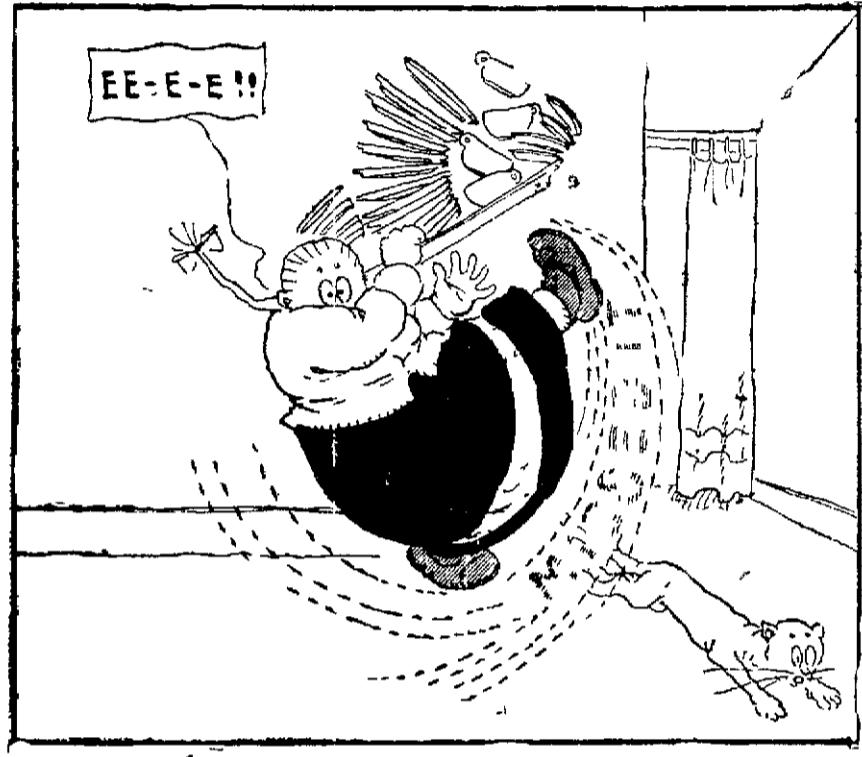

GEORGE, MOMMER and WIFEY. ALL GET CAUGHT in RAIN

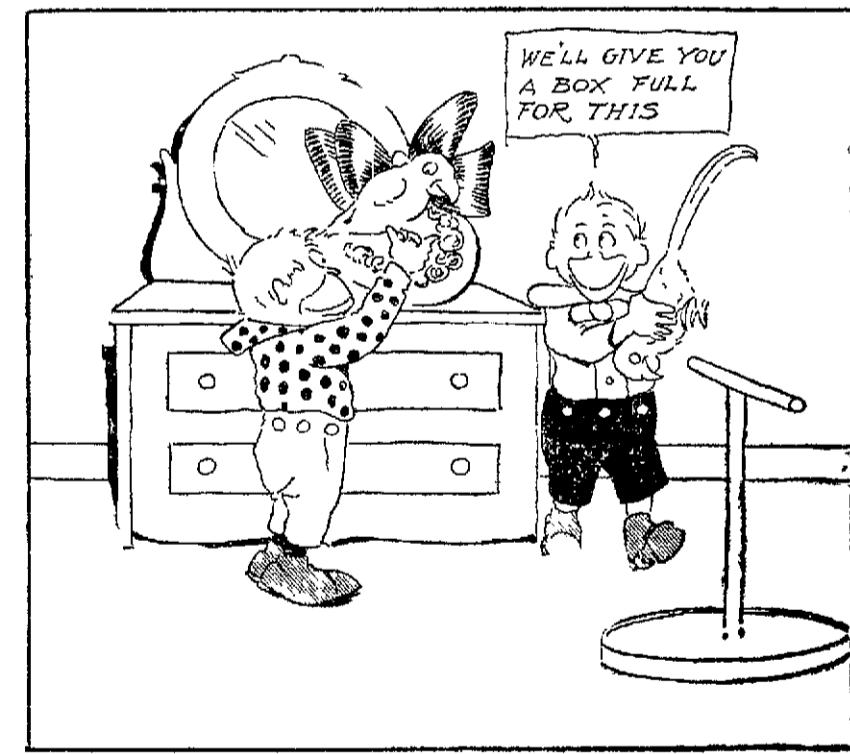

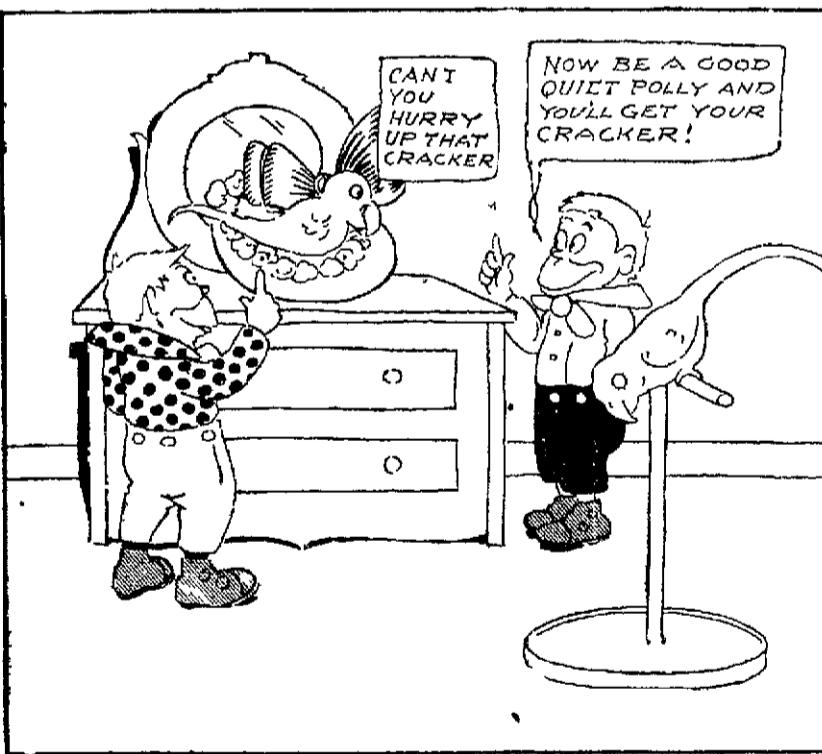

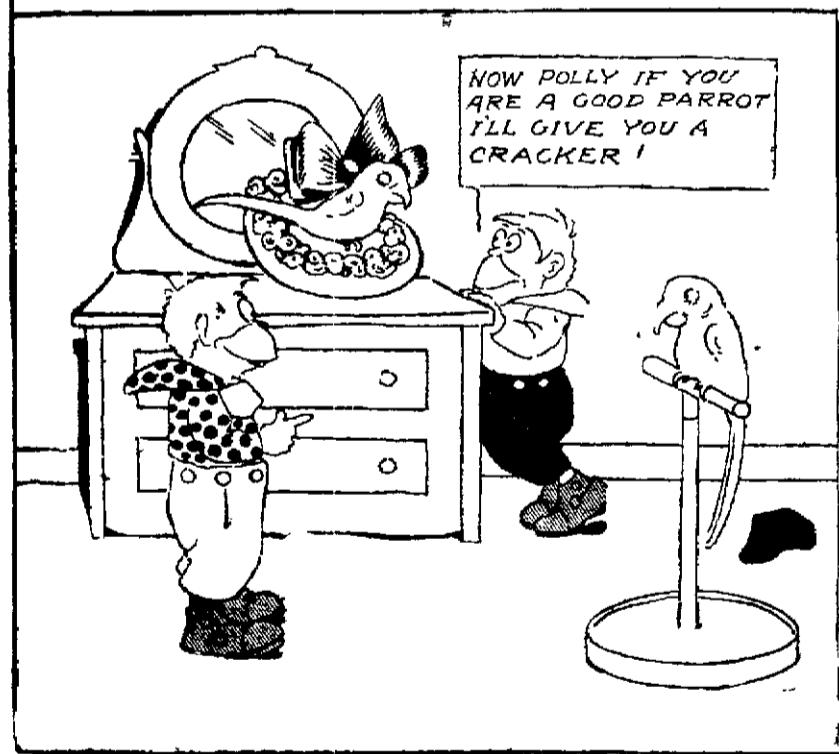

DID YENEVIEVE FALL OVER THE CAT? ANSWER, NO!

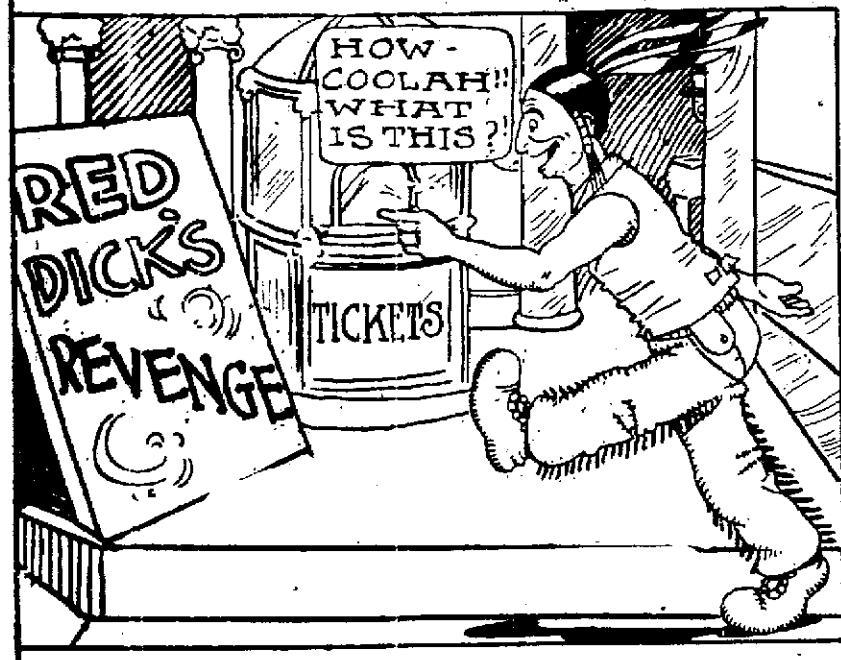

PAGE 5. NOV. 3

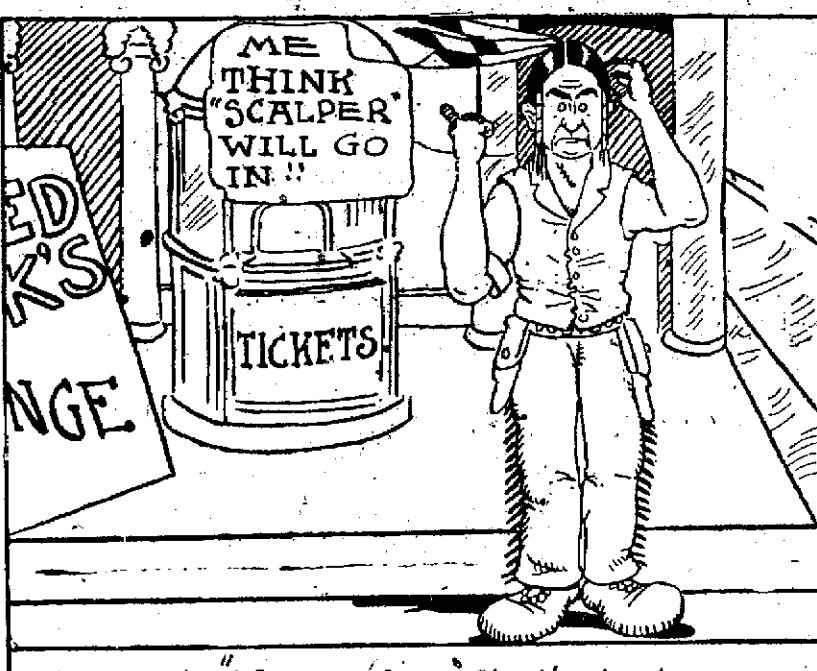

Mrs. Hippo's Hat Decorated with Live Parrots

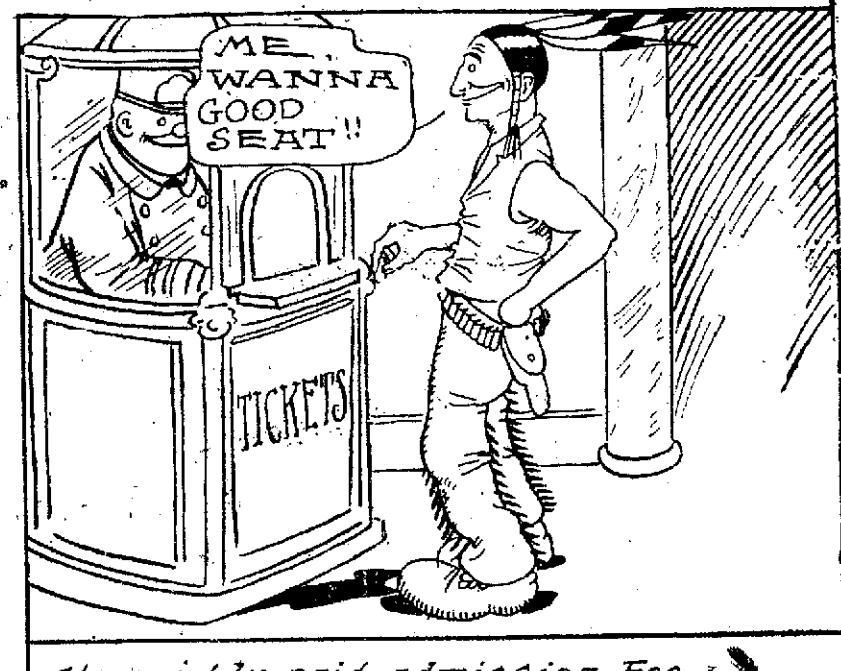

BIG SCALPER STOPS A MOVING PICTURE.

Big Scalper passed the Entrance of A Moving Picture Show.

And said "Me wonder what's in there Big Indian wants to know."

He quickly paid admission Fee
Then took a Dandy Seat

A Scene of Wild and Woolly West
Was Flying on the Sheet.

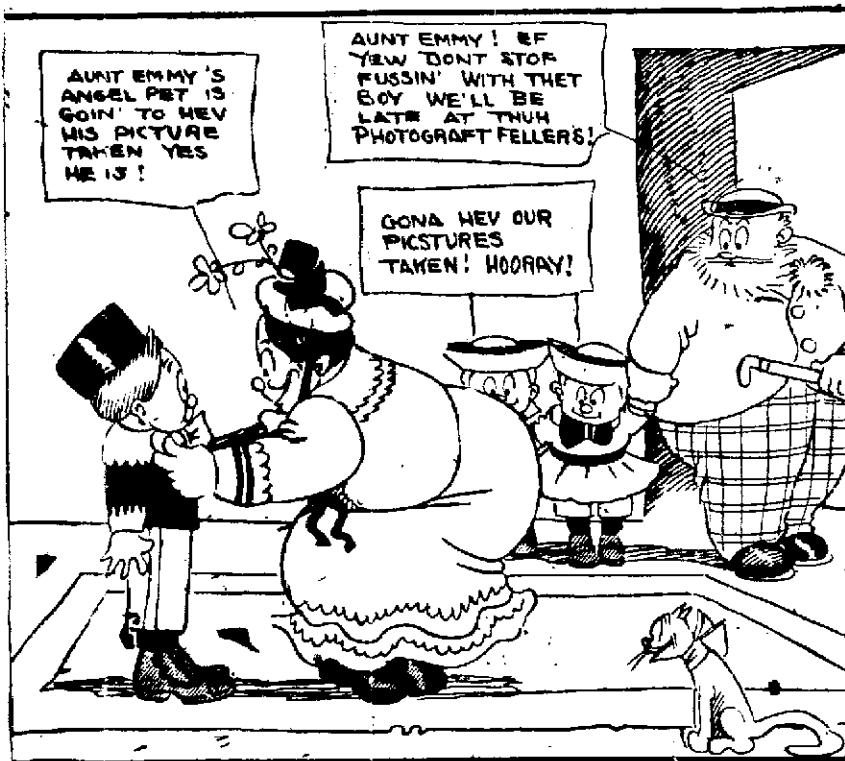

The Pictures looked so Natural
That He began to Shoot

He filled the Canvas full of Holes
And Cleared the Place to Boot.

SCARY WILLIAM GOT SCARED AT A MOUSE AND TRAMPED RIGHT IN UNCLE BING'S EYE

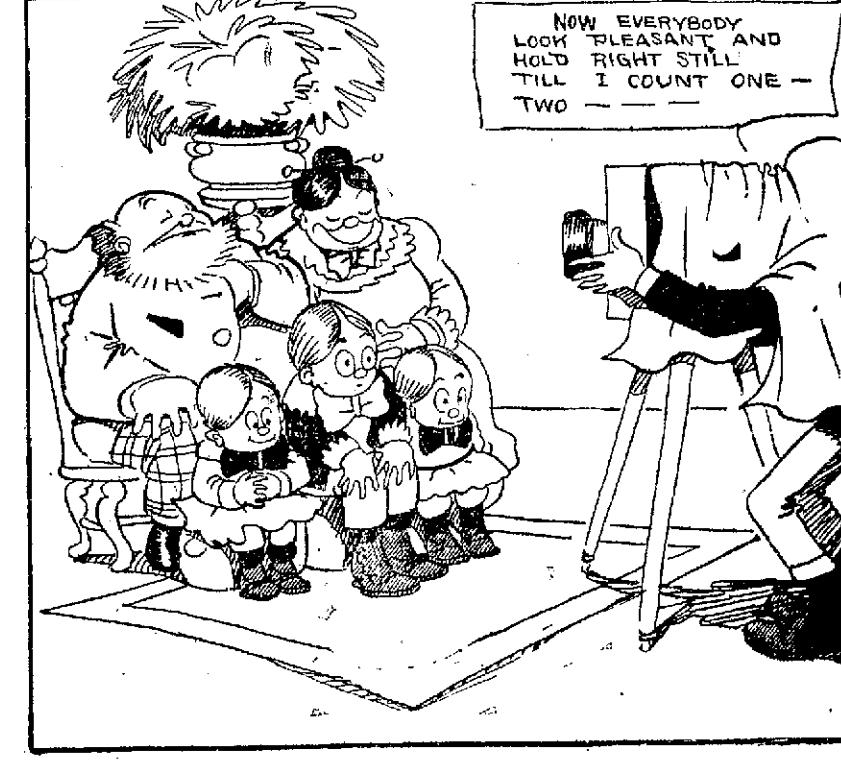

AUNT EMMY'S ANGEL PET IS GOIN' TO HEV HIS PICTURE TAKEN. YES HE IS!

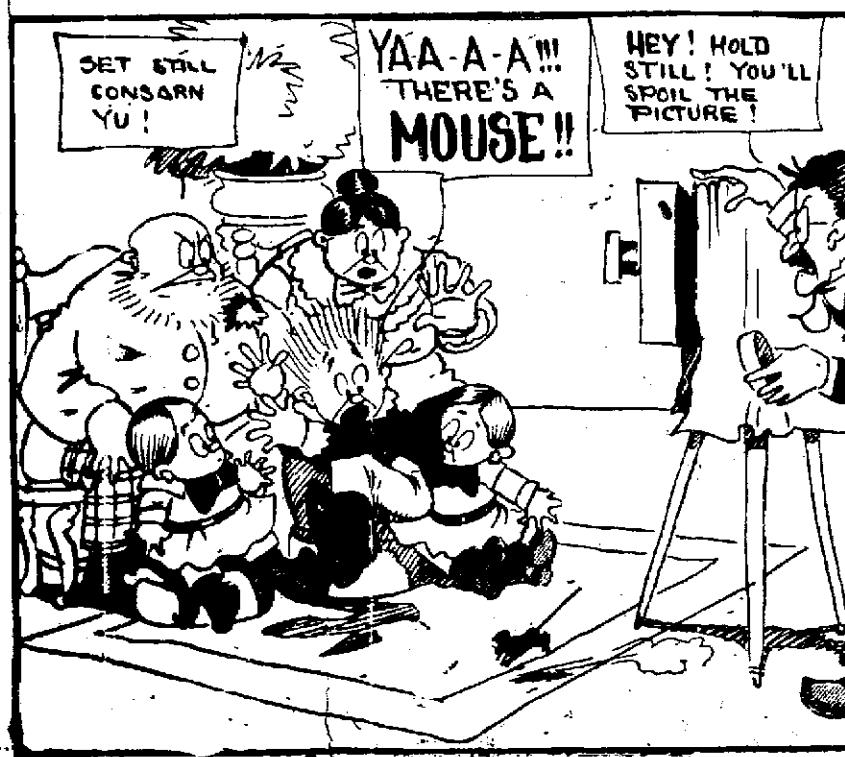

GONA HEV OUR PICTURES TAKEN! HOORAY!

AIN'T THEY JUST THUH CUTE THINGS, UNCLE BING?

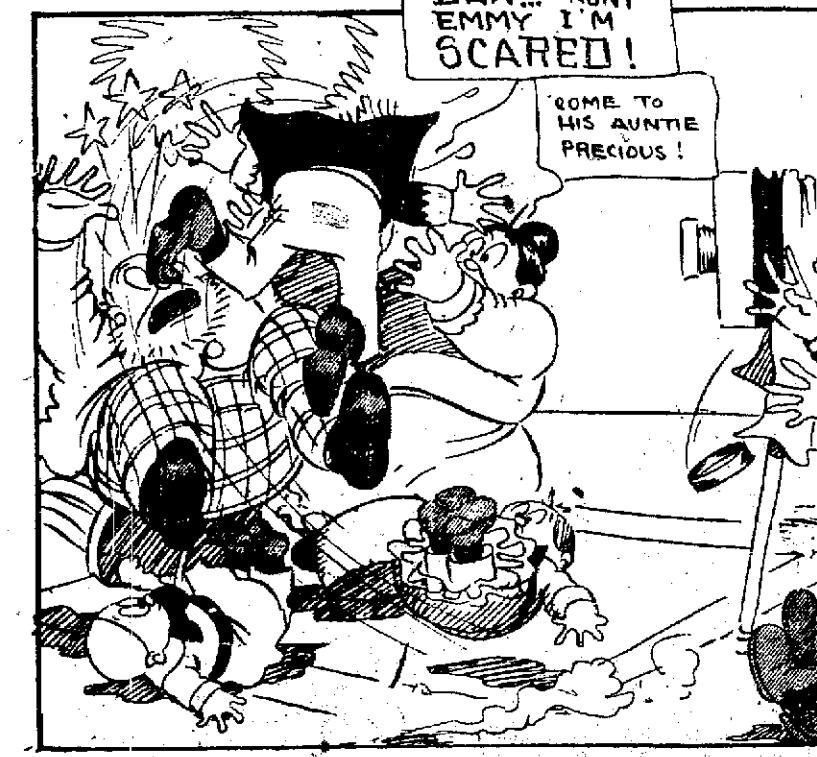

NOW, EVERYBODY LOOK PLEASANT AND HOLD RIGHT STILL TILL I COUNT ONE - TWO -

SET STIL CONURN YU!

YAA-A-A!! THERE'S A MOUSE!!

HEY! HOLD STILL! YOU'LL SPOIL THE PICTURE!

BAA!! AUNT EMMY I'M SCARED!

COME TO HIS AUNTIE PRECIOUS!

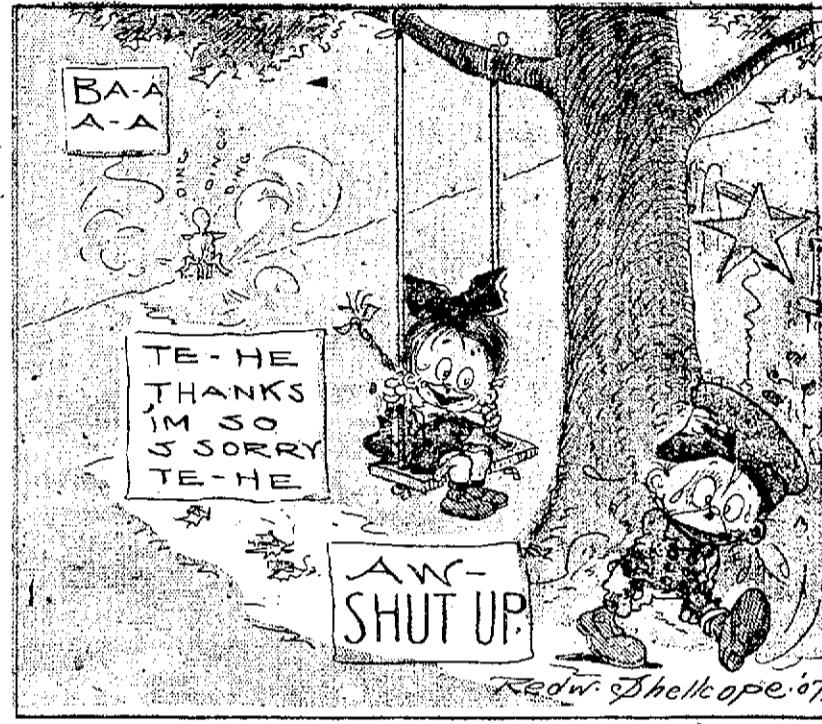

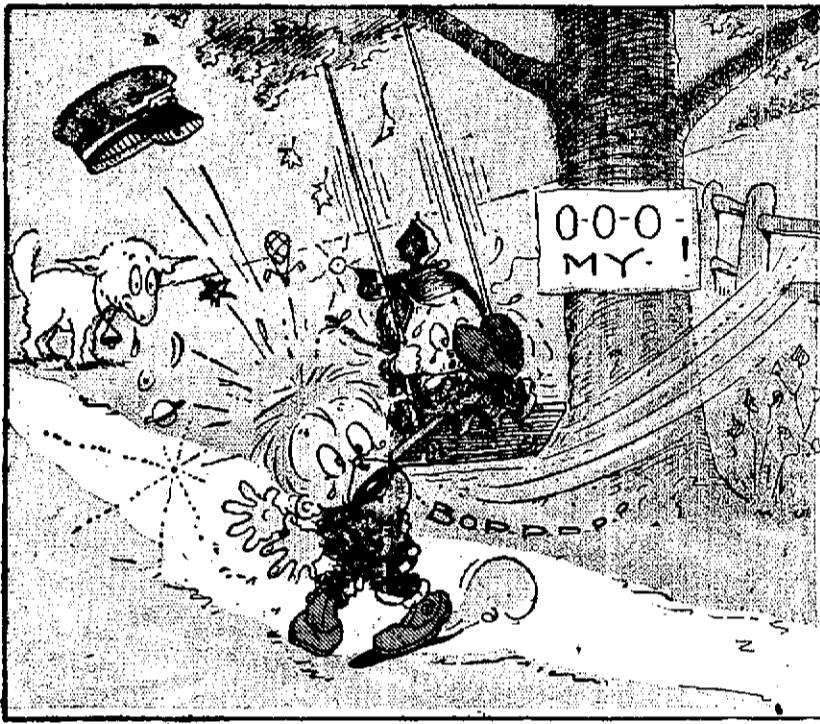

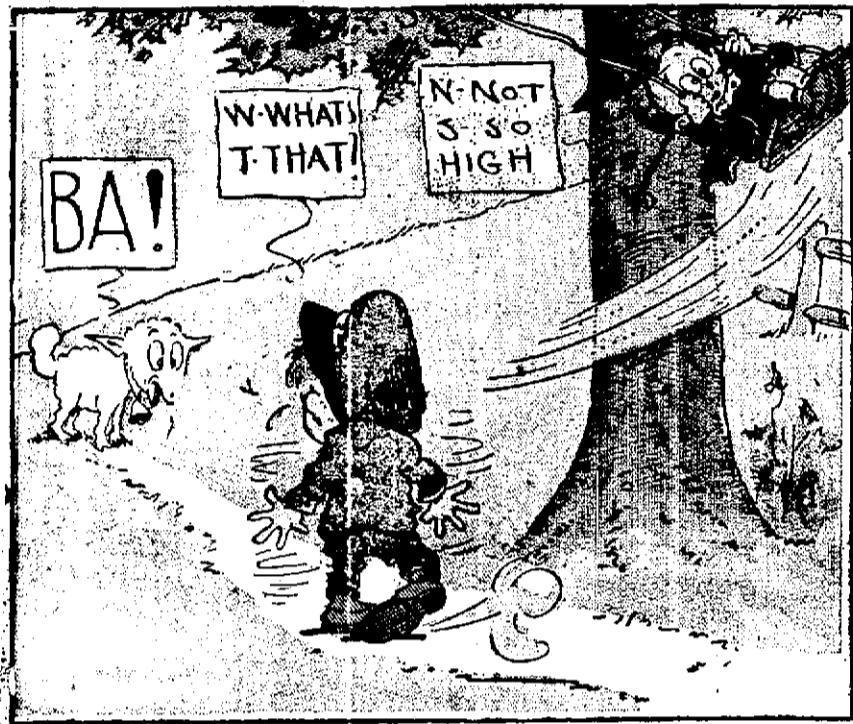

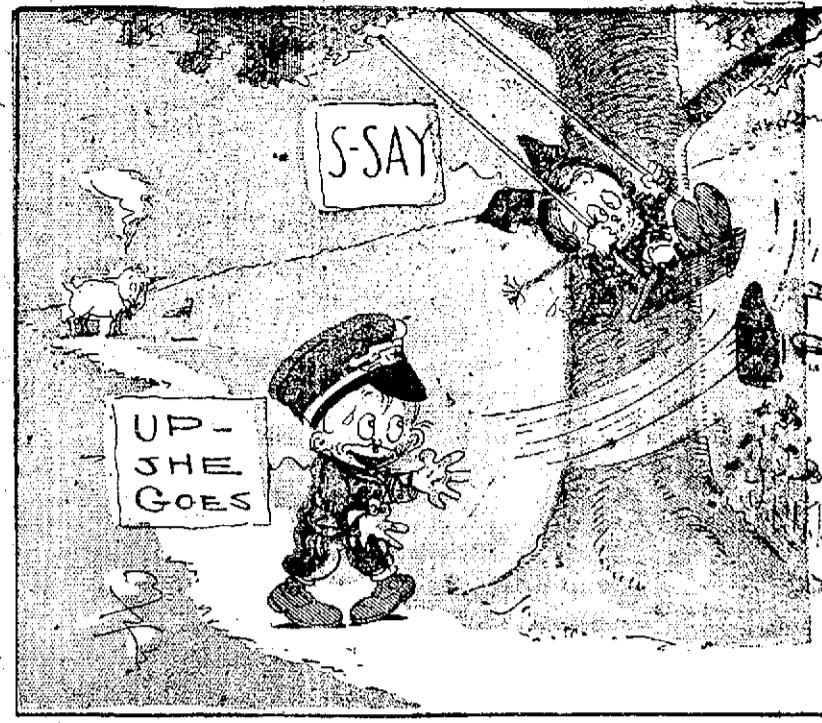

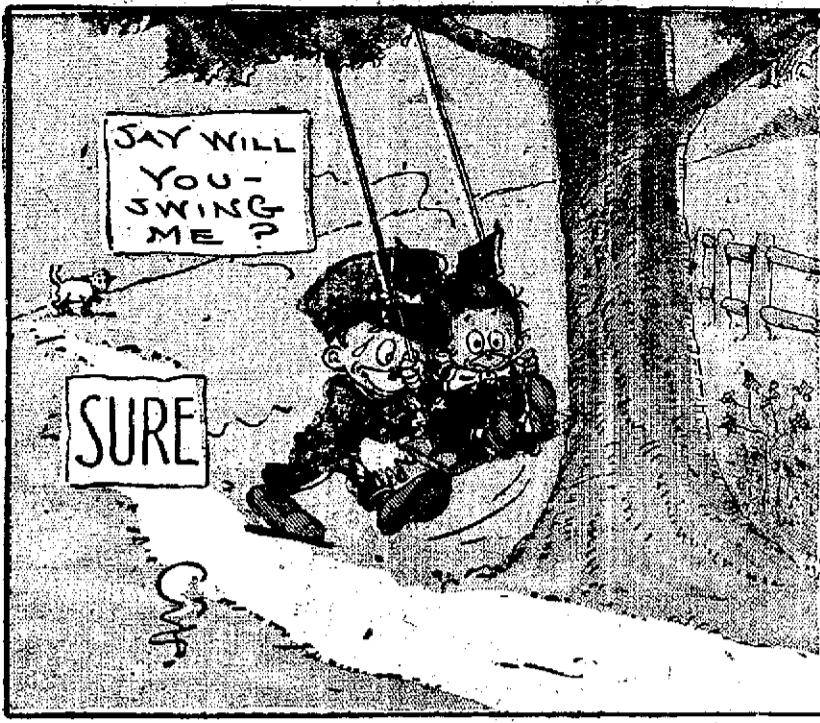

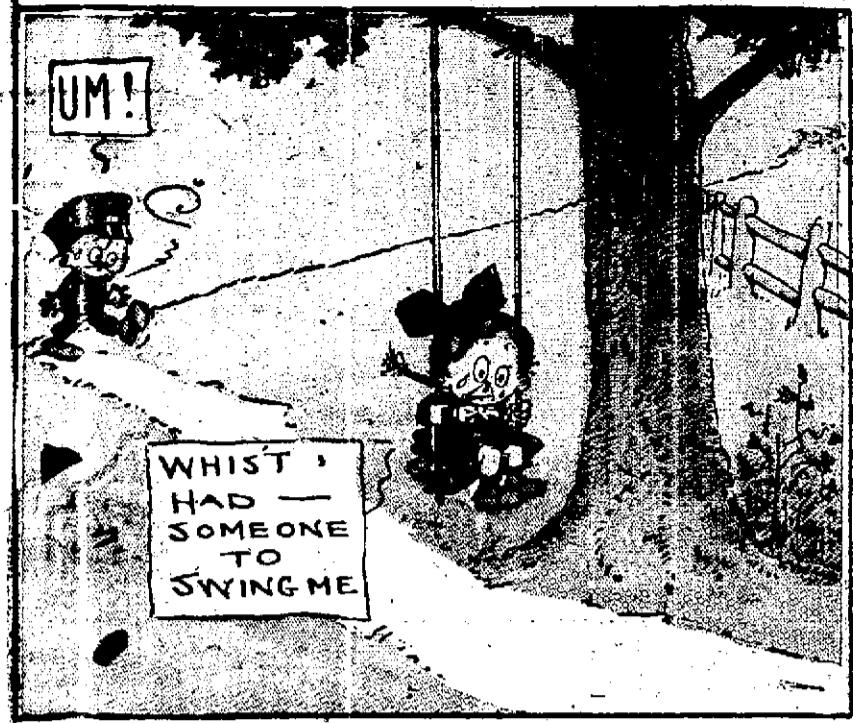

NOT A WORD SIR!

DIDN'T YOU SEE HIM TRAMP IN MY EYE, AUNT EMMY?

BOO! HOO! WE DIDN'T GET OUR PICTURES TAKED! BAA-A!!

Jimmie THE Messenger Boy meets with another Surprise

Red Shellope '07

FARMER JUDKINS' POSTPONED TRIP

